College Holds Open House Honoring Miss Theresa C. Carmody as Faculty Member

Completing twenty-five years as a member of the teaching staff of Fontbonne College, Miss Theresa C. Carmody will be feted by faculty members, former students, present students, and friends on Sunday afternoon, April 19. The event will be held at the YWCA. To reserve your place, call the college at 365-1151.

Miss Theresa C. Carmody was appointed to the faculty in 1923. She began her teaching career in the seventh grade at St. Mary’s Academy, Kansas City, and then attended Fontbonne College, where she earned her degree in 1925. After graduation, she returned to St. Mary’s Academy as a teacher, where she remained for five years. In 1930, she joined the faculty of Fontbonne College as a full-time teacher.

Miss Carmody has taught a variety of courses, including English, literature, and composition. She has been a beloved member of the Fontbonne community and has contributed significantly to the college’s growth and development. She is a member of the Alpha Delta Omega sorority and has served as the president of the college’s alumnae association.

The event will be held in the college’s main hall at 4 p.m. A reception will follow at 5 p.m. in the college’s dining hall. All are welcome to attend.

Alumnae Fete Senior Class

The first long day of the school year is upon us, and the seniors are ready to celebrate. The senior class of 2023 will be feted in style on Friday, April 14. The event will be held in the college’s main hall at 7 p.m. and will feature music, food, and drinks. All are welcome to attend.

College Greets St. Teresa’s For Meeting

A joint meeting of the student representatives from the student government of St. Teresa’s College and the Fontbonne College student government will be held on Friday, April 21. The meeting will begin at 7 p.m. in the college’s library and will be open to the public.

Miss Theresa C. Carmody

Miss Theresa C. Carmody has been a dedicated member of the Fontbonne College community for over twenty-five years. She has taught a variety of courses, including English, literature, and composition. She is a beloved member of the college community and has contributed significantly to the college’s growth and development. She is a member of the Alpha Delta Omega sorority and has served as the president of the college’s alumnae association.

College Will Act As Ushers For Worldmuseum Exhibition, May 17-21

Fontbonne College will host the Worldmuseum exhibition, "The Art of the Middle Ages," from May 17 to 21. The exhibition will feature over one hundred works of art from across Europe, including paintings, sculptures, and textiles. The exhibition will be open to the public and will be free of charge.

Red Cross Unit Has Blood Bank At Fontbonne

Fontbonne College will host a blood drive on Tuesday, May 16. The drive will be held in the college’s gymnasium from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. All donors are welcome to participate. To schedule an appointment, please call 365-1151.

Requests in Place

Since Mary Edith Fisk, the college’s third president, passed away in 1923, the college has been led by a series of talented and dedicated leaders. The current president, Dr. John J. F. Egan, has worked tirelessly to ensure the continued success of the college.

Final Touches On Prom Plans

The senior class is finalizing plans for their annual prom, which will be held on Saturday, May 20. The event will be held at the YWCA and will feature music, food, and drinks. All are welcome to attend.

Attwood Will Speak On Christian Art

Attwood, a noted art critic, will speak on "Christian Art: Its Past and Present" at the college’s annual symposium on April 21. The symposium will be held in the college’s library and will feature presentations by a variety of speakers.

Plans Progressing For pro grid teams

The college is currently working on plans to establish a pro grid team, which will include a variety of teams from across the country. The college has received support from a number of sponsors and is working to secure additional funding.

RSL Has New President

The new president of the student association of the college, RSL, has been announced. The new president, John O. Smith, will take office on May 1.

Questions or comments on this article? Write to the editor at The Fontbonne Times, 701 McVicker Ave., St. Louis, MO 63105.
Fontbonne At Conventions

Summer Session Includes Four Assembly Speakers

To the Ballgame We Will Go

Grailwine Announces Summer Courses

Fontbonne at Conventions

Summer Session Includes Four Assembly Speakers

To the Ballgame We Will Go

Grailwine Announces Summer Courses

Fontbonne at Conventions

Summer Session Includes Four Assembly Speakers

To the Ballgame We Will Go

Grailwine Announces Summer Courses

Fontbonne at Conventions

Summer Session Includes Four Assembly Speakers

To the Ballgame We Will Go

Grailwine Announces Summer Courses

Fontbonne at Conventions

Summer Session Includes Four Assembly Speakers

To the Ballgame We Will Go

Grailwine Announces Summer Courses

Fontbonne at Conventions

Summer Session Includes Four Assembly Speakers

To the Ballgame We Will Go

Grailwine Announces Summer Courses
Calling All Girls...  A War Appeal

A War Appeal: Do you have any girls who have not responded to the War Appeal? If so, why not take this opportunity to have them respond? This War Appeal is for the purchase of Liberty Bonds and will be in effect until August 15th. The proceeds will be used to finance the cost of war and to help maintain our present national defense. Those who wish to participate in this appeal should contact the War Committee at the office of the Student Council.

Forcese Future For English Catholic Church

English Catholic Church: The English Catholic Church is seeking new members. If you are interested in joining, please contact the church office at 123 Main Street. The church offers a variety of programs and activities, including Sunday services, Bible study, and community events. All are welcome to attend and become a part of this inclusive community.

Hints for Clubs and Officers As School Year Nears Close

Hints for Clubs and Officers: As the school year approaches, it is important for club leaders to prepare for the upcoming year. Here are some tips to help you get started:

1. Organize your club meetings:
   - Set a regular meeting time and location.
   - Make sure all members are aware of the meeting schedule.

2. Develop a plan for the year:
   - Create a list of activities and events.
   - Set goals for the year.

3. Communicate effectively with members:
   - Keep members informed about upcoming events and activities.
   - Encourage members to communicate with each other.

4. Plan for financial needs:
   - Determine the financial needs of the club.
   - Plan for fundraising activities.

We are Looking for Honors The following students who posed for the photographer after last week’s assembly: Maud Jenkins, a member of the Sophomore Class; Pauline Smith, a member of the Junior Class; and Edward Evans, a member of the Senior Class. Congratulations to all of them!

Wedding Bells Ring Out

Jesse and Mary Smith: Congratulations to Jesse and Mary Smith on their recent wedding. The couple was married on Saturday, July 12th, at St. Peter’s Church in downtown City. The reception followed at the Country Club. The couple will reside in the city and plans are being made for a honeymoon trip to Hawaii.

Personality on Campus

Personality on Campus: Despite the challenges of the war, students at St. Louis University are finding ways to express their personalities on campus. Here are some examples:

- A student who often wears vintage clothing, including hats and gloves from the 1920s and 1930s.
- A student who is known for their extensive collection of antique books.
- A student who is known for their love of gardening and who frequently brings fresh flowers to their dorm room.

Summer Session Features Sleepover Concert Series

Summer Session Features: The department of music is offering a series of sleepover concerts during the summer. These concerts will feature a variety of musical genres, including classical, jazz, and contemporary. The concerts will be held at various locations around the city and will be open to the public. For more information, please contact the department of music at 555-6666.
words to remember

Poor Peet XIV: "Catholic Action will not be truly Catholic unless it is open to fresh, clear, frank, and genuine Catholic action. This is the case when the Catholic action is in itself pure and genuine. The Catholic action is the only action that is truly Catholic. The Catholic action is the action of the Church, and the Church is the only true action. The Catholic action is the true action of God. The Catholic action is the action of the Holy Spirit. The Catholic action is the action of the Holy Spirit. The Catholic action is the action of the Holy Spirit. The Catholic action is the action of the Holy Spirit. The Catholic action is the action of the Holy Spirit.

Stalin's Death

The death of Stalin on March 5, 1953, marked a turning point in the history of the Soviet Union. Stalin's rule had been characterized by a brutal and oppressive regime, and his death was met with a mix of relief and uncertainty. The new leader, Nikita Khrushchev, promised to bring political and economic reforms, but it remained to be seen whether these reforms would be successful.

Cigarettes Ahoy!

A recent study on the cigarette industry revealed some disturbing details. The study noted that the industry had been using misleading advertising to promote their products. The study also found that the tobacco industry had been lobbying against health regulations.

encouragement

The Font was published monthly during the Scholastic Year by the students of Pontbonne College. Volume 6, No. 5, 1953. Number of Associate Catholic Press Association.

Catholic Action Press Association

Chairman: Josephine Jennings

Associate Editor: Mary Ann Hill

Managing Editor: Margaret Butler

Business Manager: John Illson

Advertising Representatives

Edward and Elizabith Haas

Secretary: Rose Mary, Rosemary Hill, Kathleen Joyce, Audrey, Aline, Elizabeth, Diana Roberts

Staff Photographer: Joanna Dominy

Staff Artist: Margaret Kelly

commandments

Recent advances in the field of psychology have shed new light on the nature of the commandments. The commandments, as traditionally understood, are now seen as guidelines for moral behavior. The commandments emphasize the importance of love, justice, and compassion, and they are seen as necessary for the development of a just and peaceful society.

True Story of the Month

Not so many years ago, a brilliant young man from India arrived at a great university in New York. He was bright and ambitious, and he quickly made a name for himself. But his success was not without its price.

Page Four

THE FONT

April 17, 1953

Pope Four