Students Hear
President Give
Yearly Address

Mother Joseph Aloysius Spreads Oil "Emotional Stability" At Assembly.

"Worry is inextricably tied with the destruction of the human spirit," said Mother Joseph Aloysius at the annual address given before the Student Association on Monday. "It can do as much destruction within us as does another human being. Worry is equivalent to violence. We ought to attempt to overcome worry before it becomes a human sorcist."

Mother Joseph Aloysius spoke of worry in a philosophical sense. She said that worry is a conderent state of the mind that results in a conderent condition of the body. She said that wory is a physical disease that causes physical discomfort.

In conclusion, she spoke of the importance of worry in the life of humankind. She said that worry is a disease that causes physical and emotional discomfort.

Evelyn Papin Puts Finishing Touches On 'Holiday Festival' Dances, Committees Selected

Scheduled To Take Place In Font's Cafeteria Next Monday.

The "Holiday Festival" staged at Christmas, Valentine's Day, Easter, Fourth of July, Halloween, and Thanksgiving is nearing a completion, with final touches being added by Evelyn Papin, who was named as chairman of the festival committee. Miss Papin has been swarming about the halls, making up little 'pockets' of decorations. This project is the actual creation of the Orange Club, which started the project about two months ago.

In addition to numerous volunteers, dances have been selected for the event.

A Ballroom of the Central Park Hotel is being dedicated as an open room. The representing Washington, D.C., is given by Mary Jane. The Red Cross, of course, will also be recognized.

Father Kiefer Concludes Talks

Rev. Joseph S. Kiefer, S. J., president of the St. Louis College of Cardinals, has concluded his series of talks on "The Christian Conception of Education" to the members of the "Theological and Ecumenical Order." The object of the last lecture given at the college was to stress the importance of education in the life of the church and in the life of the individual. The lecture was delivered in the main hall and was attended by about 50 persons.

"There is incomparably more original meaning in the Biblical hypothesis concerning education," the speaker said. "The Biblical hypothesis presents a view of education in which the individual is regarded as having an integrity of his own and an autonomy in his own individuality." He then discussed the problems of education in society and the relation of education to society.

ST. JOSEPH

If you were to visit Nazareth, one of the St. Louis houses of our Sisters of St. Joseph, and were to enter a certain corner, you would be told that this corner was the prayer corner of the sisters. A few steps would lead you to a small, unpretentious room. In the center of the room, there is a table, on which are placed a crucifix, a chalice, and a candle. Surrounding the table are several chairs, each occupied by a sister. They sit in a circle, their eyes fixed on the crucifix. The sisters are engaged in prayer. The ambiance is serene, the atmosphere is peaceful. This is the prayer corner, a place where the sisters come to reflect, to pray, and to seek guidance from their faith.

Dear Editor,

Could you please explain to me the difference between the point system and the honor point system? I have noticed numerous girls getting in trouble for violating the codes in the last few weeks and I am just curious to know if there are any changes that have been made to these systems. I think it would be helpful to get a better understanding of how these systems work and how they impact the daily life of the students here.

Sincerely yours,

A FRESHMAN

Dear Editor,

You're not really one of those people who are always complaining, nor do I think there is a reason for you to be so. I'm just here to offer you some advice.

Take it easy. Remember that you're not the only one who's going through this. You're not alone. And you're not the only one who's going through this. You're not the only one who's going through this.

Just remember that you're not the only one who's going through this. You're not alone. And you're not the only one who's going through this. You're not the only one who's going through this.

Remember that you're not the only one who's going through this. You're not alone. And you're not the only one who's going through this. You're not the only one who's going through this.
