Assembly Will Hear Reverend O. F. Dudley

English Convent and Author of "Masterful Monk" Will Speak, Oct. 11

Dr. Oskar Francis Dudley, English convert, author and apostle to a million Indians, will be the College Day guest speaker, Monday, Oct. 11, at 11:30 a.m. in the chapel. His college address is "Masterful Monk," a study of the life of the famous and picturesque missionary, Father Damien. The subject has been made of the book by a former student of the missionary's work and a friend of his family. The author, a convert to the faith, will speak from the experience of a number of his own students and friends of the missionary's life and work. He will describe the work of the mission and the methods of instruction used. The talks will be given from memory and the text will be read from the volume.

Dear Miss Smith:

Hello, dear...and sorry to hear you're having so much trouble with your car. I must say, I don't think it's the engine or the transmission that's causing the problem. It's more likely the brakes or the tires. Have you had them checked recently?

Sincerely,

FRED F. FINONNE

Helen Gonyu in Interview Tells Of Summer Travel In Europe

 Accompanied by Sioyes, Virginia, and Virginia O'Heinn, Founhousee Alumnae.

Three foreign countries are the only two pupils advanced one month after a summer journey to Europe. Helen Gonyu, at 56, was, together with Sioyes, Virginia, and Virginia O'Heinn, who were probably the only two alumnae of the class of 1890 who have visited Germany, Belgium, and France.
