Faculty Vote
Confer Honors
On Seniors

At the March faculty meeting, the seniors were selected for honors to be conferred at commencement. Helen Maser, who will graduate cum laude, was elected to Kappa Gamma Pi. Catholic Scholarship Society (Senior Honors). Yvonne Adams, only honor senior, Helen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Maser of St. Louis and a graduate of Newton Female High. Her field of concentration is in biology.

Kathleen Mcclure, Nancy Rauh, and Darla Gibbons were elected to Delta Epilson Pi, also in Catholic Honorary Society. This selection was based on scholarship, loyalty, and service to Fairhills.

The Fourteenth Honors circle, given every year by the Fairhills Alumni, was awarded to Mary Catherine Gilmour.

Kathleen Mcclure, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Mather of St. Louis, and head of Mary Catherine Gilmour, daugher of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gilmour of St. Louis, is the major field of concentration. While Mary Catherine Gilmour's major field is in physical education, Darla Gibbons, daughter of Mr. E. P. Gibbons, is a graduate in health and health education in the greater St. Louis Community.

Welfare Agencies
Ask for Volunteers

"Giving volunteer service to the medical and welfare services of the Greater St. Louis Community provides the college student with a double opportunity," first. It provides an opportunity for fulfilling an individual's personal responsibility to the common welfare of his fellow-creatures; second, it gives the student an opportunity for a firsthand experience in a variety of areas that might later be useful to him unless absorbed partially upon the completion of college." This was stated yesterday in a commenation by Miss George White, Jr., chairman of the Volunteer Service Bureau of the Social Planning Council, while speaking to Dr. William E. Van Noy of the sociology and economics department at Fairhills.

We have Robins and Spring,
Comprehensives and Grads

The first place in comprehensives, like the first signs of spring, rules with an iron hand. We can contemplate comprehensive exhalations and their odor. No wonder, it is from every other cell. If she takes a comprehensive exam in her major subject, then she does not write a thesis, or also a research. She does have a paper and then some other topic. The comprehensive was held March 31. The following were the recipients: Daphne Bayliss, Doris Gilmore, Elizabeth F. Underhill, Miss Jane R. Burton, Miss Annie Hays, Thelma R. Lewis, Jennifer H. Smith, Elizabeth C. Sturm, and Margaret Brown.

We have members of the faculty and the student body present at the celebration of the visit of the robin. It was a rare opportunity to see the robin.

International NSA at Istanbul Meeting
Announces Two Important Committees

(U.S.A. Home Service) The United States National Student Agency, along with other National Student Agencies abroad, has established a new committee to study the problem of the organization of university students abroad. This committee, known as the Council for International Students, will work toward the improvement of the social life and the educational facilities of students abroad.

The committee, composed of representatives from the United States, Canada, Great Britain, France, and other European countries, will meet in Istanbul at the beginning of May. The purpose of the committee is to study the problems of students abroad and to recommend countermeasures to the American and British governments.

The committee will also study the conditions of students in other countries and recommend plans for improving the educational and social facilities of students abroad.

Catholic Music Educators Hold Three-Day Convention

A three-day program, including inspirational, educational, and social activities, was held at the Sacred Heart Cathedral in St. Louis, Missouri. It was organized by the National Catholic Music Educators Association. The convention was held at the Pontifical North American College, also known as St. Louis University, in collaboration with the Sacred Heart Cathedral. The convention provided an opportunity for music educators to share ideas, participate in workshops, and network with colleagues.

Faculty Attends Three Conventions

Several faculty members attended three conventions this year. These conventions were held in different locations and focused on various aspects of music education. The faculty members were active participants in these events, contributing to the discussions and sharing their expertise with others.

Theatrical Production

A theatrical production was held at the University of Illinois, Champaign-Urbana. The production was a collaborative effort involving students and faculty members from different departments. The performance showcased the talent and creativity of the university community.

This I Have Always Wanted To Do

Stresses Travel to Europe, Hawaii

Kathleen Byrnes

What thoughts from the title, "What I Have Always Wanted To Do" bring to your mind? What is that desire looking in your subconscious? Would you like to be a great teacher in the psychology of love, an attorney, a writer, an actor, or maybe you've been satisfied just to be a nurse. We can't write about our desire of one of you all. Just tell us your feelings of the dream that Sister Margaret Jones realized when she moved the aforementioned title as the subject for her subscription writing speech this last week.

At the age of the "Sixties", what is it you want to do? You have missed the opportunity for travel, and you'd like to climb a mountain in that great work, it is all as possible.

Well, that's just about it. What? Where's the fifteen year-old of the story? What does she want to do? Who is she? Well, you observer people, that's me. I'll be perfectly satisfied if you're enjoying reading this article because I don't want to lose my job.

Financial Teacher

Sister Mary O'Reilly, C.P.R.S., certainly has the most accomplished of all the leadership. She wants to be exposed to the experience of the other fine schools. Perhaps they should take a trip on a fine ship this year. O'Connell, a graduate of Notre Dame High, wants to visit the West. On the other hand, Sister Marian, a graduate of the University of St. Louis, does not want to be exposed to this experience. She plans to take a trip on a fine ship, the first time she has been on the ocean.

More Travel

Helene Leong, a transfer student from the University of Illinois, Champaign-Urbana, visited the campus in Dallas, Texas. She was also from the University of Illinois, Champaign-Urbana. The campus in Dallas, Texas, is a fine place to be. She says she has been happily surprised with the quality of the facilities.

Bus Driver

For some of the visitors it was their first visit. They were excited to be on the bus. They enjoyed the experience and would definitely recommend it to others.

At the Annual Father-Daughter Banquet held at Hotel Jefferson on Tuesday, April 20, the students and their fathers danced and listened to the music. A total of 125 people attended the event, including faculty members, staff, and students.

Help the Red Cross! It's Yours.

The American Red Cross is your helping hand in a mighty service to humanity. It is a voluntary organization of men and women who work for the relief of sick and wounded abroad and at home, and for the promotion of international understanding through public education. The work of the Red Cross is carried on by trained workers who give their services free of charge.

In order to help the Red Cross, you may contribute money or goods, or you may volunteer your services. The Red Cross needs the help of everyone in order to carry on its work effectively. The Red Cross is a non-political, non-sectarian organization, and all contributions are tax-deductible.

Another Saint Joseph

When the Church witnessed the highest honors on Blessed Pope Pius XII on May 31, it will be remembered by the citizens of the United States. Pope Pius XII, who was born in Italy, was canonized in a solemn ceremony in St. Peter's Basilica, Rome, on May 16. The Mass was attended by the Pope and the clergy, and the ceremony concluded with a procession in which the body of the Pope was carried on a carriage drawn by horses.

Let's Abide By The Rules

On Auditorium Stage Lights

One of the most used rooms on the campus is the auditorium. When first filled, it has been the most awaited moment of the year. There is no doubt that the auditorium stage is a place of excitement and anticipation.
