Rev. Thos. Gavan-Duffy Tells Of Crusade In India Foreign Mission

Assembly Speaker Has Spent 20 Years In Advocating The Education Of Refugees At Calcutta.

After leaving Reverend Thomas Gavan-Duffy spent 20 years in India, during which time he traveled extensively and became an expert on the country. He is the son of Sir Charles Gavan, English historian, and was born in 1835. His education was received in Ireland and he received his degree from Trinity College, Dublin, in 1858. 30 years later, in 1880, the same year that the mission was established in India, he was appointed to the post of Secretary of the Scottish Missionary Society.

During the last few years, the influence of India has been very forceful in its efforts to educate and reform the Indian people. The mission has been very successful, and has made a great deal of progress in the country. At the time of his arrival, there were only 100,000 children in attendance, and now there are over 1,000,000.
