FONTBONNE

1958

Fontbonne College
Saint Louis, Missouri
The cover, created by Art Editor Paula Diviney, and the five division pages, arranged by the art staff members, of the 1958 Fontbonne, are done in a collage medium, i.e., a cluster of almost anything, and, in this yearbook, of cardboard, woodshavings, twigs, burlap, paper, and various tools of a carpenter. These are pasted together and transposed artistically into descriptive patterns through related lines and textures.
DEDICATION

The 1958 Fontbonne is dedicated to Saint Joseph, Patron of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet. Under many appellations, the Foster Father of Christ has been acclaimed through the ages. In this yearbook, Saint Joseph is honored under the particular title of Guardian of Virgins, Saint Joseph the Workman, Patron of the Universal Church, Head of the Holy Family, and Spouse of the Mother of God.
Saint Joseph, Patron of the Universal Church
by Jo Ann Reed

For many years Saint Joseph has been invoked as Patron of the Catholic Church in the world. During his life he lived deep in the mystery of Jesus and Mary. After his death, now in Heaven, Saint Joseph still watches over the Church as he did its Divine Founder.

The design represents Saint Joseph’s hand holding up St. Peter’s, the principal Church of Christendom, surrounded by the map of the world. The stylized lily, the fleur-de-lis, symbolizes the purity of Saint Joseph’s patronage. The Chi Rho is Christ.

Saint Joseph, the Workman

by Arlene Brockelman

The new feast of Saint Joseph the Workman for May 1 gives the Catholic laborer a powerful patron and model. With full confidence the working world can look to the Saint for aid in its efforts to build a better social order, one that has social charity as its soul.

In the representation the carpenter’s tools tell of Saint Joseph’s occupation, that of a carpenter. The Saint Joseph’s lily is formed from carpenter’s tools and paper.

St. Joseph, Head of the Holy Family

by Gina Borelli

This is one of the best known titles attributed to Saint Joseph. It signifies his fatherhood in the Family at Nazareth and his constant guardianship of the Child and His Mother, for according to the Psalmist, "My truth and my mercy shall be with him; in my name shall his power be exalted."

In the design the Saint Joseph lily and hands represent Saint Joseph's ever present protection and guidance. The Mother and Child resting on the lily show their utter dependence upon the Head of the Holy Family.

Saint Joseph, Spouse of the Mother of God
by Cathleen Power

Scripture relates that Saint Joseph was just, pure, gentle, prudent, and a lover of holy silence. Above all, this Carpenter of Nazareth was unfailingly obedient to the will of God. The love of Saint Joseph for Mary was strong and pure and faithful.

In the representation the two pillars and the straw roof signify the Stable in Bethlehem, over which is hanging the Star directing the reader to the Crib and to Saint Joseph. He is represented by the lily. The entwining rings symbolize the espousals of Saint Joseph and the Blessed Virgin Mary.

The Font and Fontbonne Staffs introduce Jane Boyd Young, who typifies the Fontbonne College student as she makes her way from freshman through sophomore and junior to senior year.

Fontbonne College aims to develop the student intellectually, so that she may judge rightly, evaluate correctly, and live justly in accordance with the principles of faith and of right reason.

The College strives to provide ample opportunity for the student to specialize in the field of her choice so that she may take her place in society as an educated, cultured, prepared Christian woman.

"Do not be afraid, Joseph, son of David, to take to thee Mary thy wife, for that which is begotten in her is of the Holy Spirit." (Matt: 1:20) Saint Joseph, symbolized by the "St. Joseph Lily," as it is familiarly called, as the Guardian of the Blessed Virgin protected her all during their life together.

In the design three Virgins are coming through the door of a convent. The Cross held in the hands of one Virgin represents a religious vocation. The rosary in the hands of the second Virgin is devotion to Our Blessed Mother. The martyr's palm carried by the third Virgin is symbolic of chastity.
