Then and

Clubs
Now
These language clubs provide imagined trips to Paris, Madrid, and Frankfurt-am-Main; songfests; and snack parties.
Sigma Beta Mu

Some sing, some play. Everybody gets into the act though; consequently, the noon recitals and the annual voice recital.

Glee Club

Snapped just before a rehearsal of the Sacred Concert presented on Palm Sunday. Earlier in the year there was Friml's "The Firefly."
Font Newsletter Staff

The industrious group that gave Fontbonne its first weekly.

Fontbonne Staff

One purpose: to produce a first-rate book of memories.
Student Council

The officers who among other successes obtained all-day smoking privileges.

The governing body of the school interested in the rights, duties, and welfare of the students.
Legion of Mary
Our Lady of Fontbonne Praesidium

Catholic Students' Mission Crusade

Legion of Mary
Our Lady of Good Counsel Praesidium

Fontbonne legionnaires—closer imitators of Mary.

It was tag day for the C. S. M. C.
The officers who planned the Christmas party, the baskets of food for the needy, and May Day.

Reciting the Act of Consecration to the Blessed Mother while being received into the Sodality.
Fontbonne Athletic Association

F. A. A. members all entangled in their preparations for the Penny Circus.

Red Cross Unit

The only collegiate unit in the St. Louis area to canvass for the Red Cross in 1949.
Pep Club

Rehearsing for "Gaslight Gaetees." But there were also pep rallies and loud cheering sections at the basketball games.

Varsity Basketball Team

These are the girls who represented the purple and gold of Fontbonne on the hardwoods. Record for the season: Won 6, lost 4.
Footlights Club

With grease paint and eyebrow pencil this group prepares to bring the theater to Fontbonne.

Delta Phi

Members of the Art Club hard at work preparing hammered trays, wood cuts, and decorated linens for their big event of the year—the Art Bazaar.
Phi Beta Chi

Members prepare a yearly science open house. Off campus they are active boosters of the Missouri Academy of Science.

Home Economics Club

The future home-makers, dietitians, and dress-designers of America.
Resident Students' Association

Photographed at their annual Christmas dinner.

Student Activities Council

Composed of the presidents of the various organizations on the campus, this council arranged the calendar of club events and meetings.
Having dinner at Conrad's Cupboard. There were other dinners though because this group believes in mixing business with eating.
Then and

Activities
Looks like Santa's telling a good one ... Mystic Mari ... No business like show business.
Jo's Christmas song ... Helen giving out in "The Firefly" ... "Hello, my honey."
Down to Carondelet... Look, Ma, I'm dancing... Fontbonne backs the Bills.
I'll be home for Christmas... The winners... A windy night in December.
Aren't they cute? ... Seumas ... We're on our way.
Key day—at last ... The coming of the green ... Silence.
Time out . . . The Queen . . . Who's the Queen?
I. G. T., Parks, Fontbonne . . . Bring flowers of the fairest . . . Dance that opened Medaille.
The promenade ... The welcome mat ... Service with a smile.

Coming home ... Look at the birdie ... Chow time.
