Father Walker To Conduct Retreat

Dean's Message

Dear Student:

The annual spiritual retreat, sponsored by the Student Council, will be held on the campus of the college. The retreat is open to all students and is sponsored by the Student Council. The retreat will take place on the campus of the college and will be led by Father Walker. The retreat will focus on the themes of faith, love, and community. It is an opportunity for students to deepen their understanding of their faith and to connect with others. The retreat will include keynote speakers, workshops, and small group discussions. It is a time of reflection, prayer, and community building. We encourage all students to attend and participate in this important event. For more information, please contact the Student Council.

Sincerely,

Roses Every Day May Guarantee Six A's

By PATRICIA HANNEMANN

The key to success in school is to have a positive attitude and to stay organized. This is the advice that I would give to anyone who is struggling with school. Here are some tips that can help you stay organized and successful:

1. Create a daily schedule: Make a list of what you need to do each day, and prioritize the tasks. This will help you stay on track and avoid procrastination.

2. Use a planner: Keep track of your assignments, tests, and deadlines in a planner. This will help you stay organized and avoid missing important dates.

3. Set goals: Set realistic goals for yourself, and work towards achieving them. This will help you stay motivated and focused.

4. Take breaks: It is important to take breaks throughout the day to avoid burnout. This will help you stay energized and productive.

5. Stay positive: Remember that everyone has ups and downs. Stay positive and don't let setbacks get you down.

6. Stay healthy: Eat well, exercise, and get enough sleep. This will help you stay healthy and able to perform your best.

Prayers Requested

The prayers of the student body are requested for the following students of Byrd Career College, who are currently sick: John Smith, Mary Johnson, and Jane Doe. Please keep them in your thoughts and prayers.

BOOK REVIEW

Marc Meets Erica on Earth, Confusion Arises in Heaven

By JANE BRANDT

In June 1942, Dora Fitch Marc arrived in Europe with her husband, Mr. Fitch Marc, and their two children, John and Peter. They settled in France, where they lived for two years until the outbreak of World War II forced them to flee to the United States. After the war, they returned to Europe and eventually settled in England. Mrs. Fitch Marc is the author of several novels, including "Marc Meets Erica on Earth, Confusion Arises in Heaven." This novel, set in the early 20th century, tells the story of a young girl named Erica, who is sent to London to find her long-lost sister, Marc. The novel is a heartwarming tale of friendship, love, and adventure, and it was a bestseller in its time.

Violinist to Play at Assembly

Marcella Convery, violinist, will present a recital at the student assembly on Thursday, February 8th. Ms. Convery is a talented musician who has performed in many concerts and festivals. She will be joined by a distinguished pianist, who will accompany her on the piano. The recital will feature a variety of classical and contemporary works, and it is sure to be a memorable event.

Georgians Abound on Basketball Squad

By JUNE WALKER

The women's basketball team at the University of Georgia is the envy of many college towns across the country. The team, led by Coach Mary Virginia Murphy, has been on a roll recently, winning their last six games. Murphy is known for her tough coaching style and her ability to develop talent. She has guided the team to six straight conference championships and three NCAA tournament appearances.

Sodality Provides New Literature For Retreat

The Sodality, a Catholic women's organization, has released a new publication to help prepare for their annual retreat. The retreat, scheduled for February 15th, is a time for members to reflect on their faith and deepen their understanding of the Catholic Church. The new literature, "The Way of Life," provides readings and exercises to help guide the retreat.

Student Answers God's Want-A-Dee

"What makes the difference between being a good Catholic and being a bad Catholic?" asked the student, John Smith. "It's the way you live your life," replied Father John, the campus chaplain. "It's not just about attending Mass or praying, it's about living your life according to the principles of the faith." Smith pondered this answer, realizing that it was true. He decided to become more involved in his church community and to live his life according to the teachings of his faith.

Registration Set for February 9

As a new school year begins, the university registrar's office is preparing for the registration process. Students are encouraged to register early to secure their spots in the courses they want. The registrar's office is open from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. Students can also register online through the university's portal.
TREAT OR RETREAT

Suppose you were given the nice round sum of one million dollars. What to do with it? Suppose you buy the things you’ve always wanted; in fact, you spend the last few dollars. But the rain begins to fall and have you? Things don’t work out as you had planned. Do they help you? And are they really what you wanted?

Now, we suppose that you are given the opportunity to make a retreat. Next you say: ‘I can get some rent and maybe read more books or maybe spend more time on some of the things that I really want.’ That’s one way to look at it. As for me, I’ve given the chance to take a spiritual inventory of yourself. God’s got you in His hands. Is it an opportunity to talk with Him, getting to know Him better and helping Him understand you so He can help you improved as a person? I think a retreat can be a complete withdrawal within yourself; rather, it’s a complete concentration on God.

This is your retreat and it’s your choice. In the three days you can finish knitting a sweater or drive twice round your neighborhood.

WHO’S FEEDING THE FIRE?

The war has been going on for years now, and we have just come from the battle of G.I. s in Manila, China, and France. They are the battle of the battle of the battle of G.I.s. And we’re for them. We are for them because they are for us.

But on second thought, there may be more than that. Now that college students are realizing. It is odd that the leaders of the world are leading the world into the world of the world. The demonstrations are all low points. The people who don’t have an American heart.

Americans are the world’s best greats. They are the ones who are feeding the fire. And I think about it, and I think that I want to feed the fire.

Snowflake

A wasteful bit of lace
Overflowing her filigree
A brief moment then no more
To tear your eyes from

But in the snowstorm
One spawns more life
Singing and dancing with a musical
Grand tango in millenium
