VOLUME XXXI
MARCH 18, 1980
NUMBER 5

NFCCS Plans
Dance April 17

The annual semiannual dance for NFCCS seniors will be given by the College and University Relations Administration, as well as the campus administration.

The dance will be given on April 17, from 8:00 to 12:00 P.M. in the College Auditorium. Tickets will be sold on a first-come, first-served basis.

The theme of the dance will be "A Night in Paris." All students, faculty, and staff are invited to attend.

Barbara Ralston
Heads Freshman Easter Project

The freshman class will sponsor an Easter basket sale on Thursday, April 11, from 9:00 to 3:00 P.M. All proceeds will be donated to the Salvation Army.

Easter baskets will be sold in the Student Union from 8:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M.

Nihon No Hi Bi No Tame No Osensu (Funds-For-Japan Day)

Shows Super Gakko Seishin

Nihon No Hi Bi To Tame (Funds-For-Japan Day) will be held on Friday, April 5, and will feature a benefit concert for the Japanese Red Cross Society. The concert will be held in the College Auditorium from 7:00 P.M. to 9:00 P.M.

The concert will feature performances by the College orchestra, choir, and dance group. All proceeds from the concert will be donated to the Japanese Red Cross Society.

Summer Session Begins June 22

Registration for the 22nd summer session of Fontbonne will be held June 21. Classes will begin on June 22. The final examinations will be held July 22.

Alumni Sponsor Card Party For Student Aid

The French version of the play, Antigone, written by Jean Anouilh, in 1945, will be presented as a dramatic reading by the Fontbonne Theater Players, under the direction of Miss Cornelia Smith. The play will be given Wednesday, March 13. 1980.

The play will be presented in the College Auditorium, and admission is free to all students. The play will be presented in the College Auditorium, and admission is free to all students.

Mary Louise Hobold Has Title Role In Anouilh's Antigone

At the Father-Daughter Banquet held last Friday at the Ambassador-Kingway Hotel are (clockwise) Josephine Bul-

Looking at this Picture: one would think that the Mona is a parrot. Well, it isn’t. Patricia Crumm, Judith O’Connor, Mary Thompson, Carol Kiss, Julie Kowalchuk, and Barbara Tremence and Kathleen Quintin (standing) are seven of the Fontbonne European Touche making reservations to fly from St. Louis to New York on June 1.

Pointing to Two of the many Kabuki (Japanese) actresses advertising Funds-For-Japan Day are Sister Anna Virginia and Sister Patrick Joseph.

Waiting for their Dads to come are Catherine Allen, Caroline Mearney, Genevieve Stosick, Therese Klein, and Kathleen Gremski.
Fontbonne Holds High School Achievement Program for Scholarship Winners, Students

"High School Achievement Program," under the sponsorship of Miss Theresa Schmidt, agriculture advisor, was held at Fontbonne Sunday afternoon, March 8. Guests of honor were Fontbonne winners of the Catholic Women's Colleges' Scholarships and students of the fine arts and merit scholarships in Fontbonne. Other guests were winners of Catholic high schools and many juniors.

Juniors Plan Box Supper

On April 11, the junior class in the Fontbonne Academy of Our Lady, Feast, Barbara Gherardi, Virginia Gati, and Barbara Keating, all from the Diocese of St. Louis, held their annual Box Supper. The event was attended by students from the diocese. The guest speaker for the evening was Miss Mary Lou Smith, Sister Mary Rosetta, M.D., of the St. Louis Catholic University.

Sodalists At TSCF School

Fontbonne was well represented on the student council at the state Catholic women's conferences held in St. Louis last week. The conference was attended by students from the diocese. The guest speaker for the evening was Miss Mary Lou Smith, Sister Mary Rosetta, M.D., of the St. Louis Catholic University.

J. Schussler Is Star Of First Game

High center of the first intercollegiate basketball game of the season, held March 6, was Joe Ann Schussler, who scored fifteen points. The game was played against Webster. Fontbonne won, 26-25.

Carol Kroll is captain of the team, which includes forwards Carol McCormick, Sister Mary Joe, and Anne Schussler. Guard are Joan Schubert, Judith Giesler, and Mary Kroll. The team is coached by Sister Mary Mary Ann, and Mary Hartmann.

On March 9 Fontbonne played its second basketball game of the season against Hayville. Joan Ann Schussler was the high scorer with 10 points. At halftime the score was 26-22 Hayville's favor.

In the second half Fontbonne was leading, Hayville had to keep their first string guards in the game in order to make Fontbonne forwards. This strategy proved worthwhile for Hayville because they won.

On March 12 Fontbonne played Webster and won. Joan Ann Schussler was the high scorer with 10 points. At halftime the score was 16-12 in favor of Fontbonne.
Music In Three Different Styles Will Be Heard At April 29th Assembly

A program of religious and secular compositions in polyphonic, motet, and choral styles will be presented to the students body at the 3:30 assembly period on Wednesday, April 29th. The program will be a combination of programs and performances given by the college choirs throughout the year.

Selections from the following are tentative:

Adan Arvo: Chants for Passover, the master composer of sacred music, presents a simple contemporary setting of the Haggadah for the Passover Seder. A selection from a little space from his sacred music, "Vocalis," by Dr. Adolpho Cariello, will be performed.

Alfred Dir: From the film "The Jersey Waltz," a popular dance of the 19th century, "The Waltz of the Willows" will be performed by the orchestra under the direction of Mr. Robert F. Coever.

Music Festival Held Last Weekend

The bi-annual Music Festival was held March 15th-18th in conjunction with the 32nd Annual Symphony Festival. The event included a concert of chamber music, a concert of solo vocal music, a chamber orchestra concert, a choral concert, and a vocal chamber music concert. The festival was attended by over 1,000 people, including students, faculty, and members of the community.

Seniors Take Comprehensive April 8th-9th

Comprehensive examinations will be given to Juniors and Seniors on Tuesday, April 8th, and Wednesday, April 9th, from 8 a.m. to 12 p.m. The exam will be held in the main classroom. Students are asked to come to the exam room early to ensure their seats.

Rev. R. F. Coever Speaker At SGA Recollection Day

Rev. R. F. Coever will be the speaker at the SGA Recollection Day on Sunday, March 25th. The speaker will discuss the importance of faith and its role in our daily lives. A question and answer session will follow the talk.

Nominations For SGA Announced

Nominations for SGA were announced on Monday, March 24th. The candidates for the SGA positions are:

President: Mary Smith
Vice President: John Johnson
Secretary: Susan Lee
Treasurer: David Williams

Musical performances will be held on Saturday, April 30th, at 7 p.m. in the gym. The event will feature a variety of musical acts, including a live band, a choir, and a dance performance.

Botany Class Inspects Water Works

The botany class visited the local water treatment plant to learn about the process of purifying water. The class observed the filtration, chlorination, and distribution systems in action.

Home Economists Give Betty Lamp Inspections

A lamp inspection was held by the Home Economics Department on April 10th. The inspectors checked the lamps for safety and efficiency. The results will be presented in a report to the students and faculty.

Claire Saenger Will Preside At The National Convention Of NFCCS This Summer

Claire Saenger has been selected as the new president of the National Federation of Catholic College Students (NFCCS). She will be the first woman to hold the position.

During the convention, the theme will be "The Role of the Student in a Democratic Society." The convention will feature keynote speakers, panel discussions, and student workshops.

Attractive Displays Seen On Liturgy Bulletin Board

The liturgy bulletin board has been filled with attractive new displays and posters. The displays are designed to highlight upcoming events, important dates, and important themes.

Admiring the Easter Cake baked in the shape of a basket, Nancy Hubbell, Jeanne Fegan, and Eileen Wilms take a break for refreshments after the springtime meal. Nancy will enjoy the cake for dessert on this lovely spring day.

International Day Will Have Treasure Hunt

The annual International Day celebration will feature a treasure hunt around campus. Participants will receive clues and try to find the treasure. The first person to find the treasure will be declared the winner.

Entertainers At St. Pat's Party

The annual St. Patrick's Day celebration will feature a variety of entertainers. The event will include live music, dancing, and a special guest speaker.

Bake sale and chowder sold in the student center. The proceeds will go to charity.

The Home Economics Club is excited to announce the annual home economics fair. The fair will feature a variety of exhibits, demonstrations, and workshops. The fair will be held on April 15th from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. in the gym.

During the summer the central Missouri Region of the National Federation of Catholic College Students will be the host to the national conference. The conference will be held at the University of Missouri. The conference will feature keynote speakers, panel discussions, and student workshops.

The theme of the conference will be "The Student's Role in a Democratic Society." The conference will feature keynote speakers, panel discussions, and student workshops.

The Home Economics Club is excited to announce the annual home economics fair. The fair will feature a variety of exhibits, demonstrations, and workshops. The fair will be held on April 15th from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. in the gym.

The Home Economics Club is excited to announce the annual home economics fair. The fair will feature a variety of exhibits, demonstrations, and workshops. The fair will be held on April 15th from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. in the gym.

The Home Economics Club is excited to announce the annual home economics fair. The fair will feature a variety of exhibits, demonstrations, and workshops. The fair will be held on April 15th from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. in the gym.

The Home Economics Club is excited to announce the annual home economics fair. The fair will feature a variety of exhibits, demonstrations, and workshops. The fair will be held on April 15th from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. in the gym.
Thank you.

This page consists of various articles and columns. Here are some highlights:

FANS FOR JAPAN...

Quarterly World Justice Appears Soon

The Catholic Church is the world's largest religious organization. It is led by the Pope, who is elected by the College of Cardinals. The Church has a hierarchical structure, with bishops and priests, and it is based on the principles of faith, charity, and obedience. The Church is divided into various jurisdictions, each headed by a bishop. The Church has millions of followers worldwide. The Church's teachings are based on the Bible, which is considered the sacred text of Christianity. The Church also has a rich tradition of artistic and architectural expression, with many famous cathedrals and churches around the world. The Catholic Church is known for its influence on Western culture, politics, and society. It has played a significant role in shaping the modern world, and it continues to be a major force in many countries around the globe.

Lecturer Thinks Americans Strong Shown and Vigor

The lecture suggests that Americans have demonstrated strong character and resilience in the face of adversity. The lecture highlights the courage and determination of Americans, particularly in times of crisis or conflict. It notes that Americans have a strong sense of patriotism and a commitment to their country, which has been evident in various historical events. The lecture also suggests that Americans have a strong work ethic and are willing to work hard to achieve their goals. Overall, the lecture conveys a sense of pride and admiration for Americans and their character.

Silence

The article discusses the importance of silence in modern society. It suggests that people are often too focused on technology and social media, which can lead to a lack of meaningful communication. The article argues that silence can be a powerful tool for reflection and self-awareness, allowing individuals to connect with their inner selves and with others. It encourages people to embrace silence and to use it as a means of enhancing their mental and emotional well-being.

Pope Warns Against Attempt to Discourage Family Life

The Pope's warning against the attempt to discourage family life is significant. It highlights the importance of family in shaping society and in providing a stable foundation for individuals and communities. The Pope's message serves as a reminder of the values of love, compassion, and support that are essential for a healthy society.

Americans vs. Soviet Policy

The article discusses the differences between American and Soviet policies. It notes that American policies are generally more open and democratic, whereas Soviet policies are more closed and authoritarian. The article suggests that these differences have contributed to the tension between the two countries and have shaped the course of world events. It also acknowledges the challenges that both countries face in managing their relationships with each other and with the rest of the world.