On The Side
From FELICE: we are—oh so sorry—of the First floor guest, we may agree.

HAYDEN TOOEY is a bit of a "tunic" on the floor, but he knows what he's doing. "I'm a great admirer of the 'tunic' style," he says. "It's so versatile! You can easily dress it up or down."

The "tunic" is a long, loose-fitting garment that can be worn with almost anything. Hayden wears his with a pair of jeans and a leather jacket, giving it a casual, yet stylish look. He also pairs it with a blazer and trousers for a more formal appearance. Hayden's tunic collection includes various colors and patterns, allowing him to mix and match with different outfits.

She Has Many Choices
City Willow

BETSY, resident artist doesn't seem to have found her niche yet. She's trying different techniques, but seems to have settled on sculpture, particularly in metals. Her recent work, a large metal sculpture, is currently on display at the city's art gallery.

"I've always been interested in the human form, and sculpture allows me to explore that in a unique way," Betsy says. "I love the challenge of working with metal and seeing it transform into something beautiful."}

Fontbonne Petes Patron
College Day Caravan to Convert Revived

Today's Events
Freshman assembly in Main
Arts Theater
10:00 am
Other classes in Main
Cap and gown presentations
Juniors and seniors
10:15 am
Student Association elections
Freshmen to Student Association
10:30 am
Promotion to Reva Hall
10:45 am
Talk on St. Ternon
10:50 am
Registration of seniors
10:55 am
Breakfast
11:00 am
Prize drawings
11:15 am
Proctor in Canardick
11:15 am
Class visits
11:20 am
Rehearsals
11:30 am

Honoring its patron on the first day of Fall, Fontbonne celebrates today its 25th annual College Day. All traditional observances, including the colorful automobile parade through Canardick, continue as they have for the past 25 years.

Fontbonnien's faculty has added many new instructors, including Miss Georgia Porter, a former teacher in the United States Women's Army Corps. In active service, Miss Porter served as a radio instructor, as well as being a social worker. Upon her return, she was graduated from Fontbonne with an A.B. in Mathematics and Physics.

FEBRUARY 1963
St. Louis, Mo., October 15, 1963
No. 1

Fontbonne Among 11 New Instructors
From Mexico

Superintendent General de la Raza, who directed the Mexican Students' Association and the Mexican American Student Association in the United States, will be the keynote speaker at the assembly.

"I am very grateful to the University of Mexico for giving me this opportunity," the superintendent said. "I hope that through my lectures, I can inspire Mexican-American students to pursue their education and contribute to the betterment of our community."

As we see the faces of the professors, we recognize the importance of the good neighbor policy. The university is committed to fostering relationships that are based on mutual respect and understanding.

Tomorrow's Assembly
Featuring Diplomats From Mexico

From La Paz, Boliva, comes the keynote speaker, Dr. Jose Maria Sosa, a professor of history at the University of La Paz. Dr. Sosa is well-known for his research on the political history of Bolivia and his work on the history of Latin American foreign relations.

"I am excited to be here in the United States," Dr. Sosa said. "I look forward to sharing my knowledge and perspectives with the students and faculty at Fontbonne."

The university continues to attract renowned figures and leaders from around the world, highlighting its commitment to education and the exchange of ideas.
CMSC Unit's Gifts Sheen to Fortonbe, Can Monopolize Him

As Far As He's Concerned, Says Msgr. Stowe, Fortonbe Can Monopolize Him

By JUNE WILSON

"You, and Monsignor Fulton J. Sheen, Tom, I have an idea," says Father John, "the first bit of wisdom I've ever seen fathered by the Unit." Fortonbe's student president had been troublesomely sniffling about America's present moral and religious state of affairs for quite a while, but once the Unit found out that Father John was going to make a speech on the subject, the student president decided to give him a hand. Father John went to the Unit and asked if they could help him in any way. The Unit at once agreed to help him, and Father John was allowed to make a speech in the Unit's hall.

Additional members in need of a Catholic priest are those doing more work in the field of literature. The Unit is not only interested in the immediate task at hand, but in the future as well. It is planning to expand its work to include work in the field of literature.

The Unit's task is to aid in the growth of Catholicism. The Unit's efforts are directed towards the formation of a National Catholic Students' Union. The Unit is also working towards the establishment of a National Catholic News Bureau, which will provide information about Catholicism to the lay public.

Msgr. Carroll Talks At Faculty Tea

Fortonbe's faculty gave a tea in honor of Father Carroll, who was elected president of the Unit. The tea was held in the library of the Unit and was attended by the faculty, students, and members of the Unit. Father Carroll spoke on the importance of the Unit and the need for it to continue its work.

Following Monsignor Carroll's address, refreshments were served by members of the Unit.

Students had the opportunity to introduce their parents to their associates.

Faculty Will Hold Monthly Meetings

Members of Fortonbe's faculty will hold monthly meetings on the second Tuesday of each month. The meetings will be held in the library of the Unit.

Boarders Attend From 13 States

Thirty states and Puerto Rico are represented among the resident students of Fortonbe, according to Father Carroll. The Boarders' Ball, held in the library of the Unit, was attended by students from all parts of the United States.

Satan Gives Him a Tussle, But Father Smith Wins

By CHARLOTTE FINKMANN

Father Smith has been converting many people. He has had a successful mission in Brazil, and has been working among the Indians. He has also been working among the Chinese in the Far East. He has been very successful in converting both groups.

Book Review

"The World's Religions" by Huston Smith is a fascinating book. It explores the beliefs of the world's major religions and how they have developed over time. Smith is a brilliant writer, and his book is a must-read for anyone interested in religion.

Annual Reports

The annual reports of the various clubs and organizations at Fortonbe are due on Monday, October 15. The reports should be submitted to the office of the Unit.

Enrollment Toppers

The enrollment of Fortonbe has increased by 50 in the past year. The total enrollment is now 1,672 students.

The St. Louis high school newspaper, the "Bluejay," has been the most popular newspaper on the campus. The "Bluejay" has a circulation of 4,000 students.

The "Bluejay" is a student-run newspaper that provides news and information about Fortonbe.
Features

There've Been Some Changes Made

Have You Noticed the Decorations, Or Is the Smoke Too Thick?

By JIMMY BACCH

What was your first reaction when you walked into the hall this year? Were your eyes strained at the new look? Surprised at some new addition? I don't know. In fact we had a lot of surprises when we walked into the hall this year.

The old dormitory was torn down, and the new one was built. The old dormitory was old and dark, and the new one is bright and modern. The old dormitory was built in 1920, and the new one was built in 1945. The old dormitory was a lot of fun, but the new one is a lot more convenient.

Specks

By MARY BANZIGER

Mary B. (Mrs. James) has been busy making the decorations for the dance tonight. She is a senior majoring in English. She has been working on them for the past two weeks, and they are wonderful. She has done a lot of research on the topic, and she is very knowledgeable about it.

Mary B. is a very talented decorator, and she has been decorating for the past 10 years. She has won several awards for her work, and she is well respected in the field.

Specks looks at home with society...

Specks looks at home with society...

SPECS

By MARY BANZIGER

Mary B. (Mrs. James) has been busy making the decorations for the dance tonight. She is a senior majoring in English. She has been working on them for the past two weeks, and they are wonderful. She has done a lot of research on the topic, and she is very knowledgeable about it.

Mary B. is a very talented decorator, and she has been decorating for the past 10 years. She has won several awards for her work, and she is well respected in the field.

Specks looks at home with society...

Specks looks at home with society...

Specks looks at home with society...

Specks looks at home with society...

Specks looks at home with society...

Specks looks at home with society...

Specks looks at home with society...

Specks looks at home with society...

Specks looks at home with society...

Specks looks at home with society...

Specks looks at home with society...

Specks looks at home with society...

Specks looks at home with society...

Specks looks at home with society...

Specks looks at home with society...

Specks looks at home with society...

Specks looks at home with society...

Specks looks at home with society...

Specks looks at home with society...

Specks looks at home with society...

Specks looks at home with society...

Specks looks at home with society...

Specks looks at home with society...

Specks looks at home with society...

Specks looks at home with society...

Specks looks at home with society...

Specks looks at home with society...

Specks looks at home with society...

Specks looks at home with society...

Specks looks at home with society...

Speck's, an annual student publication, is now in its second year. It has a circulation of 1,000 and is distributed to every student on campus.

Books

By MARY BANZIGER

Are you looking for a good novel to read? If so, you might want to check out these books:

1. "To Kill a Mockingbird" by Harper Lee
2. "The Great Gatsby" by F. Scott Fitzgerald
3. "Brave New World" by Aldous Huxley
4. "Pride and Prejudice" by Jane Austen
5. "1984" by George Orwell

If you're interested in non-fiction, you might want to consider these books:

1. "Theselius on Economics" by Adam Smith
2. "The Best of the American Short Story" edited by Carl Sandburg
4. "The Collected Works of Shakespeare"
5. "The Poetry of Emily Dickinson"

We hope you find these suggestions helpful and enjoyable.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:

I am writing to express my concern about the current state of the school's facilities. As a student, I have noticed a consistent decline in the quality of our campus buildings. The gymnasium, for example, is continually in disrepair, with peeling paint and damaged floors.

I believe it is important for the administration to address these concerns and invest in the maintenance of our facilities. Not only does it create a safer environment for students, but it also reflects positively on the school and its reputation.

Sincerely,

[Student Name]

P.S. I am also concerned about the lack of accessible resources for students with disabilities. It would be wonderful if the school could invest in more accessible technology and facilities to ensure that all students can have equal opportunities to succeed.
THE WAY OF COLLEGE

What does a college education mean to you? Is it a well-rounded preparation for your chosen career or is it just "four more years of school"? Is it a conscious effort on your part to earn your degree—or to simply fulfill the requirements of being a student? Perhaps you have not yet determined your goals, but your future plans are something to look forward to—be that degree is highly overrated. Whatever reasons you may have for pursuing college, if you are serious about your education, you must be prepared to make choices and take responsibility for your own education.

WE GOVERN OURSELVES

We ask for it. We get it. Student government has been introduced as a new facet at Fontbonne this year. But how does it affect you? Directly.

The worth of democracy...the student government...its aims...the policies of the government...all things which affect you, should be discussed by you. Through your participation, you have an opportunity to influence the decisions that affect your daily life. The government represents the student body and is responsible for the welfare of its members. It is your responsibility to make sure that the government is working for you.

ALUMNAE NEWS

BY MARY MARGARET COTT

Helen Waal, '23, is leaving this fall for Denver, to begin her internship as a student teacher at the University of Denver. When she arrives, she will begin her studies for the Master's degree in Education. Helen has been a valued member of the Fontbonne community and will be missed by all.

ALUMNAE NEWS

BY MARY MARGARET COTT

Penny Curns, queen candidate, is shown here. At left is Marcella Koenig, queen, and at right is Mary Ann Monahan, representing the junior class. Below are Marcella and Mary Ann, both of whom are queen candidates.

Shavings...

Our little bundle of shavings is now in its last year. It is publishing its final edition, and the students are preparing for the farewell celebration. The shavings will be a source of great joy and remembrance for all those who have been a part of the school. We hope to see you at the farewell party on June 22nd. If you cannot attend, please let us know if you want to receive a copy.

Guest Work

(Following is an introductory column of a new series, "Guest Work," which will appear on a regular basis."

BY BERTHIE H. ALFORD

Crisis while reading the university's work on magazines and papers. I have been trying to explain the tremendous power wielded by such publications and how to counteract them by, perhaps, starting a student magazine that could be seen as a valid alternative. "Guest Work" is intended to be just that.