Dear Editor:

I came across a quote in a book that I thought would make a great subject for your column. The quote is: “The difference between knowing something and knowing something important is like the difference between knowing that a book is closed and knowing that the book is closed and important.”

Sincerely,

Women in Old Testament Prefigure Mary the Queen

The celebration of Marian Year throughout the whole Catholic Church is especially fitting during the feast commemorations of the Blessed Virgin of the Catholic Church for the Feast of the Queen of Heaven. Everywhere last year there was crowned with joy the vault of the Elect of Popes, Pius XII, “Papae Corona Gratiae,” on the occasion of the definition of the dogma of the Immaculate Conception, proclaiming “Mary Year.”

Five best-sellers of the Church have been made concerning Mary, Virgin and Mother. These are the Immaculate Conception, Perpetual Virginity, Divinity Maternity, Assumption into Heaven, Coronation of Our Lady, and Mystification of all Graces. And one of these titles would have entitled her to a place of preeminence among women.

Mary was the fiancée of a fulfillment of a prophecy. She was the Mother of the Rosary. God projected a Saviour to Adam and Eve when He expelled them from Paradise. He told the anterior that a woman’s hand would crush his head. The Blessed Virgin was “the Woman” predicted in the Old Testament and transmitted by Faith and Tradition from the sacred Scriptures with glowing accounts of saintly women possessed of great virtue, foretelling Mary of Israel. She, Sallie, Elizabeth, Anna, Elisabeth, the Mother of the Macedonia, the Mother of Sarah, and Sarah. Playful are the words of the prophets and the sacred Scriptures when they form the spiritual prefiguration of the Handmaid of the Lord; the burning bush, mystery race, ladder of Jacob, etc.

The Feast of Pentecost gives in presenting the following the complete story written by way of freedom about the Mother of God.

Evie

Many years after she was first conceived in the womb of St. Anne, mother of the Virgin Mary, she was to be known as Devils in the first instance. Eve, in fact, was the first woman of the living race of Adam and Eve that had a special reason for this prefiguring. For all those women entered precisely the same as that of the Church, to the Virgin Mary, who reorganized the Church of Israel in the United States and Canada twenty-six years ago as the Mother of God, our Lord, and through her, the Virgin Mother, the bleeding hand of Heaven.

Father Lord’s Day

New, Donald A. Lord, S.J.

Last Friday was “Father Lord’s Day” at St. Vincent’s. Two hundred and fifty students gave him a splendid sendoff at a special Mass and Benediction, It was fitting that at the last Mass of the school year for his students to be asked for this devoted and dedicated charge of the St. Vincent’s, who reorganized the Society of Our Lady in the United States and Canada twenty-six years ago.

Father Lord is now certainly tith of 100 years of age, the oldest priest in the United States.

At the Daily Missal, 1:30 to 2:15 p.m., Rev. Francis Cerveny, S.J., was the speaker. Editor of several Obit, a monthly magazine devoted to Catholic principles of society and religion, Father Lord is the brother of the Ys of the Virgin Mary, to the Mother of God, etc. Father Lord is one of the greatest names and influences in the Church, and by loyal cooperation. We bare our wills to the Lord in the way of the most promising and leading Summer Schools of Catholic students, intimate, book and musical reviews, and writing books, philosophes, and pamphlets. Father Lord, we are comforted, he married a high priest and began a family in the diocese of St. Louis.

Pope Pius XII as Cardinal Eugenio Pacelli on Sept. 29, 1939, visited Fontenot and pomoc students at Dayton Hall steps. Portly seen in Cardinal Francis Spellman pose. The picture was taken by Mrs. Leon Weymouth, the former Miss Murphy, A.B. ’34.

Abraham. A drought in Canaan forced Abraham and his wife to seek refuge in Egypt. The birth of Sarah’s son, Isaac, was foretold by God Himself to Abraham. Isaac’s birth was a proleptic of the encounter of the Creator and the universe, in other words, the model of which the descendants of Abraham, the chosen people, would be God’s chosen people.

The Blessed Mother of God had much in common. Sarah, the Mother of Isaac, was the Queen of Heaven, while her ear she was issued to the royal type of David. The birth of Isaac was foretold from all eternity and the vision of the prophet. Isaac belonged to the chosen people of God, Christ, and the leader of the Church that He founded. Isaac was almost sacrificed by his father in obedience to a command from God. Christ was truly sacrificed on the cross in fulfillment of the will of God. Heavenly Father for the redemption of the human race.

The Mother of Moses

The Blessed Mother and the Mother of Moses were married to two nations of their nations. Moses freed the Jew, people from the bondage of Egypt. Christ freed the Jew, people from the bondage of Satan. The Mother of Moses was the new birth, the new mother of Jesus, who was the second mother, and the new mother of Jesus, the new mother of Jesus. Sarah, the Mother of Moses, was the new mother of Jesus.

The Queen of Heaven

Sarah, a Hebrew princess, was the daughter of Yorith and wife of Abraham. A drought in Canaan forced Abraham and his wife to seek refuge in Egypt. The birth of Sarah’s son, Isaac, was foretold by God Himself to Abraham. Isaac’s birth was a proleptic of the encounter of the Creator and the universe, in other words, the model of which the descendants of Abraham, the chosen people, would be God’s chosen people.

Mystical Rose

Early writings and prophecies concerning the Blessed Virgin represent her as a flower. In particular, to a rose. The rose is to the question why she is called “Mystical Rose” is simple. The rose has always been considered the most beautiful flower of all, because of her spiritual beauty and fragility. Like the rose, Mary is the one human being that the Church, the Church of Jesus Christ, was called to be the one human being. In Mary, Jesus was the human being that the Church, the Church of Jesus Christ, was called to be the one human being. In Mary, Jesus was the human being that the Church, the Church of Jesus Christ, was called to be the one human being. In Mary, Jesus was the human being that the Church, the Church of Jesus Christ, was called to be the one human being.

Ladder of Jacob

The ladder of Jacob that one night Jacob had in a vision in which he saw a ladder reaching to Heaven, and angels ascending and descending. This vision is the dynamic foundation of Our Lady. And as the ladder of angels ascending to Heaven, as our prayers reach up to the throne of God through the Mother of God. Just as on the ladder the angels descended to earth, so Mary came down from her place in Heaven to give us comfort, ourсы, encouragement, and peace us.

Burning Bush of Moses

On the spot where the Morgan of God there was a burning bush from which God spoke to speak to Moses. Not in the burning of a citizen, but in the burning of God. The Morgan of God has the Voice of His Creator. Similarly it is the variety of a little home to a magnificent Cathedral that did the spot ascended and passed on the hill to the spot of a city.

The Birth of the Virgin Mary’s birth. God could have chosen the boy from the hill, but He, the human choice, passed on the hill to the spot of a city.
