Missionary Communists Tortured, Expelled From China Speaks Wednesday

Rev. Robert W. Greene, Marymond, Missionary, who was expelled by the Chinese in 1962, spoke of Fontbonne yesterday.

A former of mission work, Father Greene was tortured and sentenced to be beheaded after two public trials on charges ranging from being a misgound to a spy, the No. 1 enemy of the people's government. In south China, he is poisoning babies in the central province of Fengnan.

"Silence in China," is Father Greene's book describing his im-nobilization, torture, escape from death, and final expulsion.

At the end of this trial Father Greene was sentenced to be beheaded, captured and exiled by the long school of imprisonment and torture, which showed him such concern that the Committee of the trial wanted him on the vege of sliming his mind. His sentence, subsequently, was changed to an ex-pulsion from China with these words: "Don't think that we are letting you off free. We have our benefit from your perviously has been achieved. You are now 40 years old, but remember that you will never see 90.

"In ten years we shall have America. The Communism in America will take care of you."
