Coward's 'Blithe Spirit' Is Footlights' Choice For February 15 and 17

Blithe Spirit, a three-act comedy by Noel Coward, is the selection of the Footlights Club for presentation February 15 and 16 at 8:30 p.m. Two husband, two wives, a brother and the ladies of British humour are the ingredients of the comedy. The play is at Annual Card Party and Style Show Given by Alumnae

For the annual dance card party Saturday, Feb. 21, in Mod-ville Hall, given by the Footbonite Alumnae, Mrs. Lester Prize has been selected chairman and Mrs. Joseph A. Shewell, Jr., chairman of the style show to be staged by forty-five alumnae children. Beginning at 3:30 p.m., the party has as chairman of the dessert committee, Mrs. William Barry. Admission price is one dollar and twenty-five cents. Proceeds from the party will be put in the Alumnae Scholarship Fund.

Catholic College Alumnae Will Hear University Dean

Reverend Robert J. Henle, S.J., dean of the graduate school of St. Louis University, will be the principal speaker on an open meeting of the Catholic Women's College Club of greater St. Louis on Monday, 3, at 8:30 p.m. in Mod-ville Hall auditorium. The subject of his talk is "Censorship." The meeting is open to ladies.

The organization sponsoring the lecture is composed of Catholic college alumnae living in St. Louis. On the committee for Feb. 10 are Mrs. J. Russell Dye and Mrs. Lillian McDonald, Footbonite alumnae.

Sisters Buy Corner House

The Felitas J. Kehe home, 600 W. Washington Blvd., on the northeast corner of the Footbonite campus was sold last week to the Sisters of St. Joseph, who plan to use it as a residence for the Sisters who attend the college. It was purchased from Father Lilli Marie, superior of the St. Louis province, before the departure for the Mexican Islands to visit the missions belonging to the Sisters.

The house has been redecorated recently and has about eleven rooms and will accommodate fifteen to eighteen Sisters. The house will be used for bedrooms and a kitchenette, for the semi-nunnery will attend Mass and take their meals at Footbonite.

This is the second purchase by the Sisters of the house on the corner of State and W. Washington. Five years ago, the house was bought from the Christopher Hokes, clubhouse to be used as a student house. The Footbonite Association, composed of the residents of the area in which the house is located, pointed to an ordinance which stated that a school could not be conducted there. The district is restricted to homes only. The Sisters then sold the property to Mr. and Mrs. Kratz, who, in Continued on Page 3, Col. 4

Dean's List, Honor Roll Released

The Dean's list and the honor roll for the first semester have been posted. Students are eligible for the Dean's list who have a semester average of at least 2.3. Students are eligible for the honor roll who have a semester average of 2.50. Those on the Dean's list are:

---Gilmour, Sister Margaret Mary, V.I.M.
---Hill, Mary Carol
---Kearney, Teresa
---Kundel, Patricia
---Lambert, Sister Claire Elaine, O.S.F.
---Lavender, Terry
---McKivin, Sister M. Leonarda, O.S.U.
---McKivin, Sister M. Rebekah, O.S.F.
---McSween, Patricia
---Mohler, Sister Dominick, O.S.F.
---Nowak, Margaret
---O'Keefe, Mary Jane
---O'Leary, Mary Jane
---Phillips, Mary Ann
---Reynolds, Claire
---Richard, Camille

Students Hear Revisions On SGA Constitution

The proposed revisions in the constitution of the student government were adopted by the students of yesterday's meeting. The revision which drew up the revisions were Anne Coffey, Margaret O'Connell, Justice Fre-man, and Carole Barfield. The students consented and revised the by-laws and amended the revision as pre-posed by the committee of three (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3).

Rehearsal for Noel Coward's Blithe Spirit are Mary Jane Teddlie, the model; Jacqueline Beaulieu, Mrs. Blunden; Susan Kotz, Dvina; Carl Palomma, Madame Araret; Katherine Wiegnau; Ruth Condon, the Play. Footbonite Club's offering on Feb. 15 and 17 in the Foot-bonite auditorium under the direction of Miss Camille Schmidt.

Marilyn Krebs, Sophomore, is the recipient of a scholarship to Laurier University in Quebec. Marilyn will attend the Canadian University this summer. She won the scholarship in competition with other students of Footbonite.

Wardrobe, Pose Are Subject For Student Lecture

Mrs. J. F. Gilbert, a member of the staff of the John Robert Hopkins School, is currently giving a series of six lectures at Footbonite. In February 9 is March 12, the lectures will be given every Tuesday at 1:30 p.m. in Modville. Wardrobe, visual pos, social trend and fashion are the subjects of the talks. Attendance, which is voluntary, is limited to 150 students.

Arrangements Are Complete For Father-Daughter Fete

The hotel for this year's Father-

Daughter Fete will be the Kinghorn. The banquet will take place on Saturday, March 9, in the beautiful Empire Room.

Rev. Daniel Campbell, S.J. will be the guest speaker for the event. Father Campbell stands at Pace College as an assistant to the music of Dr. James Drucker, O.S.F. The entertainment will be provided by the students and their fathers.

Scheduled to be held will be Miss Louis Miller, president of the Student Government Association, and her father, Mr. R. A. McVey, Curie, Kansas, vice-president, and her father, Mr. John Keene, Theresa Goethe, secretary, and Anne Oden, junior class president.

General chairman of the banquet is Anne Oden. She will be assisted by Joan McVey, Margaret Mary Past, chairman (Continued on Page 3, Col. 4).

Seminary Rector Will Lecture To Faculty

Bue. Nicholas R. Perich, C.M., S. T. D., rector of Knecht Seminary, will give a lecture for the Fontbonne faculty every Monday afternoon during the current semester starting at 4:30 p.m., in Ryan Hall 203, and lasting for an hour, the series will be concerned with diocesan theology.

Guest Lecturer Will Talk On "A Father Looks At Delinquency"

Dr. Shane MacCarthy, a current years analyst, will be the speaker at an open lecture at 9:00 p.m., Thursday, February 21, in the auditorium, "A Father Looks at Delinquency" is the subject of his talk. The speaker will be introduced by Mayor Raymond Tucker. Other civic leaders will also occupy the platform for the program.

Dr. MacCarthy was born in Ireland in 1930. He received his B.A. and A.D. from the Catholic University of America, and a doctor of jurisprudence from New York University. He was married in 1950 and is the father of five children. Since 1954, he has been active in government. Among the positions he has held are the executive assistant to the Assistant Secretary of the National Defense Commission and the assistant department administrator, Department of Labor. He was recently appointed the executive director of the President's Council on Physical Fitness.

Seminarians To Have Two Students On Madeleine Staff

As a result of the annual Madeleine Student College Board Contest, two Fontbonne students, living in St. Louis, have been named to the Madeleine Student College Board for 1965. After submitting 1000 word essays on the Student College Board, Judith Fisher and Delores Jenkins who are among 3784 college students named to the board and the first to represent Fontbonne in the history of the contest.

Committee Set Date For Mardi Gras Dance, March 1

The Mardi Gras Dance sponsored by the sophomores will be held Friday, March 1, in the Main Ballroom. Ann Brockner is in charge of decorations; Sue Miller and Stephanie Kohn, publicity; Jacqueline Redlich, refreshments; Betty Dalbom, blind dates; and Marita Robertson, tickets. Jerry Gofet's band will play at the event which will run from 8:30 to 12:00.

Seminars To Attend Two Conventions

Fontbonne faculty members will attend two conventions this month, one in Chicago and the other in Kansas City. Sister Miriam Stephens, dean of studies, and Sister Mary Bligh, of the education department will attend the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education Convention which will be held February 14-16 at the Motor Hotel, in Chicago, Ill.

Fontbonne College in Kansas City, Mo., will be the scene of one of two day programs for high school seniors of the Kansas City Conference on February 23. Sister Rita Mote of the philosophy department and Sister Anselm Consoli of the psychology department will attend the two day program of Fontbonne. Both institutions are branches of the University of Kansas.

Delegate Reports NFCGS Conference Held In Kansas City

Phyllis Schmidt and Mary Ann Vattert, NFCGS delegates, and Sister Mary Teresa, NFCGS orator, recently traveled to Kansas City, Missouri, for the Central Midwest Regional Council of the National Federation of Catholic College Students, held January 26 and 27 at the College of St. Teresa, in St. Paul. The convention agenda included reports from the various committees and discussion of important questions pertinent to college life.

During the session Phyllis presented the report of a constitutional amendment to the Congress, under the chairmanship of Claire Sanger, which proposed that the regional council include student government presidents as regular voting members. One of the highlights of the conference, Phyllis said, was a talk by Leo Ritter, National Catholic Youth Award Winner. Her topic was, "Are You a Catholic Individual?" or an Individual Catholic.

The council discussed the possibility that the National Congress, including over 700 students representing colleges throughout the nation, will meet in St. Louis in 1966. The next regional council will be held April 13 and 14 at St. Mary's College, in Lee's Summit, and anyone interested is invited to attend.

On campus, NFCGS is tentatively planning to have a mass for the senior students on March 7 in connection with Palm Sunday, the beginning of the Catholic academic student association.

Fontbonne's contribution of $150 to the NFCGS-sponsored Student Relief Fund was the highest in the region. The total that will be collected by the contributing colleges was over $1500.

Synchronized Swimming Unit Organized

Swimming instructions will be given to those who apply at the 22nd office, Room 22, 8th and Walnut Streets. Applications will be available from the second year students who are interested in learning synchronized swimming will be instructed on Tuesday afternoon of last 9:00 p.m. and shall last 60 minutes.

The synchronized swimming team will give its opening performance at the Penny Street, April 3. Those who will participate are: Jeanne Cope, Rosemary Batsch, Jane Green, Sue Kaiser, Carol Kneiss, Helen Luckard, Carol McDonald, Jacqueline Petrie and Helen Wilen.

Faculty Attends Two Conventions

Fontbonne faculty members will attend two conventions this month, one in Chicago and the other in Kansas City. Sister Miriam Stephens, dean of studies, and Sister Mary Bligh, of the education department will attend the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education Convention which will be held February 14-16 at the Motor Hotel, in Chicago, Ill.

Fontbonne College in Kansas City, Mo., will be the scene of one of two day programs for high school seniors of the Kansas City Conference on February 23. Sister Rita Mote of the philosophy department and Sister Anselm Consoli of the psychology department will attend the two day program of Fontbonne. Both institutions are branches of the University of Kansas.

Delegates Report NFCGS Conference Held In Kansas City

Phyllis Schmidt and Mary Ann Vattert, NFCGS delegates, and Sister Mary Teresa, NFCGS orator, recently traveled to Kansas City, Missouri, for the Central Midwest Regional Council of the National Federation of Catholic College Students, held January 26 and 27 at the College of St. Teresa, in St. Paul. The convention agenda included reports from the various committees and discussion of important questions pertinent to college life.

During the session Phyllis presented the report of a constitutional amendment to the Congress, under the chairmanship of Claire Sanger, which proposed that the regional council include student government presidents as regular voting members. One of the highlights of the conference, Phyllis said, was a talk by Leo Ritter, National Catholic Youth Award Winner. Her topic was, "Are You a Catholic Individual?" or an Individual Catholic.

The council discussed the possibility that the National Congress, including over 700 students representing colleges throughout the nation, will meet in St. Louis in 1966. The next regional council will be held April 13 and 14 at St. Mary's College, in Lee's Summit, and anyone interested is invited to attend.

On campus, NFCGS is tentatively planning to have a mass for the senior students on March 7 in connection with Palm Sunday, the beginning of the Catholic academic student association.

Fontbonne's contribution of $150 to the NFCGS-sponsored Student Relief Fund was the highest in the region. The total that will be collected by the contributing colleges was over $1500.
Clubs Schedule, Freshman Plays, Open House, Travel Film

French Club
On Monday, February 22, the French Club will hold its Tea in the Alumni Room, Medalle Hall. The guests for the evening will be the Misses and Monsieurs Lemaitre, Dr. and Mrs. Roux, who will be the guests of honor. The tea will be in continuation of the club's attempt to better the cultural understanding of the French language. The program will include a presentation of French literature, music, and art. The tea will begin at 4:00 p.m. and is open to all students.

Home Economics
The Home Economics Club is currently planning an event for its members. The details of the event are still being finalized, but it is expected to include a workshop on cooking and baking.

C.S.M.C.
The annual Mission Pledge Drive will be held on February 21, in conjunction with the Catholic Student's Mission Crusade. Pledges will be taken in the Loretto Commons from 1:30 to 7:30 p.m. The goal is to raise funds for the mission. Pledges will be accepted by the Misses and Monsieurs Lemaitre, who are serving as the club advisors.

Finn X Club
The Finn X Club is planning a trip to the site of the St. Pat's X Club Lyrical Club, held at the Palace Theatre in Killarney, on March 10. The club will depart at 2:00 p.m. and return to campus at 9:00 p.m. The cost of the trip is $5.00 per person, and a dance will be held on campus at 9:00 p.m. The dance is open to all students.

Footlights
On Thursday, February 18, the Footlights Club will hold its open house for the students who have been working on the stage crew of Blithe Spirit. Present at the Footlights Club will be a special guest, Mr. Powell Ann, who will discuss the upcoming production with the students. The open house will be held in the main theatre from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. All students are welcome.

Spanish Club
"La Sociedad de España," the Spanish club, has announced that the club will be hosting a Spanish language competition on February 20. The competition will be held in the Loretto Commons and is open to all students.

Fontbonne Athletic Asn.
Plans for the upcoming basketball season are currently being made. Fontbonne Athletic Asn. will also be holding a meet with Marquette, Webster, Harris, and Morristown. The first game is scheduled for February 25. The basketball program will be held in the University Commons at 3:00 p.m. All students are welcome.

At the last meeting of the FAA, plans were discussed for the forthcoming season.

Cheerleaders
Cheerleaders were chosen on Wednesday, February 17. The team includes: Janis McInnis, Deirdre Vanplayen, Jeanne Barte, Diane Urdziak, and the other members of the team. The cheerleaders will begin their season on February 26 and will serve as alternates. The cheerleaders will be wearing their new uniforms. The cheerleaders will be performing at the beginning of the games.

Juniors
On Monday, February 22, the Juniors will hold a Tea in the Alumni Room, Medalle Hall. The guests for the evening will be the Misses and Monsieurs Lemaitre, Dr. and Mrs. Roux, who will be the guests of honor. The tea will be in continuation of the club's attempt to better the cultural understanding of the French language. The program will include a presentation of French literature, music, and art. The tea will begin at 4:00 p.m. and is open to all students.

Alumnae at a meeting of Fontbonne Loyalty Fund Feb. 4, Clockwise: Betty Bracy, Miss. James C. Thompson, general chairman; Miss. Thomas Timpe, sister M. Emmetina. The alumnae were scheduled to meet on May 17.

International Relations Club
The International Relations Club will hold a cake raffle on Wednesday, February 17. Cookies were sold all morning and the cake was presented to the winner at 1:45 p.m. The winner was Missaverage Jane. The cake was a delicious Irish cream cake. The proceeds from the cake sale will be donated to the Red Cross.

College Life Film, Slides Completed
Slides depicting "Life at Fontbonne," are now completed and ready for distribution. The slides in color were prepared by the Andover Camera Club. Photostats, prepared by a commercial photostat company, will also be available for distribution. Both film and slides will be sold by Miss Blanche Goodman, director of admissions, to potential students, to stimulate interest in high school groups in Fontbonne. They will also be made available in various choral organizations. A projector has been purchased by the Student Class and is given to the school for the showing of these films.

Mademoiselle Staff
"Mademoiselle," the campus newspaper, will be published this week. The newspaper will feature articles on campus events, student life, and local news.

New House (Continued from Page 1, Col. 3)
A new house will be built on the site of the former Summer House. The new house will be constructed on a new foundation and will be completed in time for the upcoming academic year. The building will be used as a dormitory for the freshman class. The house will be named "The Summer House." The construction of the new house is expected to be completed by the end of the school year.

Sorbonne Frosh Prose Poems To Anthology
The Annual Anthology of the College Poetry will be published this month. This compilation of poetry written by college students will feature poems by student authors.

"Life is a Ship" is the title of the fresman Georgabilia Groves' students' poetry. Georgabilia, an editor of the freshman class, graduated from Regina College high school in St. Louis. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Groves. Virginia Golden, a graduate of Sorbonne, submitted her poem "Imagery" for publication. A freshman, Virginia Groves plans to major in English.

Come To the Dance!
Mary Jane Kiefer and Carol Boss, freshmen representatives on the international institute and international student committee, will sell tickets to the dance sponsored by this committee. The dance will be held on February 27 at the Central Institute for the Blind at 8:00 p.m. The dance will feature music by the dance committee and refreshments. Tickets will be sold for $0.50 each.

Sophomores planning Mardi Gras Ball to be held in Meadville March 1 include members of the Broaches, Brindillies, and the Brookes. The students are looking forward to the carnival atmosphere and the traditional Mardi Gras festivities.
Committee Chairmen for Sigma Beta Mu Ten, Feb. 10, in Florida. Jacqueline Post, business manager, and William M. Blalock, general chairman, noted that the program was sponsored by Ann Golden. The program was presented by Eunice V. McLeod, president; Mrs. E. Hammond, hostess; and Ann Golden, program chairman.

What Would You Do If...?

Read and Learn Much

The elections for the National Federation of Catholic College Students will be held on April 1. The candidates are James W. McElroy, University of Notre Dame; James F. Sullivan, Boston College; and Robert J. McManus, Loyola University. The election will be held at 8 p.m. in the Ignatius Room of the Main Building.

Contest Chairman Announced For "Silent Opinion"

The National Catholic Student Congress has announced the names of the candidates for the "Silent Opinion" contest. The contest is open to all Catholic college students, and the winners will be announced at the National Catholic Student Congress convention in St. Louis, Missouri, on May 26.

Books You Will Like

The Protestant Churches of the United States have established a new organization, the Protestant Church Council of America. The Council's purpose is to promote understanding and cooperation among the various Protestant denominations in the United States.

The author has made a significant contribution to the literature on the Protestant Church Council of America. The book is highly recommended for those interested in understanding the religious landscape of the United States.

Suzanne McFarland and Joanne Cento

Reporters Attend Newspaper Meeting

The newly appointed reporters for the College Newspaper met with the editors of the newspaper to discuss the new policies and procedures for the newspaper. The meeting was attended by the editors and reporters of the College Newspaper.

Blogging in a major problem to some freshmen college students, according to a new study, College P.R. (Protestantized University) by M. A. B. Smith. An analysis of freshmen student behavior revealed that some freshmen students are struggling with the problem of balancing their social life, academic responsibilities, and blogging.

Books You Will Like

The Protestant Churches of the United States have established a new organization, the Protestant Church Council of America. The Council's purpose is to promote understanding and cooperation among the various Protestant denominations in the United States.

The author has made a significant contribution to the literature on the Protestant Church Council of America. The book is highly recommended for those interested in understanding the religious landscape of the United States.

Suzanne McFarland and Joanne Cento

Reporters Attend Newspaper Meeting

The newly appointed reporters for the College Newspaper met with the editors of the newspaper to discuss the new policies and procedures for the newspaper. The meeting was attended by the editors and reporters of the College Newspaper.

Blogging in a major problem to some freshmen college students, according to a new study, College P.R. (Protestantized University) by M. A. B. Smith. An analysis of freshmen student behavior revealed that some freshmen students are struggling with the problem of balancing their social life, academic responsibilities, and blogging.

Books You Will Like

The Protestant Churches of the United States have established a new organization, the Protestant Church Council of America. The Council's purpose is to promote understanding and cooperation among the various Protestant denominations in the United States.

The author has made a significant contribution to the literature on the Protestant Church Council of America. The book is highly recommended for those interested in understanding the religious landscape of the United States.

Suzanne McFarland and Joanne Cento

Reporters Attend Newspaper Meeting

The newly appointed reporters for the College Newspaper met with the editors of the newspaper to discuss the new policies and procedures for the newspaper. The meeting was attended by the editors and reporters of the College Newspaper.

Blogging in a major problem to some freshmen college students, according to a new study, College P.R. (Protestantized University) by M. A. B. Smith. An analysis of freshmen student behavior revealed that some freshmen students are struggling with the problem of balancing their social life, academic responsibilities, and blogging.

Books You Will Like

The Protestant Churches of the United States have established a new organization, the Protestant Church Council of America. The Council's purpose is to promote understanding and cooperation among the various Protestant denominations in the United States.

The author has made a significant contribution to the literature on the Protestant Church Council of America. The book is highly recommended for those interested in understanding the religious landscape of the United States.

Suzanne McFarland and Joanne Cento

Reporters Attend Newspaper Meeting

The newly appointed reporters for the College Newspaper met with the editors of the newspaper to discuss the new policies and procedures for the newspaper. The meeting was attended by the editors and reporters of the College Newspaper.

Blogging in a major problem to some freshmen college students, according to a new study, College P.R. (Protestantized University) by M. A. B. Smith. An analysis of freshmen student behavior revealed that some freshmen students are struggling with the problem of balancing their social life, academic responsibilities, and blogging.

Books You Will Like

The Protestant Churches of the United States have established a new organization, the Protestant Church Council of America. The Council's purpose is to promote understanding and cooperation among the various Protestant denominations in the United States.

The author has made a significant contribution to the literature on the Protestant Church Council of America. The book is highly recommended for those interested in understanding the religious landscape of the United States.