TWO FORMER STUDENTS BECOME VISITANDINES

Bernice Collum, Sophomore Last Year, Now Sister Bernadette.

Two Fontbonne students figured in the solemn ceremonies of reception and profession at Visitation Convent, Cahoon and Belt avenues, at 3 p.m. Thursday, March 8, when Bernice Collum, of last year's sophomore class, was admitted to the novitiate as Sister Mary Bernadette, and Helen Born, a member of the junior class in 1926, who is known in religion as Sister Mary Helen, pronounced her vows.

Rev. J. J. McGlynn officiated at the ceremony. Father McGlynn, in charge of St. Rose's Church, baptized Bernice Collum and has been her pastor ever since. Several representatives of the Fontbonne faculty and student body were present.

Both young religious had spent some years as students of the Visitandines.

Neuropathologist to Talk

Mr. Tom Taggart, an assistant editor of The Globe-Democrat, will address the Press Club Thursday at 11. At a meeting of the club Monday, March 12, four new members were admitted. They are Agnes Beatty, 25, and Grace Carroll, 26, and Gertrude Kelly, 31.

Musicians Invited Out

The Fontbonne glee club and string orchestra will give several numbers Wednesday evening, April 11, as a program for the benefit of the Catholic Instruction League in the St. Louis University auditorium. The feature of the evening is to be an illustrated lecture by Rev. T. J. Schulte, S. J., on St. Ignatius of Loyola.

FONDBONNE TO RECEIVE JUBILARIANS THURSDAY

Superiors of Congregation to Meet Students After High Mass.

Thursday, March 22, has been set for the reception which Fontbonne will tender the two general superiors of the Sisters of St. Joseph, Reverend Mother Agnes and Mother Assistant Columba, to congratulate them on the fiftieth anniversary of their religious profession. The students will assemble for solemn Mass celebrated at 9 o'clock by Rev. M. S. Ryan, C. M., D. D., of Kenrick Seminary, at which Rev. A. M. Schwall, S. J., dean of the School of Medicine, St. Louis University, will deliver the sermon. Rev. F. J. O'Connor, pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes Church, will officiate at Benediction.

A choir of students will sing the new polyphonic Mass in honor of St. Peter Canisius, composed by Rev. Herbert Gruen, S. J., of St. Louis University. Immediately after Mass the students will be presented to the jubilarians in the parlors of Ryan Hall. During this reception the Fontbonne orchestra will play and, at its close the Glea Club will sing.

Reverend Father and Mother Assistant have been in great part responsible for the planning and building of Fontbonne, and have been for half a century directly interested in St. Joseph's Academy.

At North Central Sessions

Mother Irene, president of Fontbonne, and Sister Lucida, dean, went Tuesday to Chicago to attend the convention of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools being held at Hotel Sherman, March 14, 15, and 16. They will return Saturday evening.

Upperclass Champions To Play Sophs Friday

Two more hard fought games were played on Friday, March 9, between Freshman A and Sophomore team, ending with a score of 41-12 in favor of the Freshmen, and between Freshmen B and the Senior college teams, score 28-18 in favor of the Senior college.

The Sophomore team, which includes last year's champions, has won the last two out of three games, and tied the first. The tie will be played off next Friday afternoon, March 19, at 3 p.m., between the Sophomores and the Senior college team. After this game, one team will be chosen to represent the Sophomore class in the inter-class tournament which will begin soon.

Fontbonne Frock Pictured in "Modes and Manners"

The Fontbonne frock which has added individuality and charm to college women's fashion, has carried it to beyond the campus. Three students were selected to be photographed for illustrations of the various colored frocks which will appear in the April issue of "Modes and Manners," a quarterly fashion magazine published by the store which supplies the uniforms.

The students who sat for the pictures are Mildred Bishop, who wears a blue frock; Mary Cecilia Robinson, who wears brown, and Grace Visciano, who wears maroon.
