SGA Invites Freshmen To Western Panel

Very often students are undecided about their major choice or career interests, and they may need help in determining what to do. SGA, in cooperation with P.E.A. is offering just such help.

The Student Panel will present an informative and interesting series of programs called “The Western Panel.” To acquaint the freshmen and other upperclassmen with the many different departments of study that Pacific has to offer. This series will be held in the forum and will be open to all students.

For their information, Miss Bethune has made the forums into the school and is scheduled for February 23, 1962.
