FONTBONNE COLLEGE

VOLUME XXXVI

MARCH 16, 1961

NUMBER 5

Sophomores registered for the Summer Session of Laval University, Quebec, are Jeanine Arasin, Carol Stoessel, and Judith Clarke. Carol is the Winner of the Scholarship for the Summer.

C. Stoessel To Laval U.

Carol Stoessel is the 1961 recipient of the summer scholarship to Laval University, Quebec, it was announced yesterday by Sister de Chantal, of the modern foreign language department. A sophomore and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stoessel, Carol is a graduate of St. Elizabeth's Academy.

Her companions to Quebec this summer will be two sophomores: Judith Clarke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Clarke and a graduate of De Andreis High, and Jeanine Arasin, also an alumna of De Andreis, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Arasin.

Dance March 17 For St. Patrick

Under the general chairmanship of Sodality Prefect Anne Jeannet, Fontbonne's Sodality of Our Lady will sponsor the annual St. Patrick's Day Mixer on March 17 in Medaille Hall Ballroom. Music for the evening will be provided from 8:30 to 12:00 by Will Britt. An admission charge of 75 cents will be collected at the door.

Publicity has been placed under the co-chairmanship of Sally Corrigan and Kathleen Radtke. Decorations are under the care of Adrienne Musial and Adolphe Brungardt, while Doris Masek and Susan Grammann are in charge of refreshments.

Anybody who is anybody will be present at this dance, given not only for Emerald Islanders, but also by many Emerald Islanders for friends of the Irish, whose number is legion.

Leaders' Workshop Sunday, April 23

Leadership Workshop is set for Sunday, April 23, 1961, for all students who are elected to offices for the scholastic year 1961-62.

Directed by members of the Student Council, Kathleen Gentile, president, sessions will be started at 1 p.m. and will end at 5 o'clock. Luncheon will be served before proceedings begin.

Nominations For Offices Scheduled

Kathleen Gentile, Hilda Bantle, and Constance Tauber, chairmen of the annual elections for Student Government Association officers, began the process of nominations with the posting of eligible candidates on March 8. Registration for all voting both in SGA and class elections was held March 13 and 14.

The following is the order of elections: nominations for SGA president, March 16-17; nominating speeches for president, March 22; voting for president March 23-24; nominations for SGA vice president, secretary, and treasurer, March 27-28; voting for vice president, secretary, treasurer, and NFCCS junior delegate, April 6-7. Other elections are to follow in this order: nominations for Student Council representatives, April 10-11; voting for representatives, April 13; nominations for class presidents, April 14-17; voting for class presidents and vice presidents, April 19; separate nominations for class secretary and treasurer, April 20-21; voting for secretary and treasurer, April 24.

All club elections will be held in May.

"Triptych" At Webster For 3 Colleges

Webster College will be the hostess for "A Tricollage Triptych" to which are invited Maryville and Fontbonne on Sunday, March 19, from 2 to 4 p.m.

Fontbonne's representatives will be members of the Student Council, who have been asked to discuss religious and social activities with a view of spotlighting religious functions.

A group from the Glee Club will entertain by singing two psalms, "Out of the depths I have cried to Thee, O Lord," and "Cast Thy Care upon the Lord," by Bocard.

College Applies For Government Loans For Students

Fontbonne has made application for funds through the National Defense Act, according to Sister Alfred, president, who addressed the students Monday. This act provides for the creation at American colleges and universities, of loan funds from which students may borrow on reasonable terms for the purpose of completing their higher education.

A student may borrow what she needs up to $1000 for any one year. There are no payments due, either principal or interest, until the student has been working for one year after graduation. Then the interest rate is 3% on the amount borrowed. The student will have ten years in which to complete the payments after that one year in which no payment of interest or principal has been made.

Each student if she is interested is asked to fill out before March 27 the note she received at assembly.

And Now---Two Buildings, Not One, Are Proposed

The best news that Fontbonne heard this year came as a surprise Monday when faculty and students learned that financial loans for two proposed new buildings will be applied for this week. Sister Alfred, president, told the students at an assembly; Sister Stephanie, academic dean, spoke to members of the faculty.

A new dormitory will be built with a federal government loan, to be asked for, and a new library also with government aid if the bill pending on this matter is passed.

Funds for the library have been solicited by members of the Fontbonne Alumnae Association since 1956. Last semester the students concentrated all their efforts on enlarging the library fund; their total was $5,253.24.

It is hoped both buildings will be ready by September, 1962.

Liturgists Pay Honor On Layman's Day

"Layman's Day," April 17, 1961, is the climax of the activities of the year for the Liturgy Commission on campus, under the chairmanship of Kathleen Ryan. The plan for the day is as follows:

A panel discussion at 10 a.m., "What Is the Place of the Layman in the Church?" will have as chairman Mary Louise Langdon. Members are Daniel Abbott of Washington University's Newman Club; Russell Bley, Jr., of St. Louis University; Patricia Stoffen of Maryville College; Marilyn Scheer of Fontbonne; and William Liggett, director of the National Conference of Christians and Jews. The delegate from Webster College will be named later.

A second discussion at 11 a.m. will be "What Is the Place of the Layman in the Parish?" with Rev. Jasper Chiodini, S.T.D., pastor of St. Dominic Savio and former editor of the St. Louis Review and Rev. Donald Sullivan, S.T.L., assistant pastor of Holy Redeemer parish in Webster Groves.

A Dialogue Mass will follow for the student body with a student director of the hymns, Kathleen Nosser. Exhibits will be in the Fine Arts' foyer and lounge by various student groups including IRC, home economics, Sodality, Legion of Mary, and the art and music departments. The exhibits will be related to the idea of the lay apostolate. Marilyn Costello will be the director.

The principal speaker at the convocation at 2 p.m. in the auditorium will talk on the "Liturgy as the Source of Apostolic Life." The name of the speaker will be announced later.

Comment Ditez-Vous St. Patrick's Day En Francais?

A few resident students are doing two things at once nowadays: eating and talking. What is so different about this? They are speaking French.

Taking part in this gallant attempt in the dining room to improve their French are senior Genevieve Stachnik; juniors Carolyn Osiek and Suzanne Kearney; sophomores Patricia Pero, Mary Ann Noonan, and Mary Louise Langdon (who conceived the idea); and freshman Barbara Farrell.

Their conversations range from "passez le sucre" to "comment ditez-vous St. Patrick's Day en francais?"

will admit her to chances on lovely and gorgeous prizes hanging on a Sa Kura No Ki (Cherry Blossom Tree) growing in the Fansui (Font) office; coffee (pronounced "Ko He") and doughnuts, which will be served in the morning in the home economics department; a ten cent kekai (chance) on a cake baked and raffled by either the home economics or speech department.

Card toranpu (games) will be played in the science library and Medaille lounge all day.

Panelists preparing "What is the Place of the Layman in the Church?" for Fontbonne Layman Day, April 17. Left to right: William Liggett, a director of the National Council of Christians and Jews; Fontbonne's Marilyn Scheer; Chairman Mary Louise Langdon; Maryville's Patricia Stoffen; Washington University's Daniel Abbott. Second row: Fontbonne's Shirley Jahoda and Juanita Conrad. Absent when the picture was taken were delegates from St. Louis U. and Webster College.

Announce Winners Another Japan Day With Lots of Fun

Thirty scholarships to Fontbonne, Maryville, and Webster Colleges, each worth $1440, have been awarded on the basis of a joint competitive examination held February 22 at Xavier High School.

Winners of the 10 scholarships to Fontbonne are: Patricia Ann Dunn, St. Joseph's Academy; Louise Angela Harris, Cor Jesu Academy; Mary Joanne Gerken, Incarnate Word Academy; Mary Ann Gotway, Xavier High School; Susan Medgyesi-Mitschang, St. Elizabeth Academy; Carole Lee Noel, St. Elizabeth Academy; Mary Michael O'Keefe, St. Elizabeth's Academy; Patricia Schreiner, St. Joseph's Academy; Carol Shields, Xavier High School; Rita Solovitz, Roosevelt High School.

The 30 winners were selected from among 45 finalists. Eligible for the examination were senior girls of the St. Louis area, who ranked in the highest fifth of their class.

Nihon No Hi No Tame Osensu (Fans-for-Japan Day) is being celebrated this year on Wednesday, April 12. Kippu (tickets) costing $2.00 but worth at least two hundred times more entitle a seito (student) to a dozen or more different events.

Fans-for-Japan Day has a two fold purpose: 1) To raise funds for the Japanese Dendo Kan (Mission) conducted by the Sei Yosefu Kai No Doteizama (Sisters of Saint Joseph) in Japan, where their high school was dedicated two years ago; 2) To develop more gakkoishin (school spirit and support). Everyone will take part: religious and lay faculty; religious and lay students, preschool, speech correction, and special students.

The program, still incomplete, will, however, include the following:

1. Seito's purchase of a Osenu
