You should also be concerned with the welfare of others." In closing, he added, "We should strive to be well-rounded individuals who are a credit to our college and our community."

CLUES, THE NEW STUDENTS’ HORROR!
Very frequently complaints have been made by new students concerning the number of clues in a school. This clipping is, of course, more noticeable among the upper classmen. The freshmen and all strangers and have a mutual quest for friends, but new students in other classes are conversed with during the transition.

THE TATTLER
The FONT staff has adopted a new member to its fold, in the form of a mass cut. This newel is a personable little girl, absolutely on the situation, and the TATTLER is delighted to introduce her to its friends.

THE ATTLETT ALKS
In quoting the New Testament, S. H. Beecroft, eminent head of the department of education, says: "It is as hard to get into Heaven as it is for a rich man to get through the eye of a needle."

Fontbonne has long felt the need for the services of a larger orchestra to assist in making various functions such as the play of the Drama Department, and Society May Day, a success. The present orchestra has been more loyal than usual, but a larger numerical organization has become necessary due to the rapid growth of the college and the increasing number of requests for which an orchestra's cooperation is essential.

The Music Department, therefore, is to be congratulated on the joining of the school orchestra to the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, which has taken over the direction of the Municipal Band.

The orchestra leaders are Mr. and Mrs. A. S. W. (Jed) Albertson, Mr. S. A. F. (Jack) Albertson, Mr. A. S. F. (Jack) Albertson, and Mr. S. A. F. (Jack) Albertson.

A valuable opportunity will be afforded those who are interested in attending the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra concerts this year, beginning November 1 and ending March 1. The thirty-dollar season tickets will be sold to the students for fifteen dollars. These tickets may be divided so that each student may attend two concerts at thirty cents each, either on Friday afternoons or Saturday evenings. Among the leading soloists will be Fritz Kreisler, Arthur Jerome, José Iturbi, Serge Rachmanoff, and Gene Aramukoff.

Martha Redmond, a member of the music department, will be the first of the Fontbonne students to play on the March 15, 1934, March 15, 1934, position of a musician in the orchestra. The concert will be held at 8 p.m. in the auditorium.

The new instructor in dramatic art, Miss Kathleen Scott, M.M., was formerly associated with the Fontbonne Festival Club. She comes from the Glenville State Teachers' College, Glencoe, Tennessee, Virginia. The new instructor is Betty Hoffman, treasurer.
Death of First College Alumna

On September eighteenth, the Fontbonne Alumna was deeply grieved in form of the death of one of its members, Miss Eudora Daily, of the class of 1928. The organization mourns her loss, and doubly so, as she is the first of its members to be claimed by death. At the time of her death, Miss Daily was in Pittsburgh, Pa., where she had been an instructor for the past two years, of home economics, in the Anderson High School, which is conducted by the Sisters of St. Joseph.

Miss Daily taught at Fontbonne in the early nineties. During her four years as a student in the college she was president of all student activities. She was a member of the basketball team which reached the finals in the 1912 race for the Father's Club championship. She also was a member of the Glee Club, Phi Beta Kappa, and Lady's Band. In her last year of school, she and Miss Madeline McQuaid were the two presidents of the department of home economics at Fontbonne.
