Seniors Start Fund As Gift

The senior class at the meeting last week voted to start a fund for the purchase of a portable machine, film, and slides. Posters will be displayed by Miss Blanché Gashott to prospective students. Donations of $100 will be accepted as a gift to the school, the senior class will also take part in the pictures to be made. It is hoped that the fund, headed by the senior gift committee members Judith Anderson, Rosemary Fulbright, and Helen Therese Luzar, will be augmented by donations of $20 or more from all organizations, clubs, and classes. The staffs of the Font and Fontbonne are the first to receive their check for $20.

School Editors Are Guests

Fontbonne Press Day will be held on campus Friday, November 29. Editors from sixty local high schools are invited to the affair which is sponsored by Mrs. J. Russell Dyer. The city editor of the Globe-Democrat, will interview the students. Lunch will be served at the fair, followed by the editors, followed by a tour of the city. At the Globe-Democrat, there will be a display of Post-Dwight portraits. Three display cases will be of pictures covering local and international news.

Other guests besides the editors and another representative of each high school paper, will be Mrs. R. H. Dwyer, public relations man from the Post-Dwight, Miss Blanché Gashott, and Reverend Jasper J. Synodin, S.T.D., editor of the St. Louis Register.

Editor Names Annual Staff

All votes for the yearbook, Fontbonne, will be sent to the printer on November 15, according to Nancy Bliss, editor. As usual the theme is a secret. Last year's book was dedicated to the President, and the division pages were paper sculpture. For the sake of the students, the book was dedicated to the President, and the division pages were silk-screened. The staff combined the best of both worlds.

At the International Relations Club's reception and dinner following the assembly on D.N. Day, more than 60 percent of the students present were international students, according to the latest student enrollment information. The International Relations Club sponsored the assembly, and the following were present: Dr. H. Jackson Daniels, president; Dr. John Kilgore, secretary; and Mrs. Ruth Kilgore, treasurer.

Executive Committee for the Fontbonne Press Day will be held Friday, November 29, by the students on Fontbonne and Fontbonne, under the chairmanship of Mrs. J. Russell Dyer, publicity director. The student editors of the Globe-Democrat, and the City Press will be represented.

Thanksgiving

On Monday, November 19, the faculty will observe the first Thanksgiving dinner in the school's social history. The dinner will consist of the traditional turkey.

At the International Relations Club's reception and dinner, following the assembly on D.N. Day, the students present were international students, according to the latest student enrollment information. The International Relations Club sponsored the assembly, and the following were present: Dr. H. Jackson Daniels, president; Dr. John Kilgore, secretary; and Mrs. Ruth Kilgore, treasurer.

focus on: "Contemporary Drama: An Instrument"

The Fontbonne College Student Council is planning a trip to the Metropolitan Opera in New York City. The trip is open to all students, and tickets will be sold on a first-come, first-served basis. The matinee performance will be held on November 29, and the evening performance will be held on November 30. Both performances will be held at the St. Louis Civic Center. The cost of the trip is $20 per person, and all proceeds will go towards the Student Council's activities fund. For more information, please contact the Student Council at (314) 535-4567.
Actors Begin Year With “Murder in Cathedral”

Footlights Club has scheduled T. S. Eliot’s block-buster drama, “Murder in the Cathedral,” as its first chamber play production for December at 8 p.m. Tickets will sell for $1.00 each. The place is Fine Arts 341.

The cast of characters include Titulus: Bumin Rhea, Margaret Wachs, Katherine Wagner, Margaret Morrison; Priests: Coral Feldman, Jacqueline Sattler, Mary Mcintosh; Archbishop: Regina Mcclanahan; Clerics: Marilyn Pires, Margaret Quickley, Pamela Durr. Mary Lee Sabadka, Judith Alexander, Annette Zunic, Arlene Dulaney, Margaret Mcnally, Mary Ann Broten, Mary Jane Volin.

Committee chairman is Bobbie Sobolick, publicity, Judith Anderson and Margaret Wadman, reception.

The purpose of the club is to give students a chance to see the arts and drama as well as other students interact and to involve them in a meaningful art to sit and do. Although the club does not operate all student theatrical productions, its members are among the organizers of the club. A fall program includes experimental theatre under former Chamber Theatre and Children’s Theatre.

On Monday, October 22, at 7:30 in Fine Arts 341, all members of the club are invited to attend the monthly meeting and meet the president, Margaret Quickley. Other officers include secretary, Bobbie Sobolick; treasurers, Mary Ann Broten, president; Judith Alexander, secretary; Dorothy Dulaney, treasurer.

Collette Colecille

Recollection Day At Carondelet
Sunday, Dec. 9

Second annual Victor Sains will be presented the afternoon after Christmas. Tickets are available in the school store for $1.00 each.

Sister John Joseph Complete Outlines

Outlines of Pius X’s Treatise, a series of four books written by Sister John Joseph, the St. Joseph, Fondhontenons music department, are now being sold at Fasthau. This is the third revision of a text containing material that Sister John Joseph has used for the last fifteen years in teaching music to students ranging from first to fifteenth year. This latest edition contains in addition to the complete outline for student use, a cut of the chalkboard used in the class.

Money from the books, which sell at fifty cents each for the first three books, will be put in the Catholic Relief Fund, the second edition was, for the amount donated, which helped to pay for the new piano for Fasthau. The storm was purchased October 17th.

TV Claims Fonbonnens On KETC

Fonbonnens students participated in a selection program on Channel 3, KETC, this week on the 4th to the 5th. On November 23rd, Dr. William C. Kormann of St. Louis University social studies department, presented a lecture on “At the French Revolution.” Student participants were Colleen Kelly, Lovette Kehler, Martha Re, John Thompson, Arlene Thomson and Margaret Mary Ryan. On this program, early Greek institutions such as government and family life are compared with modern day counterparts.

Professor Victor P. Strauf of St. Louis University English department presented a lecture entitled “How to Be a Critic.” Helen Therese Lecker, Mary Lou Miller, Martha Schmuckel, Carol Sheehan, Phylis, Kathleen Krueger, and Margaret Quickley, participated in this program. The event is an outgrowth of the student organization NFCS Offers.

Mid-semester Grades Ready

According to the Registrar, Sister Anne Edward, and other staff, grades will be given out Monday. Freshmen will be told to see their advisors, other offices will please report to the Registrar.

Joan Kiboule Named Editor

This year’s edition of the Focus Campus literary publication, campus will come out in the spring. Announced by Sister Mary Latina, editor, the staff is announced by Sister Mary Latina, editor.

Faculty Goes To Meetings

Two conventions, one in Chicago and one in new York City, were attended by the english department. The convention will be that of the American English Teachers Association. The second meeting will be the Missouri English Teachers Association. Officers of the association are Mrs. Robert Karr, president, Miss Corinne Sarginson, vice-president; Miss Virginia Shambaugh, treasurer; Miss Roselle McFadden, secretary, Miss Joseph E. Nicholson, president-elect.

Sisters Mary John, Mary Louise, and Sister Anne Edward, representatives, attended the annual conference of the Missouri English Teachers Association. Sisters Mary John and Mary Louise are members of the English department.
Broadway Rhythm, Oct. 21. 1966, presented by Footlights Club on their first theatre weekend.

Carole Boshard Heads Pin Sale For TB Society

Plans for the sale of TB pins in the Footlights Club's pin sale were made Tuesday, October 23, when the Pin Sale Committee of the Student Health Society met at the home of Mrs. Bruce Rice, 855 S. McMillin. Mrs. Rice.

Representatives of six local colleges attended the tea. Carole Boshard, 8555 McMillin Drive, represented Footline College. Carole is a junior majoring in English. A graduate of St. Mark's high school, she will direct the sale for the sale of TB pins at campus.

Chairman of the committee is the recently crowned Veiled Pinwheel Queen, Miss Helen Stowell, The former queen, Miss Audrey Frost Wilson, represented former pin-wheelers at the meeting.

Revises Laws For Association

A committee has been established to offer suggestions for revising portions of the Student Association constitution. Some of the topics under discussion are the voting system, methods of nominating candidates, and qualifications for office. After the committee has reached definite conclusions, it will present its report to the Student Council.

Members of the committee are Lee Cruse, chairman, Helen Therese Lender, June Prentice, Carol Kure, Margaret O'Leary, and Carol Boshard.

French, Home Ec Clubs Plan Year's Program

The first meeting of the French there was held on Monday, October 20, in Footline's studio. At the meeting were also members of the Internatinal Relations Club and Dr. William Van Tuyl. Miss Jean Killeen entered the group by exhibiting slides of her country. The new officers of the French Club were inducted. They are: Jean Bredin, president, Mary Jo Kure, vice-president, Peggy Kuehn, secretary, and Sheila Butler, treasurer. The meeting was attended by seventeen students.

The president announced that meetings will be held in French and future meetings would be planned by a committee. The committee for the November meeting includes: Sue Miller, Mary Jo Kure, Carol Debrul, and Elaine Ditto. The next meeting is scheduled for October 22.

French: the French offered to plan a meeting in the near future.

Society Invites Students to Try For Science Award
