What Freshmen Say About Threat Of Communism

(Editor's Note: A poll was made among the opinions of freshmen to the increasing threat of Communism. The following are some of the suggestions given by the students to meet this menace.)

Arlene Rodriguez
In the United States, in order to carry on our democratic ideas, we must start first of all from the people. We should teach the younger generation the importance of educating people. There is a threat here, but it is something we can work towards. The United States is strong and how it will affect them, that is the most important step to take.

Maureen Flavin
By getting more people to see the evils of Communism we can fight against it. This can be done by addressing the great public, doing so by addressing the public and making them aware of the threat. An organization, such as the Freshmen, could do this.

Susan Flesh
Our generation is the one who will have to work to destroy and end this evil. We should join together and do our part. We should all get involved and make sure we are doing our part.

Alice Thomson
The way to overcome the fear of Communism is to change our attitude towards communism. We should not be afraid of it, but instead see it as a challenge. We must be strong and confident in our abilities.

Donna Priest
Infiltration may be overcome if people will become better informed and understand the real nature of communism. This can be done by reading newspapers and articles that explain the problem. We must learn the facts and be able to defend ourselves against communism.

Elaine Tight
If America's vast resources of communication were not used by men prominent in the world, then we would not be able to do what we can. Infiltration is dangerous, perhaps the worst threat of all to American society. At this moment men needed to be aware of Communism and fight against it.

Lighting the Advent Wreath were Mary Ellen Molinar, Medelina Fallin, Jean Stjulik, Carolyn Lampwel, and Linda Dona.

R. Calceterra
Heads Annual Water Carnival

"The Dolphins Club Present," an annual Christmas donation, was held on December 14. Two shows were given this year to raise money for the Salvation Army. Basil Calceterra, who served as the director, also put on two shows: "The Merry Christmas," held on December 7, and "The Best New Year," held on December 14.

Pre-Season Advertising
Unreasonably

Immediately after Thanksgiving, and even in some cases a few weeks before, users have bought tickets to the Christmas shows. Everyone is currently becoming more interested in them, and good crowds are evident in the shopping districts. It is a favorite pastime of the Christmas season, taking advantage of the advantages of the New Year's Eve. Stamps and smalls, black and red, are available in the stores and stamped. Movie tickets are crowded with busy shoppers dressed in the finest daintiness. This is a very important commercial interest.

Panelists At Symposium Highlight Darwin Day

What is evolution, and is it possible to be convinced of the fact? Some say he is deceived (find the real) from the theory. Others think that evolution is the basis of the Christian Church, and are suspicious of the church in general.

What is the Church's position in the theory of evolution? Does the Church teach that evolution is true, or does it teach that evolution is a myth? The question of the Church's position in the theory of evolution is very important.

Philosophy
Speaking for the philosophy department, Mr. Frank J. Kemper stated that man is related to material evolution. This is true, he said, because the most that can be said about material evolution is related to material thought. And, he said, man can have possible ideas from the material.

Evolutionary biologist, Dr. Charles Darwin, advanced the idea that the concept of the first cause and the difference between material, plant, animal, and man must be preserved. "The key to man," he said, is his material soul.

The natural sciences will "prove" the theory of evolution, but some natural scientists will not believe in the existence of a soul. Also, there is the problem of the concept of the first cause and the difference between material, plant, animal, and man. This is the problem of the first cause.

Biological
Considering the theory in a scientific light, the biologist deems it a curiosity. This is because of the great number of scientists who believe in the theory. Some even believe that the theory is "blind."
How About Christmas Gift For Easter?

Give yourself a smart move—not labeled—but be open on Easter. Place a 6-inch ball of yarn on your desk or bureau. Then, pull a snowman, a tree, or a poinsetta to form your gift. The surprise is in the wrapping, too.

The night before Christmas, sit in a quiet room with a candle, and think about the year. What did you accomplish? What did you learn? What did you want to change? Set your goals for the new year.

Well, Well!
The ceremony in which a few graduates from this year's class were presented with the Founders' Emblem was a quiet one. It was held in the presence of the entire student body, and it was a memorable occasion. The students in the class were all dressed in black gowns, and they stood proudly in front of the emblem, which was held by our President.

It was a moment of great pride and accomplishment for these students, and it was a joy to see them receive this honor. It was a fitting way to close out the year and to look forward to the future.

The Founders' Emblem was first awarded in 1955, and it has been a symbol of excellence and achievement for our students ever since. It is a reminder of the high standards we set for ourselves and the importance of striving for excellence in all that we do.

As we look ahead to the new year, we can be proud of the achievements of our students and the potential they hold for the future. We are confident that they will continue to excel and make us proud.

The Founders' Emblem is more than just a symbol; it is a testament to the dedication and hard work of our students. It is a reminder of the importance of striving for excellence and of the value of hard work.
