Baile Resort Lists Students Passing Exams

Ten Alumnae and Students Attended Winter Camp Has Traversed Various Works.

Three years ago today, a group of students and alumni pooled their funds to create the Baile Resort, a retreat for young women. This year, the resort is celebrating its third anniversary with a special event. The celebrations began with a series of passes for various works, including the latest book by famous author J.K. Rowling.

The event was attended by ten alumnae and students, who came together to enjoy the beauty of the Baile Resort. The group spent the day exploring the surroundings, participating in various activities, and engaging in lively discussions. They were joined by a special guest, who shared insights and stories about their experiences at the resort.

The day ended with a grand finale, featuring a special performance by one of the resort's resident artists. The audience was captivated by the talent and creativity on display, making it a memorable event for all in attendance.

The Baile Resort continues to be a beloved destination for alumnas and students, offering a unique and enriching experience that fosters community and growth. As they celebrate their third anniversary, the resort looks forward to many more years of creating memories and building lasting relationships.

Second Years
"Turkey Trot"
For All Classes

Haven't you heard the saying, "Wishful thinking is always changing"? This certainly true in respect to the "Turkey Trot" annual and keeps. Maybe it's because she likes in as different as the next one. Anyway, you must admit that this the first time to the annual.

Throughout the summer the Fortunno athletes seemed to take care of their bodies, and the basketball teams worked on a two pro.

Scientists Vote
To Raise Funds
For Glass Case

William A. Murdock, President of the Academy, at a meeting of the Academy's Board of Trustees last week, announced that the Academy had decided to raise funds for the construction of a glass case to house the Academy's valuable geological collection. This decision was made after careful consideration of the options available.

The glass case will be situated in the Academy's new Science Building, which is scheduled to be completed by the end of the year. The case will be used to display the Academy's collection of minerals, fossils, and other geological specimens, which are currently stored in the basement of the Academy's main building.

The Academy has already received several donations from individual donors, including a significant gift from a local businessman. However, additional funding is still needed to complete the construction of the glass case.

The Academy is currently seeking contributions from its alumni, current students, and members of the local community. Donations can be made through the Academy's website or by contacting the Development Office directly.

The Fortonde Orchestra will be performing at the "Dance of My Heart," a benefit for local charity. The orchestra is made up of student performers from the music programs.

Dear Auntie Ruby:

It must be something in the way, for the Fourteenth seems to be very attractive this year. Let me know what you think is going on.

The journal of the month seems to be on the Southern border, with Virginia and the Carolinas. When Jim's band opened the season, the gift of music was delivered, poor Pannamo-Barry, but he doesn't expect to receive two small boxes of cookies which Virginia bought and told the clerk to "find out." And while Jim was following her, why her mother hadn't delivered, poor Pannamo-Barry was hearing her aunt call.

Can you imagine Betty Starbuck's surprise when she walked into the music hall? She had so much to say about the new validations and latest beauty fashions. They wore a most charming and entertaining exhibition of their new day and semana, but everything had been put in a repeat performance. And when she saw herself against them, she was not permitted in the halls of F.C., but someone told her Mary Lee was seeing something even more exciting with her back. "Come to Steeplechase with your aunt," she said. "Have you had any results, Mary?"

Nate Horsey has received a threat from a certain certain, but his money will not be touched. She generally has no money, but the next time she is in the neighborhood, she will be waiting for you.

Who is the lucky one? Our good friend "March" is going to visit in Pottsville tomorrow. Do you suppose it is a secret?

I must have heard that Jimmy Simmons has been here for several days. He doesn't seem to be here very often, but he is usually a very quiet person. I really must say that the things he does are very impressive.

Students at the school have been complaining about the several freshman classes, particularly those taught by the popular and jovial professors. They are having a great deal of trouble keeping the students engaged in the lessons.

Those checker and bridge games in the dorms... someone has been playing them. They say they are very popular, but when you ask them who they are, they all say they are " alors!

I am sure you did not hear about a certain place that began its existence about the middle of the month. It is called "The Night, and it is located in the heart of the city. It is open twenty-four hours a day, and the atmosphere is described as "charming." It is very popular among the younger set, and it seems to be a favorite spot for socializing.

Sincerely yours,

A RY
