Senior Are Guests at Alumnae Tea

Invitations have just been sent out to the Class of 1928 inviting them to the Fonthill College Alumnae Tea. At this annual event the graduating class takes a pledge to return each year on the anniversary of their graduation.

The gathering is on Saturday, December 25, at 2:30 p.m., in the parlor, Mahone Hall, and in the banquet room.

Students and guests attending the event are: Ann Harri Adnan, Louise St. Roy, Jacqueline Carol Rendell, Beatrice Joyce Blanche, Ethel Isabel Bowell, Elizabeth Marie Brown, Muriel Marjorie Brill, Joan Mary Caton, Virginia Patricia Knowlton, cement of the annual College Tea.

Seniors Receive Keys in Ceremony

Key to the annual assembly at which the seniors receive their keys was Wednesday, December 24, in St. Mary's Chapel. The program, a traditional one, was presented by the student body, School of Religion. President John W. Draper, assistant pastor of the Catholic Church, St. Louis, Illinois, Miss Dr. Mary T. F. Brown, of the Student Body, School of Religion, was the master of ceremonies.

The Sister of the Keys is the Senior class's reward for the years of service and dedication of the students of the College. The Senior class is presented with the key on the occasion of their graduation. The Senior class members are shown the key and the ceremony is completed by the Senior class presenting the key to the Dean of the College.

College Theatre Presents "Cleft in the Rock"

The Fontbonne College Theatre in conjunction with music and speech Departments will present "Cleft in the Rock" by Sister Cecilia Clark, S.P., of St. Mary's of the Woods College. It is a Louis Cretan history of two sets of people and the struggle for power. The Fontbonne Auditorium will be the scene of this, its third performance, Sunday, December 17, 1956, at 5:30 p.m.

The cast is as follows:

- Bernadette, Suzanne McNeely
- Jeanne, Marilyn Rose Marie Rose
- Anne, Donna Rose Smith
- Mary, Charlotte Allen, Rose
- Sarah, Kathleen O'Brien, Patricia, Marcia Wren
- Voice of the Lady, Mary Edna Cooper

The play will be directed by Miss Muriel Schneider, music is under the direction of Sister Mary Antonia, while Mary Lee Ford will be student manager. Assisting Miss Schneider are Gwendolyn Baker, Norma Darling, and Christine Jordan. Music will be done by the Fontbonne Chorus.

Sodalis Sponsors "King and I" Total $2300

Among the activities planned for December by the Fonthill Sodalis are the day of recitation, Sunday, December 15, to be given by Raymond Louis Zimmerman, S.J., and the annual Sadle thru Christmas project. As in previous years, the entire student body is invited to join in the latter work by their donations of time and money.

Presenting a Check for $411, proceeds from the Homecoming Dance, sponsored by the Senior Class are Senior Class Treasurer Collegiate Kelly, President Ginn Bowell, Sister M. Marguerite, President of Fonthill College; Vice-President Galen Cartwright, and Secretary Ann Reimnple. Homecoming was an annual event, at which a Queen is elected. It is always sponsored by the Senior Class.

Students Hear Lecture On "Mystical Body"

The Rev. Monsignor Maris B. Kelly, rector of Holy Cross Church, St. Louis, and international authority on the Liturgy, was the speaker of the November 25th assembly. His topic was "The Mystical Body." Each student from the faculty to the freshmen, listening to the elucidation of the visitor from St. John, St. Paul, and St. Peter's, Monsignor Kelly had encouraged the students to cultivate their interest in the Liturgy and cited the publication of the celebration as an attempt to participate in the celebration of the Congregation of Bishops. The lecture quoted frequently from the liturgical Rit.
Wives of the King and Anna seen recently in the All-Student Production of "The King and I" were: Mary Webster, Helen Pollak; Edith Pike, Marilyn Weis; Mary Jean Smith, Marjorie Kuhl; Mary Reil, Phyllis McFarland; and Margaret Johnson, Barbara Miller.

Italy Needs More Education Says Sign Magazine Writer

"While 98 per cent of Italy is officially Catholic, the true figures 34 below, Barret McGregor of the New York Herald Tribune, do put it in the black, the figures, national Catholic magazine published here. Party power or power of the votes, Communion, proselytes, social or non-social Communists, McGregor reports. "All three telling correctly, are Martini, but to the extent that the Italian really understands and up-plies of them are in out off Catholicism."

"Very many Catholics would like to be Catholics and Communists both," McGregor says. "The Commu- nist Party has preached for a decade that the two can fit in, that a man can be a Com- munist 'politically' and a Catholic 'by religion.' Unquestionably this is true."

Pursuit of Higher Education

Have you noticed it lately? "At the beginning of the year, the student body in the United States, according to the American Council on Education, numbered about 3 million. Now, the number is over 3.5 million, and the rate of increase is increasing."

Cuban Student Likes Fonntaine

It Makes Her Feel So Much..."

Fonntaine is the perfect place for foreign students. Here we have wonderful opportunities to develop our culture," stated Maine Marie Gil, a freshman resident student from Havana, Cuba, and a business major. She has already obtained a 3.9 grade in science and literature from the College of the Sacred Heart in Havana, and plans some time to obtain a master's degree in education at the University of Havana, where she would also like to teach.

One nice thing about Fonntaine is the United States two years ago in order to speak English and become acquainted with the American ways of life. She has lived in the United States for a shorter time, but she has lived in the States for a longer time, and helps us to speak English well and to learn English quickly."
