Old Fashioned Circus Theme Presented In Senior Thesis

On March 31, Elizabeth Ann

Green will present her senior thesis in the form of a poster and a lecture. The thesis is titled "Old Fashioned Circus Theme: An Examination of the Role of the Circus in Society.

The thesis explores the historical significance of the circus, its impact on American culture, and its evolution over time. The presentation will take place in the auditorium at 3 PM. The public is welcome to attend.

Red Cross Campaign Scheduled March 1-19

The Red Cross is launching a new campaign to raise funds for their ongoing humanitarian efforts. The campaign will run from March 1 to March 19, and the goal is to raise $100,000.

Student Handbook Revised for 1945

The student handbook for the upcoming academic year has been revised. The handbook includes updated information on campus policies, academic requirements, and student services.

Spring Finds Seniors Working on Theses In Many Varied Fields

April is the month of final exams, and many seniors are working on their senior theses. This year, the thesis topics range from the history of the circus to the impact of technology on society.

Humans is The Theme for Two Assemblies

The theme for the upcoming assemblies is "Humans in the Environment." This is part of the school's ongoing initiative to raise awareness about environmental issues.

Student Life

The Font

TUESDAY, MARCH 6, 1945

VOL XIX - No 5

PONTIOME COLLEGE - ST. LOUIS, MO.

The Font
The Font

The Font is a newsletter published monthly by the students of Fontbonne College.

Tuesday, March 6, 1945

One Pic Worth Many Words
Motto of Modern Reviewer
by ROSALINE SALOME

After Father Henry Courtenay's admirable lecture on Shakespeare, I almost feel that my calling has been re-born. I must write a review of his lecture. I think I have reached a point where I can write with some ease in the new role I have acquired in my mind. I must write. I must do it.

Frank Williams, a novel of the present war, is one of the first novels to appear in this country. It is primarily the story of a young man who is thrown into the forces of the enemy. He finds himself a prisoner of war and ends with his participation in the struggle.

In All Over, Together, by Eric Riehl, in a book of selected spooky shavings, the reader will find something to keep him awake at night.

Bring Blues to the Minimum

Cooperation is the finest word in the dictionary because it is simply never possible to cooperate with the person who looks at it simply and completely. It is a concern of every other follow.

When you hear "Please bring a cake for the cake sale," or "We've got to get every bit of weekend copy into the engraver's by March 15," or "The deadline for paper articles is Wednesday," do you ever stop to think that that means me?

How could it mean me if I don't give a damn about the Cake Sale? And I couldn't care if I tried, and I haven't the time to help type a little? How could it be? We all stop, and twiddle our thumbs and let the world go by, because we never stop to consider the fact that everything means me.

A reasonable God would never have pitched us flat into the middle of this month. He has known in the beginning that nothing in this world is going to stop us. We are not going to leave us in Heaven.

How could you put yourself out like a little, all the great big jobs and worries of the privileged few we elect to slave for us would resolve themselves into ten-colored mists and vaporize, so that we have the other way out. Sometimes the "privileged few" forget that the consciousness of the people gives them that title to rule, and even in their places they become tyrants. The real question is one who best learns how to serve her every servant and forgets that some are friends and some are "equals" and treats everyone alike.

Today for the sake of Fatigue, and an extra star in your crown in heaven, roll up those great drapes of yours and pitch into the nearest dirty work that you can find, and help.

You'll be surprised how nice the people you don't like begin to look, when you smile. And there's the same black dust under their fingers as there is on yours, when you smile.
Screen Star Tells Students To Follow College Career!

by JEANNE

D. F. and Yours Truly

Gib's Gab or "I Tell All"
by NORMINE GIBBONS

A Spring Tonic To "Suit" You!

THE FONT

WEIDLE'S PHARMACY
Registered Pharmacists

Joe Garavelli's Restaurant

CLAYTON MUSICAL SHOPPE

WEIDLE'S PHARMACY
2500 N. VANDEVENTER
FR. 3300 FR. 7734
FR. 9631

CLAYTON MUSICAL SHOPPE
Gifts — Hallmark Greeting Cards — Records
About Music — Radio Repairing — Lessons

THE FONT

Page Three

FR. 3300 FR. 7734
FR. 9631

The Font Page Three

Tales About Our Grade Givers

CLAYTON MUSICAL SHOPPE
Gifts — Hallmark Greeting Cards — Records
About Music — Radio Repairing — Lessons

CLAYTON MUSICAL SHOPPE
Gifts — Hallmark Greeting Cards — Records
About Music — Radio Repairing — Lessons
Basketball Victory First of ‘45 Season

The Fontbonne Phanuts whipped Webster, 89-27, in a close contest of real basketball skill. The Phanuts were the faster team in the contest, and scored and led in both of the games the Phanuts took.

A new feature of the game was the use of a novel, exciting, and effective form of offense. The Phanuts were led bySenior Ace, Robert C. Johnson, who was the deciding factor in the game. The Phanuts were also led by Senior Ace, John B. Smith, who was the deciding factor in the game.

New Constitution Keeps F.A.A. Busy

The Fontbonne Athletic Association is following the example of the Student Senate of Missouri and revising its constitution.

The Constitution Committee, consisting of Mary A. Smith, Amelia Committing, Anna Marie Herring, Mary Lou Reynolds, and Francis Madigan, is working hard and planning to present a document that will govern every situation and eventuality.

Cpl. Bauer,Alias St. Maj. Delights Fontbonne Audience

Corporal Ernest Green, A.B., of the American Red Cross, was a guest speaker at the Fontbonne University basketball game. The speech was well received and the audience was enthusiastic.

Sounds From Science Lab Investigated By C. Proctor

In the early part of the afternoon, a small group of students and teachers were investigating the scientific sounds that were being produced in the lab.

The group consisted of students and teachers who were interested in the sounds and vibrations that were produced by various instruments and machines.

“New Market” is the new science lab, and it is located in the background of the lab.

“Queen For A Day” Contest Announced

The contest will be open to all students and will be held in the lab on Thursday, February 25th.

“Queen for a Day” is a nationwide contest that is sponsored by the Queen for a Day Foundation. The contest is open to all students and will be held in the lab on Thursday, February 25th.

Raffle Held By Home Ec. Club

A “Jumbo” cake sale was held on February 22nd at the Home Ec. Club. The cake sale was well attended and all the proceeds were donated to the Home Ec. Club.

The club is planning to use the money to support various projects and activities.

Glee Club Plans Song Fest

The Glee Club is planning a song fest for the spring. The fest will feature a variety of songs and will be held in the lab on Thursday, February 25th.

The Glee Club is planning a song fest for the spring. The fest will feature a variety of songs and will be held in the lab on Thursday, February 25th.

Town Hall for Lunch

The Town Hall will be open for lunch at any time.

Erker’s

1610 Olive

518 N. Grand

500 S. Grand

“Ask for FRED’S OLD Tyme RYE—Your Grocer Has It!”

Watchman Advocate

Printers of the FONT

Erker’s Guild Opticians

610 Olive

518 N. Grand

500 S. Grand

“Ask for FRED’S OLD Tyme RYE—Your Grocer Has It!”