Rose Mary Murphy Chosen Freshman President

Class of ’44
Select Officers For Coming Year

ROSEMARY MURPHY
Freshman President

The Freshman Class in a recent meeting elected for its president, Rose Mary Murphy, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Murphy, 717 Northwester Drive, Naperville City, Illinois. Before this year Mrs. Murphy had been appointed assistant manager of the class until a president should be elected by class vote. Mrs. Murphy is a member of St. Margaret’s Academy, where she was graduated last June.

Also elected were: Vice-President, Margaret Huntington; Secretary, Mrs. J. A. Mooney; Treasurer, Margaret McCaskey; Assistant Secretary, Mrs. E. F. Backenstoe, 3 1/2 Avenue, Cruces, Missouri; Assistant Treasurer, John M. Mooney, 150 W. 12 Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

The freshmen wished to hold class elections until the program of orientation had been completed, and the girls had already unofficially chosen to attend to provide the time to let their class and to promote it.

Letter to Ye Sister

-- the open book --

Greetings, Ye Sister.

I've a problem on my hand. Ye Sister, and I thought perhaps you would help me sort it out—ye know well and truly.

You see, it's like this. Robert John and I are in love. I mean, we have feelings for each other, you know. We've been talking for a few months now, and I think I'm ready to take things further. But he's been so quiet lately, and I'm not sure how to approach him. I don't want to push him, but I also don't want to lose him.

I've been trying to find the right moment to talk to him, but every time I think I've got it right, something else comes up. It's been driving me crazy. I don't know how to make him feel comfortable about talking about it.

What do you think I should do? Do you think I should wait for him to bring it up, or should I just go for it and see how he reacts?

Robert, if you're reading this, please know that I care deeply about you and I want to figure out how we can make this work. Thank you for being patient with me as I navigate this tricky situation.

Ye Sister

Nothing to Sing About

Everyone has a message to send across these days, everyone has something to diet about, and I suppose that if I didn't care what would happen to my neck, I should not need any more of the mottoes. I'm going to put over my little bit of propaganda.

Did you ever stop to think how you are affected by your environment, you've picked up your skin and buried it in the snow. This is not absolutely true, but perhaps it's possible, and you've seen the human condition. On the contrary, the human condition is just as true in the snow as in the heat.

How did you like the Vehil Philanthropist pencil and ball? Don't tell me, but just look out. This is a short time before the next council has been celebrated in St. Louis. Say, conservatively, you can be sure on an average annual expenditure of $250 for 64 years—yes, fellow, I'm Singing. So you get the idea—no, no. Nothing but a pencil, a ball, and a note or two. You can do it. I mean that original wits, ladies, and all those other things, plus just that country music, and it's a time people begin to realize...

You're a real Valid—oh, and remember the council?

Court of love and beauty! Again, it is a question of the social and domestic side, and again, it is a question of the council. You've got to be careful, you've got to be careful.

Looking over the month's cultural page this other day, I noticed an article on the board, very good indeed. But do you know that this is something that can be done in the future, and that we've got to be careful. You've got to be careful, you've got to be careful.

And another thing, here. I've been doing something for a while now, and I've been doing it for a while now. And I've been doing it for a while now. And I've been doing it for a while now.

So you see, it's just a matter of time, and you've been doing it for a while now. And you've been doing it for a while now. And you've been doing it for a while now. And you've been doing it for a while now.

Now for the main thing. You see, the main thing is that you've been doing it for a while now. And you've been doing it for a while now. And you've been doing it for a while now. And you've been doing it for a while now.

THE MIRROR IS NEAR US

Susan Gleason brings us a pleasant story of life and devotion in her latest novel, The Mirror Is Near Us.

This is the story of Lydia Chapman and her life of devotion to her children. It is a beautiful story of the work of devotion to the cross, and of the joy and sacrifice of motherhood.

Miss Gleason presents her characters in a clear and masterly manner. The book is full of mystery, and suspense, and brings a story greatly different from most of today's novels.

This is Miss Gleason's first novel for about eight years, and it is a welcome return to the public. The book is well worth reading, both in content and style, and is an excellent addition to the canon of religious literature.
