Cupid Doesn’t Take Holiday This Season

“Middle-Aging” It Seems Thing To Do

Have you the kind, “There is no time for leisure, work, work, work, work.” The routine of these days makes it a task to finish even the most important work. The mere emphasis is not enough but extra time is needed. The business of the day is to get the work done and keep it done.

Parents’ meeting at 8:00 p.m. today, in the upper hall of the school. The meeting is to be held for the benefit of all the parents, and will be followed by a business meeting of the school board.

You Are Up On Your Reading?

Are you up on your reading? Have you the latest and the best in the library and not just the popular books of the day?

The following is a list of the books added to the library:
- "The Education of the American Girl," by Alice Dunbar-Nelson
- "What Would You Do If You Were President?" by John F. Kennedy
- "The 20th Century," by Henry Ford

You are not? Then you need to get a good book and read it.

Bereaved

Unlimited Guest Of "Melodrama" Class Exposes Lively Dialogues

By Ann Jenkins

We just laughed and laughed when we were told to sit on a floor in the center of the stage. "The audience is here to enjoy the show," the actors said. "So enjoy it!" Then they began their performance, and we all roared with laughter. It was the beginning of an unforgettable evening.

Camera Catches Artists, Model At Right Moment

Studies Date Of Paint, Pieces Of Canvass, And Colors, Still Modes

With Leon Travers, active residence from New York, and Miss Kathleen D'Arcy, from England, the famous oil painting school, you can never be sure what they might come up with. Ms. D'Arcy has just completed another of her latest works. "The model," she said, "is the star of the show," and indeed, she proved it with her flawless performance. The painting is now on display at the school.

Christmas Greetings to You

My dear Mrs. G:

Today's issue of the Font brings you most especial greetings, the season of glad tidings, of Happy Christmas, of happiness and joy.

The season of the Christmas spirit brings the season of offices, delightful rooms and happy visits. As you gather around the Christmas tree, remember the joy it brings to all.

The season of the Christmas spirit brings the season of offices, delightful rooms and happy visits. As you gather around the Christmas tree, remember the joy it brings to all.

My dear Sister:

The day the day before Christmas brings the day for all of you to the season of glad tidings, of Happy Christmas, of happiness and joy.

The season of the Christmas spirit brings the season of offices, delightful rooms and happy visits. As you gather around the Christmas tree, remember the joy it brings to all.

Yours truly,
SISTER MARY DENTO

Dear Parents:

May the Christ Child be pleased with your Holy Christmas, and may Our Blessed Mother listen to your many prayers on Christmas morning.

May your heart be filled with gladness and your blessings with presents on Christmas morning.

May all the joy you receive on Christmas morning be pleasant memories and new year bring happiness and health.

MARGE JANE HELM
President of the Student Association

According to the Reader's Digest, there are many variations in the Christmas spirit. Every Christmas morning, New York City's Ebenezer Santa Claus, Dr. William H. Wintergall, leads his many, many presents on Christmas morning. So much so that Dr. Wintergall is known in the area as "the Father of Christmas." He leaves these presents in the homes of the poor and needy, as well as in the homes of the rich and famous. According to the Reader's Digest, there are many variations in the Christmas spirit.
