Seventh Annual Homecoming Makes Cloudy Day a Sunshine of Success

Old Students, Friends, Acquaintances Get Together Again In A Day of Fun

The halls of Fontbonne College were alive again, with the laughter of alumni, parents, and friends, who attended the annual Homecoming, Saturday, November 7. Under the canopy of a dull overcast sky, alumni, friends, and alumni taught guests their old alma mater and talked about the days when school turned out to be a lot of fun. When the doors were opened at 2 p.m., there was a happy feeling in the air, as old friends and new inquired about each other and talked about the old days.

Fontbonne Locks Out Axis With Key Drive

You have probably heard about our key drives at the national level, but did you know that there were similar drives at the local level, too? The Fontbonne key drive was successful in collecting over 200 keys, which were turned in to the administration for the benefit of the school.

Speaker, Mr. Tracy, announced that the drive was a success and that the school would benefit from it.

Alumni Will Initiate Scholarship in June

The Alumni Association of Fontbonne College announced that a new scholarship for the 1970-71 academic year will be available to students. The scholarship is open to allFontbonne alumni and is available to students in all fields of study.

Queen of Them All Is Betty Boll

Betty Boll, a senior student at Fontbonne, was crowned Queen of Them All in a ceremony held on November 7. She was chosen by her classmates and friends for her leadership and service to the school.

Reading from left: Henrietta Murphy, Mary Alice Dubois, Katharine Burke, Betty Boll, Madge Wintzer.

They gave their all for both. Betty Boll was a natural leader for everyone and for all occasions. She was a member of the basketball team, played on the football team, and was a leader in all activities. Betty Boll is a true face of Fontbonne, devoting her time and energy to the school and its students.

Junior Crystal Gaze Forcast Terpsichorean Joy For Nov. 19

Draft and Gas Rationing Restrictions Cause Change In Date of Dinner

With music and laughter, the last formal social event at Fontbonne for the fall term, was held Thursday evening, November 19 on the Starlight Ballroom of the Adoration Banquet.

Dance Committee will hold a dance for the members of the Senior Class with a Formal Dinner. During the dance restriction, the decorating of the eighteen and above year will be in the new month earlier than usual.

The second floor, people and ideas, will be carried out in the Drill, decorations. The musical entertainment will provide a thrilling entertainment for the people and guests.

Deeply considered, the Fine Arts Club will hold a dance for the people and guests.

Alumni Association of Fontbonne College has announced that a new scholarship for the 1970-71 academic year will be available to students. The scholarship is open to allFontbonne alumni and is available to students in all fields of study.

Queen of Them All Is Betty Boll

Betty Boll, a senior student at Fontbonne, was crowned Queen of Them All in a ceremony held on November 7. She was chosen by her classmates and friends for her leadership and service to the school.

Reading from left: Henrietta Murphy, Mary Alice Dubois, Katharine Burke, Betty Boll, Madge Wintzer.

They gave their all for both. Betty Boll was a natural leader for everyone and for all occasions. She was a member of the basketball team, played on the football team, and was a leader in all activities. Betty Boll is a true face of Fontbonne, devoting her time and energy to the school and its students.

Junior Crystal Gaze Forcast Terpsichorean Joy For Nov. 19

Draft and Gas Rationing Restrictions Cause Change In Date of Dinner

With music and laughter, the last formal social event at Fontbonne for the fall term, was held Thursday evening, November 19 on the Starlight Ballroom of the Adoration Banquet.

Dance Committee will hold a dance for the members of the Senior Class with a Formal Dinner. During the dance restriction, the decorating of the eighteen and above year will be in the new month earlier than usual.

The second floor, people and ideas, will be carried out in the Drill, decorations. The musical entertainment will provide a thrilling entertainment for the people and guests.

Deeply considered, the Fine Arts Club will hold a dance for the people and guests.
Orientation Broadens Outlook

Say Freshmen Students

An effort to acquaint students with every phase of campus life, the Freshmen Association has planned for two orientation meetings for its fall program, with full attendance in the auditorium at 8 p.m. on Wednesday, October 15, and 8 p.m. on Thursday, October 16.

Alfred and Stanley Allemann, the Freshmen Association President and Vice-President, have established a schedule of activities to acquaint freshmen with the campus. These activities include tours of the buildings, visits to the library, and opportunities to meet faculty and students.

Dr. Alphonso Clemens, Dean of the Department of Sociology and Economics, will speak on the theme "The Importance of Higher Learning" in the auditorium on Thursday, October 16, at 8 p.m.

Latest Books Help Develop New Ideas

In the library of the University of Illinois, a special collection of books on new and emerging ideas in various fields of study has been established. This collection is intended to help students and faculty stay informed about the latest developments in their fields of study.

Doctor A. Clements Shows Versatility

At the present time the market for college graduates is booming, and the demand for people skilled in various fields is rising. A recent graduate of the University of Illinois, Dr. A. Clements, has shown great versatility in his work, having experience in fields ranging from engineering to psychology.

To Be Or Not To Be Solemniy Engaged

We have asked a number of students for their opinions on their future engagements. Some are excited about it, while others are more reticent. However, most seem to be happy with their current engagements. It seems that the future holds many possibilities for everyone involved.

Stan Kramer's Present Marionette Show

A Marionette show was given in the Yesthau Little Theatre, located on University Avenue, in the University of Illinois, on November 15. The show featured a variety of Marionette puppets, including a dancing chicken and a talking dog.

Phys. Ed. Major Will Produce Campus Carnival

On December 31, 1942, Betty Burk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burk, will produce a Campus Carnival at the Yesthau Little Theatre. The event will feature a variety of games, music, and food, creating a festive atmosphere for the campus community.

Glasper Drug Co., Inc.

900 CLAYTON RD.
Illinois 62310

National Batting Co.

E. L. JONES

1177 E. NASSAU

Glasper Drug Co., Inc.

900 CLAYTON RD.
Illinois 62310

Florence Dress Shops

FLORENCE THOMPSON

History Bureau

1000 CLAYTON RD.
Illinois 62310

Bob Meltzer, "Miss America," will be on campus next week for a variety of events and appearances.

Bob Meltzer, "Miss America," will be on campus next week for a variety of events and appearances.
Thought-Provoking Ideas Are Subjects Of Assembly Programs

The changing scene of education, the possibility in the cooperative system, its potentiality with the war, the things in which students should be interested, the Business Administration, the University Press, student life, and the value of cooperation were all subjects discussed by Dick Leader, Dean of the College of Education, at an assembly program in the auditorium.

Dean Leader said that the school is trying to do its part in providing a wholesome atmosphere for students and that the school has been successful in doing so. He pointed out that cooperation is essential for the success of an educational institution.

Dean Leader emphasized the importance of cooperation between students and faculty members. He said that cooperation is necessary for the smooth functioning of the university and that it is essential for the success of any educational institution.

Dean Leader also discussed the changing scene of education and the potentiality of cooperative system. He said that the cooperative system has the potential to provide a better education for students and that it is essential for the success of any educational institution.

Dean Leader concluded his speech by saying that cooperation is essential for the success of an educational institution and that it is important for students to be involved in the cooperative system to ensure its success.