SSCA Plans
Annual Theme
For Colleges
Nine students represented Fontbonne College of the Summer School of Catholic Action. It was held in Chicago from August 31 to September 4. The students, accompanied by Sister Anne Marie, and Sister Rose Geranium were in attendance to inform the delegates of the aims and functions of the Society. It also afforded the representatives to form and conduct interesting meetings.

The students found that many of the Catholics were very helpful in working out the theme of the society for this year. This theme is expressing the position of the Church on controversial subjects.

Red Cross Plans
Diverse Activities For First Semester
FULL SPEED AHEAD! That’s how Sister Rose Geranium, steering the Fontbonne Red Cross Unit into the 1939-1940 schedule, is looking at the new year. A busy schedule is planned, full of activities to engage students in the Scott Hospital Student Program, Blood Donor Day, the knitting project, and two International Days.

FLES Program Attracts Over Two Hundred Children
More than 250 children have enrolled in the foreign language demonstration classes being offered at Fontbonne College on Saturdays during the first semester. The classes, in connection with a FLES course for teachers, have received a third and fourth grade children, representing 20 schools, five of which are public schools, throughout the city and country. The program takes its name from Foreign Language for Elementary Schools.

French classes have attracted over 140 children; Spanish 90; and German, 4. Twenty families are represented by two children in the classes; there are five families with three. Coordinated by the members of the department of foreign languages—Sister Mary Bertha Neumann, Sister Mary de Chantal O’Hara, Sister Mary Geraldine Rieck, and Mrs. Law—these classes are being given in connection with a course for teachers. In this method of teaching foreign languages, the FLES class is the first to be offered by a local college and is in line with the national movement to get foreign languages into the elementary schools.

Assisting the Fontbonne staff are the following Sisters of St. Joseph, who will have responsibility for the demonstration groups: Sister Marie Laverne Lamarr, Sister John Roberta Mair, Sister Anna George Kelly—Spanish; Sister Anne Marie McDermott, Sister Mary Kathleen O’Melley, Sister Louise Michelle Sumner, Sister Roberta Mary May, Sister Rose Claire Tanen, Sister Joseph Bernardine Reynol, and Sister Rita Louise Hohensee—French.

College students assisting are Jacqueline Chelis, Martha Percy, and Elizabeth Cropper.

To NFCCS Regional At Webster

The theme of the Congress is "The Pursuit of Academic Excellence in a Pluralistic Society." There will be morning and evening sessions and a prominent keynote speaker will address the House. The business of the Congress will be:

1. Collection of dues. (Fontbonne here will have much to say as we can be proud that we are one of the first to receive the seal of the outstand student body in regard to the dues rules. The Federation will be told of this cooperation.)

2. The Spring Congress. (This to be held in June at Kansas City.)

3. Workshops and committee meetings to be held in the year in such fields as student government and human relations.

4. The national officers and representatives of the 1939-1940 officers resulting from the 1939-1940 National Convention.

5. Miscellaneous Topics

Youth
Since the youth are the backbone of the nation, the theme of this year’s Catholic Youth Week, "Spotlight on the National Youth," is most fitting. At Fontbonne, plans can help raise vital issues by helping spiritually alive youth. The strength to carry out this large scale work can only be refused from God. It is necessary, therefore, that all join in the activities of Catholic Youth Week.

Fatima

Yesterday was October 19, a great day in Portugal, the fecha de Nossa Senhora, a day that marked for two years ago the solar phenomenon when the sun moved between the flames, at other times by yellow and red, and still other times by blue. This phenomenon rapidly and then detaching itself from the sky, appeared to the eye of Fatima as if by some 70,000 pilgrims.

At a date of about seven months before, in May, by the Mother of God to three little maids, Lucia, Jacinta, and Francisco, at Fátima, Lucy had seen and had conversed with the "beautiful lady," Jacinta had seen her and heard her speak; Peresinha had seen her but did not hear her speak.

Then after ten minutes on October 12, the man returned to the place in the sky in the same way that it had descended, signaling, color, and pale. Not only had the sun behaved in this manner, but the children had also seen a Veil of the Holy Family. Lucy alone had seen the two succeeding apparitions of Our Lady of Sorrow and Our Lady of Mount Carmel.

Thus the phenomenon was repeated in the west of the world, only a few Portuguese girls were attending the vision, and she died, as she had foretold, Lucy in 1939, and Jacinta in 1951.

The first Saturday devotion has been established at Fátima, and is adhered to by the Immaculate Heart of Mary and in the Masses. The Pope will be present in Fátima in May, and in November, and December issues: "What happened and where.
