Profession of Faith (Nicene Creed):

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

MAGGIE GUNN FOWLER '64

Following her graduation from Fontbonne with her Bachelor of Arts in Speech and Drama, Maggie Gunn Fowler served as a papal volunteer high school teacher for two years in Belize. She taught English, religion and sewing and directed drama activities after school. Maggie was later chair of St. Joseph Academy's speech and drama department from 1966-1970. She later embarked on a career in fund development, including the position of director of development at Fontbonne from 2004-2005.

Throughout her family, community and personal endeavors, Maggie has maintained her service to Fontbonne and was recognized for her commitment in 2014, receiving the Service to the University award. She has balanced volunteer work for her parishes, children's schools and the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet Motherhouse. Maggie is a charter member of the Fontbonne Community Connection (FCC), a women's giving circle. She has held several leadership positions on the FCC, including chair. Maggie is currently serving as the co-chair of the membership committee.

Maggie married her husband Ed in 1970. Together they have five children and eleven grandchildren.

Maggie comes from a long legacy of Fontbonne alumnae. In fact, her family's history with the school literally goes back to the University's founding. In 1923, her aunt Catherine Gunn Dye was the first to matriculate as a college student at the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet Motherhouse. In September 1925, Maggie's mother, Loretto Hennelly, was in the first freshman class to attend Fontbonne at its brand new Wydown campus. Other family Fontbonne graduates include her sisters Kay Gunn Martin '55, Sister Donna Gunn '61, CSJ and Bridget Gunn Calcaterra '72, plus sisters-in-laws Lee Hynek Gunn '63 and Kate Toohey Gunn '65. Several members of the Gunn family have also received the prestigious Founders Award: Loretto Hennelly Gunn (1986) Donald Gunn, Jr. (1989), Sr. Donna Gunn, CSJ (1996), Thomas M. Gunn, (2004) and Kate Toohey Gunn (2015).
