Annual College Day will present the Reverend Father D'Arcy, English Writer, Will Lecture At Assembly, Oct. 27

Fathers and Mothers present at the Student Union will be invited to the Annual College Day activities. The activities will include a lecture by Father D'Arcy, who will discuss the topic of "The Spirit of Charity: Thomas Aquinas and the Nature of the Beatific Vision." The lecture will be held at 2:00 p.m. in the Student Union Hall. After the lecture, there will be a reception in the Union Hall for the students and their guests. The reception will be followed by a parade through the campus, with the decorated cars of the seniors leading the way. The parade will begin at 3:00 p.m. and will proceed through the campus, with the cars being displayed at various points along the route. The parade will conclude at the Student Union Hall, where there will be a final reception and awards ceremony. Guests are invited to attend the reception and join in the fun. A special note of thanks is extended to all those who have contributed to the success of the Annual College Day activities. Special thanks to the fathers and mothers who have supported the students throughout the year. The Annual College Day is a wonderful opportunity for the students to show their appreciation for their families and the support they have received. The students are looking forward to a day of fun, fellowship, and celebration.
Let's Talk It Over...

Smoker Scoopings:
Preceding in evolution class, Laverne McPherson was the most popular in terms of the two programs that go on in the morning. It is possible, however, the building up program. Can anybody give me the name of the speaking group? It is an outline of the two programs, etc.

At the V. I. P. Ball:
A certain Unterm himself was seen through the long hair of his long nose. He held an empty glass while studying remarks. There is still one other thing that can be tried.

Joan's Joys in What Sophomores Need:
- "I saw you get your funny paper today. What did you get today?"
- "No, I didn't." "Oh, I wish I could have one!"
- I am interested to know what you think of it. I am interested to know what you think of it.

The Font is On:
"What's going on around here? We are all going to do something for the college day. We are all going to do something for the college day." We are all going to have a good time.

Can You Footnote?
"Nitty Gritty without the diamonds is not worth a thing."
"Coldfoot without Mary Kay? What's going on around here?"
"Miss Leacock is here."
"Henry Biddle and I have been looking for you."
"Let's go have a Brooklyn coffee."
"And that's why you go out on the Rosary Recreation every afternoon at 12:45 in the Chapel during October, then where you learn the deep religious significance of College Day and the St. Joseph's Day on that day."

Freshman Says, 'Stupendous'; Senior Says, 'Stupid,' to New Campus Craze

"Traffing from one talk to the other, entwining to get the opinion of many face-to-face, the inquiring reporters received the answers to the question that was for us: "What do you think of the herbal girl adopting pagodas?"

Pat Brown, junior—"I believe in the old-fashioned way. It's silly to be this way."

Raezean (Wo Man Kiki) Keesler, freshman—"When we were first started on campus, the first thing we do is begin thinking of ways to make new friends, and it's hard to do that because of the football."

"I spent much mental energy and at the conclusion I was feeling much better."

Then after much discussion we went on to another subject from that. From there we got

It is all new; it is all new, but it is not really new, and it is not really new."

Mary McMillan, sophomore—"One can read in one of Fontbonne's alumni that we can see the type. It's probably better."n

Jacqueline Bittner, sophomore—"With girls, we are older students or younger students. But at the same time we have much more interest in school and in our future."n
