Current Student Testimonials

Anna Takano (Japan)

- High School: St. Joseph Joshi Gakuen
- Fontbonne Major: Global Studies (Bachelor's)

"I love Fontbonne! It is easy to get along with everyone because of the small campus, and it is also very easy to speak up in the class because there are few students in the class. There are many events here and I am having a fulfilling student life."

The Viet Pham (Vietnam)

- University: Foreign Trade University (Bachelor's)
- Fontbonne Major: MBA (Master's)

"I have been at Fontbonne for a year, and so far I have had a wonderful experience here. I enjoy the interesting and practical classes. The professors have different ways of teaching, however, in general, they are very experienced, thoughtful and conscientious. I have gained a vast amount of both academic and real-life knowledge from them. Everybody on campus is supportive and friendly, which makes me feel like I am at home. The Office of International Affairs held many exciting events (International Bazaar, Lunar New year, numerous trips around St. Louis). These events not only brought me fun but also helped me make friends with other American and international students. Fontbonne is such a great community, and I have not felt alone at all since I came here."

Alumni Testimonials

Kefeng Shi (China)

- University: Henan University
- Fontbonne Major: Computer Science (Master's)
- Current OPT employment: Colaberry Inc., MONSANTO

"Fontbonne's tuition is not too much, which doesn't give me too much financial pressure. We have small classes, so we can have a very close relationship with the teacher. It is very easy for you to get the help from your teacher and the classes help to prepare for a successful career."

Gopi Sai Yadav Kollipara (India)

- University: Jawaharalal Nehru Technological University
- Fontbonne Major: Computer Science (Master's)
- OPT employment: Reflexis Systems Inc.

"Fontbonne University is a light in the darkness. Small classes allow personal attention from professors. They offer solutions and answers to questions. Fontbonne has given me a way to nurture my future."
