APPOINTED TO HONOR SOCIETIES

Seven seniors have been appointed to Delta Epsilon Phi and Kappa Gamma Pi National scholarly honor society societies for the students of Catholic colleges and universities. They are Beatrice Reasor, Mary Lou Reid, Jane McCarthy, Ruth Fisher, Mary Jane Quick, Anne Marie Heselton, and Elizabeth Rodewald.

Membership in these associations is a great honor because of the qualifications established for admission to these societies. The purpose of these societies is to raise recognition of and encouragement to high scholarship among the students and graduates of Catholic colleges and universities.

Students Give Out With Peace Plans

By Frances Hoffman

Confronting ideas concerning the problem of Germany and Japan after the war continue to make the rounds on campus. One new feature is the beginning of a tour to the Hampton Oaks Conference and realizing the importance of the problem. Fantabulous students answered the question: "How shall we deal with Germany and Japan after the war?"

Mary Ethel Boettigcr asserted: "Korea, China, and all the other areas of the world which are in conflict since military aviation to prevent the growth of any future military power. Control their business and their materials will be allowed to function industrially—giving them sufficient income to pay the cost of war on a democratic basis."

"We educate," observed Dorothy Caudle, "a little in reconstructing Germany and Japan. However, it must be clearly established that peace cannot be achieved by a simple word or by a simple plan. Ethel McNally continued in the same vein, "[We must] demobilize and start a new education. What is lacking at the present time is a Christian outlook on life."

A democratic form of government will not be the only means of restoring national unity—which would not be possible if the war continued for 40 to 100 years—would deplorable," Dorothy Brown explained.

"Germany and Japan should be left in a similar condition (as the Big Three), and should be governed by their own people under the supervision of the Allied and an international military body," was John Brown's solution.

Doe Kelly, in favor of a military police, added, "Don't talk about it. The economic life of Germany and Japan—don't start a war!"

Edward Byrne, who had been in the military service, took a new look at this problem. "Make us understand all the tragic problems of the world."

SPRING TIME, DANCE TIME and in the year 3,000 to 2000 years from now, this year's spring may be the most predictable event of the century. The staff of the Student Union has been busily preparing for the spring season. The staff has been busily preparing for the spring season.

A Serviceman writes An American Sacrifice

A country has not been a country, a man and his wife and children, and the woman and the man were sad and gloomy. They were lost in something they believed.

They gave him up to the country to save his life and they prayed that he would come back.

The other thing was brave and strong.

At another life he would live on.

This country house which was a home, was left with sorrow, but not alone. Memories of his childhood were there among them. Memories of his life and his work were there."

From the Cheeks to You

People think I'm very small; I'm really nothing at all. I'm buried more than anyone over the water and under the sun.

But honestly, I just don't care. Even though my life is a bore, I know I'll never be a vaude. Case: I'm just a little pink stamp.

Oxidize—No for our election campaign. Outlaw: The story of those who don't shrink reserve books but when they're done, return to them. This is not a plug for Mac Bash. Eaves Defray has been taking her cooling seriously, producing muffins that are actually close to flour. Nose: I'm not taking time.

The song of the birds is in gyotetsu. The sky is a clear blue. Bright Remark of the Month: Teachers: "Teacher. Orderly order, order, in the classroom." Students: "I seen and egged."

"When do you get home, Collectors' Club?"

The number is 77.

By popular request, I have been asked to print the banter from the morning club. May not remember what it was, but it was something about how the morning club is the best. It was a joke.

Spring Showers Bring Rain Coat Winners

By Rosemary

Well, it's here—my favorite time of year has arrived. And you know what? It's been raining pretty much all day. And they say there's a 40 percent chance of rain throughout the day. It's like being trapped in a sheet of rain, but don't let that ruin your fun.

The rain has been a little tough, but we have the perfect solution. We've got the perfect raincoat for you. It's a double-duty coat—rainy weather and for casual outdoor activities.

Ideals For A People

Since spring is all about exciting new things, it's only natural that something yellow should be nearby in the list of things to do. Colorful hats, bright yellow hats, are everywhere. And it's on everyone's list of things to do.

Just the thought of spring brings a smile to my face. And to think I can wear it all over the place. And when it rains, I can still wear it. It's a must-have for everyone.

Easter Eggs have been found in the refrigerator. But remember, they're only good if you wash them first. Don't forget, girls, buy a Bend and bend a lap across Easter!

Catherine Weidle to succeed as Pres.

Catherine Weidle was re-elected president of the Student Union by an unanimous vote at the last meeting. She is the first woman to hold the position.

For the past year Catherine has distinguished herself as a leader. Her leadership has been recognized by various Student Union committees.

Recent publication of a novel, "The Call of the Wild," will be released soon. The novel is her first attempt to write a novel.

The plan for the coming year is Mary Jane Brudnick, a senior; Mary June Brudnick, a junior; and Ruth Todd, a sophomore.

McCall Fashion Editor reveals Spring Trends

Oh, for the days of spring and romance.

With April school days chilly and the sky starting to see some life, there's a new trend. Trend is spring and love is the keynote of a school day.

McCall's new edition is off the press and ready to wear. The new edition is easy to follow and makes any outfit look more stylish. The clothes are designed to fit the body and are perfect for the season.

Color Photography is Explained at Meeting

The big event in the life of a student is the spring season. The change in the weather brings with it a new outlook on life. It's the time of year when everything looks new and fresh.

The meeting is open to the public. There is no charge for admission. The meeting will be held in the library at 7:00 PM. Please come and join us. We would love to see you there!
