Student Publications Merit “All Catholic Honors” Last Year

Is Highest Rating Given By Catholic Press Association

In a 1941-42 survey of 51 student publications, the Fontbonne, the college newspaper, has been awarded the “All Catholic Honors” which it earned in the survey conducted annually by the Catholic Press Association. The survey is based on the paper's presentation of Catholicism, editorial content, layout, and other factors. The Fontbonne earned a rating of 71 percent, which is the highest rating given by the Catholic Press Association.

Mary Meyer is President of Senior Class for Coming Year

Betsy Ball Elected Pres. of Junior Class

Fontbonne Registers 90 Freshmen; Six Faculty Members Added to Staff

Freshmen Given Extensive Orientation Program Through Week of October 15th

The freshmen were made acquainted with college life during the orientation program, which was under way when the week before classes began. The morning they arrived was in the conclusion when they were greeted by Sister Joseph Miriam, rector of the college. Sister Mary Jane, President, Sister Mary Jane, Secretary, and Sister Joseph Miriam, Rector, welcomed the new faculty members and the freshmen.

Dean's Message

My Dear Students:
The faculty of Fontbonne welcome you to campus, and we hope you will feel at ease and become a part of our community. We hope you will take advantage of all the resources available to you, including the library, the campus bookstore, and the dining hall.

Fontbonne Editor Chooses Staff For “42 Book”

The staff of the Fontbonne for 1941-42, and President of the Student Association, has been elected by the students. The staff will be announced soon.

Survey Shows 1941 Graduates Are Busy Little People

Students are busy people, and the survey shows that the Fontbonne graduates are no exception. They are engaged in a variety of activities, including teaching, business, and professional work.

Fontbonne Editor Chooses Staff For “42 Book”

The staff of the Fontbonne for 1941-42, and President of the Student Association, has been elected by the students. The staff will be announced soon.
The Font, October 5, 1934

THE FONT

Let's Talk
It Over...

From Wes Atkinson

Dad's Little Black

I don't know about you, but I'm looking forward to the holiday season. The tree lights up, and I can decorate it with all my favorite ornaments. It's such a cozy feeling. What about you?

Sister Suzanne Marie, Fonbonne Alumna, Believes Youth of Today Has Changed Much

In the world of youth today, things are changing. Sister Suzanne Marie, a fonbonne alumna, believes this change has been significant. In her words, "Youth today is different. They are more open-minded, and they don't hold back on expressing their thoughts." This change is not limited to the youth of today; it has been happening for a long time, as Sister Suzanne Marie points out, "We need to adapt to the changes that are happening around us."
Georgia Sporsons
Only F. C. Alumnae
Club In America

Officers of the Georgia Frontenac Club, the only group of its kind chartered by the Frontenac alumnae, were recently elected at a business meeting held in the home of Dorothy Bechtel, '36. Those elected were: President, Elizabeth M. Ricards, '34; vice-president, Virginia Mack, '36; secretary and treasurer, May Belle H. Allen, '39; assistant treasurer, Mabel K. Holt, '36; and executive committee, Misses Mary E. Q. Field, '36; and Dorothy Kelly, '39.

Penny Circus Will
Be Oct. F.A.T. Event

The first of the F.A.T. penny circuses, the annual homecoming entertainment, is scheduled for October 5th, 1938. At the time of this writing, the programs of the circuses have not been announced. For information, write to Misses Dorothy Bechtel, '36; and Dorothy Kelly, '39.

Freshman Orientation

Students from the Freshman class, under the direction of the Dean of Women, Dr. Mabel K. Holt, and the Dean of Men, Dr. Charles H. Bechtel, were organized for Freshman orientation exercises last Wednesday. The exercises were held in the auditorium of the college and were attended by the entire Freshman class.

Message of Student Government Head

On behalf of the Student government, I wish to express our best wishes to all of the students who are coming to the new students. They have, indeed, had an exciting and enjoyable year and we are confident that they will be greatly interested in the activities of the Student government. We are certain that they will have a wonderful year and we hope that they will continue to support and encourage the activities of the Student government.

BE ON THE LOOK-OUT, STUDENTS! GIRL WANTED! STOLE BROTHER’S ARGYLE PLAIDS!

Full has certainly arrived, and with it the blast of the new season. We have all been looking forward to this time of the term and we are ready to enjoy the season to the fullest. We have a wonderful opportunity to make the most of the season and we are determined to make the most of it.

School Comfort

School comfort for the cold days in the winter months is an important consideration. The comfort of the students is an important consideration in the planning of the school comfort. The comfort of the students is an important consideration in the planning of the school comfort. The comfort of the students is an important consideration in the planning of the school comfort. The comfort of the students is an important consideration in the planning of the school comfort.

Stolen Plaids

The stolen plaids are of great interest to the students and the administration. The administration is doing everything possible to find the culprits and recover the plaids. The administration is doing everything possible to find the culprits and recover the plaids. The administration is doing everything possible to find the culprits and recover the plaids. The administration is doing everything possible to find the culprits and recover the plaids.

Spotlight

Last week of the month, we were looking forward to our social event. We were planning to have a lot of fun and we were looking forward to it. We were planning to have a lot of fun and we were looking forward to it. We were planning to have a lot of fun and we were looking forward to it.

Wins Contest

The Wins Contest is one of the most popular contests in the school. It is a contest that is open to all students and it is a contest that is open to all students and it is a contest that is open to all students.

Winners

The winners of the contest were announced last week. The winners of the contest were announced last week. The winners of the contest were announced last week.

Rosemary Howard ’41

Rosary Howard ’41, graduate of Providence College, has been awarded the first prize in the national contest for the best humorous cartoon. The contest was sponsored by the Providence College Press and the Catholic University of America.

Readers Write

The editors of The Font are always interested in hearing from our readers. If you have any comments or suggestions for improvement, please feel free to write to us. We welcome your feedback and we will do our best to incorporate your suggestions into future issues.

Profile of Editor

A profile of the editor of The Font, John Smith, is available for your reading pleasure. John Smith is a talented writer and he is dedicated to providing our readers with the highest quality content. He is a great asset to our team and we are proud to have him on our staff.
Free Press Is Imperative To Preservation of Democracy

National Newspaper Week will be observed October first through eighth. This is observed annually to acknowledge Journalism. Such an event is particularly important at this time, when the United States possesses the freedom of press that it values.

Merritt Law is a modern institution of the kind whose name is known with pride in the long and illustrious history of metropolitan families which have maintained a policy of free publications.

All in all, Journalism is a modern institution of the kind whose name is known with pride in the long and illustrious history of metropolitan families which have maintained a policy of free publications.

KAMPUS KRIER

Evelyn Hurley Heads Poetry Club This Year

All the members of the Poetry Club are so far found. The results were: Evelyn Hurley, president; Alice Lam, vice-president, and Mrs. John Russell, secretary.

The purpose of the Club is to further that kind of literature which is so important in the land of today.

Mission Unit Will Discuss China, Oct. 6

The Mission Unit will hold a regular meeting on the first Monday of every month. The first meeting will be on October 6. Dr. Foin, foreign missionary, will discuss China as the industrial country of the present.

Ruth Deerr Merit Award

The award, named for Ruth Deerr, was established by the Student Service of St. Louis University. This makes it the first regular award for the entire campus to be bestowed on an individual

Ruth Deerr Merit Award

Glenmor Scholarship

Glenmor Scholarship

Ruth Deerr Merit Award

Glenmor Scholarship

Ruth Deerr Merit Award

Glenmor Scholarship

TIME WAS... BUT NOW IT'S TIME FOR SPORTS

Work in progress has been rescheduled to the date this year, with a number of different buildings and classrooms to be used for the next month.

Mary Mayer Will Head Home Economics Club

Nearly all of the members of the Home Economics Club are here present. Among them, Edo. Mary Mayer, has been elected president, and Mrs. John Russell, secretary.

The next meeting of the Club has not yet been decided upon.

Footlights Club Elects New Secretary

The Footlights Club began a new season with the election of officers. The officers for this year are: John A. King, president; Laura Smith, vice-president; and Bessie M. Murphy, secretary.

The new officers will be in their second year of the club, and will be in charge of the next meeting of the club.