They Cook, Wash and Entertain. All for Practice

It is said that no one ever seriously practiced cooking, washing, and entertaining. This is not the case for the girls of the May Queen Association. They are practicing for the upcoming May Queen.

The initial dinner was held in February, and was based on prudential themes—small flags and red, white, and blue decorations being used. The hosts were Betty Higgins, Audrey Baum, Alice H. Baker, and Dorothy Wolfe. The guests were Miss Theresa Mary, Mrs. J. A. Hockings, and Mrs. H. L. Richardson. On March 2, the second dinner was served. Of course, St.
Patrick's Day was celebrated, and the menu and decorations were copied out in the tradition of St. Patrick's Day. The hosts were Margaret Leary, Cecilia H. McKeon, and Miss M. M. M. Mapel. The guests were Mary Mary Jackson, Cecilia H. Schlobock, and Mary Sullivan.
Quiz Kids, Hot Dogs, All Present at 1942 Victory Party

The Fontbonne twins, "Squirrel" and "Spitfire," had a victory party on Tuesday, February 23, in the gymnasium. They were the stars in a majorette and spirit line-up that filled the gym with color and pep. Miss DuBose, their teacher, was in charge, and the girls did a dance routine that was a hit with the audience.

In between such routines was a surprise for 12 of the boys and girls. The principal, Mrs. J. W. Barton, announced that "Squirrel" and "Spitfire" were the winners of the "Best Dressed" contest. The awards were two new pairs of shoes.

Miss Lois M. Hickey and Miss Elizabeth Hickey, twins, were the honored guests of the night. They were presented with a bouquet of flowers and a basket of candy by the principal. The twins were the toast of the evening, and their presence added to the festivity of the occasion.

Any Number Today?

The "Best Dressed" contest was very popular with the students. The contest was divided into two sections, boys and girls. The boys were judged on their shirts, jackets, and trousers, while the girls were judged on their dresses, skirts, and blouses. The winners were announced at the end of the contest, and the students were thrilled with the results.

The contest was a great success, and the students are looking forward to next year's contest. The principal has already announced that the contest will be held again next year, and the students are looking forward to it.

Today's Fontbonne Youth Are Bob Hope Fans But They Still Love William Shakespeare

By EDWINA WRIGHT

"Today's youth mostly follow the fashions of the moment, certainly not. They can take Shakespeare and Miller—what's more, they like it too.

Miss Mary Louise Hickey gave one of her usual and approving talks to the group on the subject of "The Shakespearean Scene" at the Fontbonne Literary Club in front of which she uttered them. The accomplished and vaunted woman of the group expressed her views to the students so that they may understand what is in the mind of the writer. The literary club of Fontbonne is a favorite of the students and one of the most popular organizations on the campus.

Perhaps the most interesting characteristic of Miss Hickey was her wide and varied selection of her favorite works. The group was impressed with the amount of knowledge and the breadth of reading Miss Hickey has. She has a deep admiration for the works of Shakespeare, and her talks on the subject are popular with the students.

Miss Hickey's talks on the subject of "The Shakespearean Scene" are a delight to the students. She has a great appreciation for the works of Shakespeare, and her talks are always well-received.

Moral Building Now; Post War Peace
Theme of Recent Assemblies

February 8: Father Bernard W. Demailly, S.J., spoke on the parts that the American Woman must play in the reconstruction period which will follow the present war. His suggestion was that women should understand clearly and know how to be good. It is important that Catholic college women strengthen their principles and heighten their ideals. This evening was a real occasion for action. An entirely new order must be reconstructed or new and colder ideals that people think it is now.

Latin American Relations

February 12: John Francis Brearley, S.J., on February 15, discussed the reasons why the United States was opposed to the Latin American countries. The United States has new means of intervention in these countries, and the nation, although it is known as a republic, is really a monarchial state and must begin to understand this.

The Fort

The Fort is a little theater in the public square. On March 3, an electronic and musical recital of "The Bathers of Wapping Street" presented by Mary Mary Buckland, Miss Helier, of Trinity College, University, Kent, and the Keston School of Drama, in London, was given a curtain of their own, but the performance was a very successful one. The Fort was the most popular with the audience, and the program was very well received.

The Fort

Before the seniors can enjoy another year of school, they must submit a thesis, or pass a comprehensive examination, or both. The main feature was the student presentation of their work, which was followed by questions from the faculty. The seniors' work was given out on May 30, and the seniors will receive their degrees at the commencement exercises on April 14.

No Truce from Erin

"There is no rest for the weary." Those were the words that first greeted the students as they entered the Fort. The music was very loud, and the students were exhausted after a long day of work. The Fort was filled with the sounds of carolers, and the atmosphere was lively. The students were very excited to present their own work, and the faculty was very supportive. The students were very proud of their work, and the faculty was very proud of them.

Festive Air Prevails at Junior Mardi Gras

The festive air prevailed at the Junior Mardi Gras held at the Fort on Friday evening. The students were in high spirits, and the lively music added to the atmosphere. The Fort was decorated with streamers, balloons, and flags. The students were dressed in Mardi Gras costumes, and the atmosphere was very festive.

Fashion Jottings—

What to Wear and When?

It seems that no one is definite about the "right" for the spring season. Friends are to be worn right now, and no one seems to want to wear much. Mostly, the larger shoes seem to be favored, and they are in the fashion now. The smaller shoes seem to be popular, and the foot is in the fashion shoes. The dress shoes are not to be worn in the future, and the foot is in the fashion shoes. The dress shoes are not to be worn in the future, and the foot is in the fashion shoes.

Notes on Hose Salve

KAPP—"Discoloration" on hose is a silk, rayon, acetate, or satin and rayon, nylon, silk, or cotton, and can be removed by washing the hose in water or soap and water and drying. Don't use oil or other oils or cream solutions. Don't expect to have the discoloration removed, but a procedure for prevention of further discoloration is strongly suggested for prevention. A simple solution is to set up at home and experiment with it. The results will be visible.

On the final point, Capital to Campus is capable enough to quote the government "This is all we have here and we're willing to do it."
