generosity

A Benedicini priest was recently asked about the influence of American culture on the Catholic Church in the United States. His reply was short and pointed, all receiving equal emphasis. The reverse

The great American saving virtue is an American Catholic virtue as well. Not only are American Catholics made great sacrifices, but also are they a New Englander who swears not, but they have also been survivors in helping to teach their unfortunate fellowmen at least a little to be thankful.

If we may illustrate further, we may look at the problem of the American saving virtue as the 'great American saving virtue' generically, to be exemplified in the development of the South Pacific. From the top of the hill, the actives, through the production and business men numerous, stage crew, dress to the patrons, i.e., the school, students, parents, and friends. Generosity? We knew it demonstrated.

Legion Elects New Officers

The newly elected officers of the Legion of Mary are: Carole Ferris, president; Carol Austrin, vice president; Kathleen Miles, secretary; and Delores Walters, treasurer. Sister Rose Agnes is moderator.

This year there are sixteen students and one student from out of school participating in the apostolic work of the Legion of Mary. Their work is primarily to encourage religious Catholic and non-Catholic students, to bring them into the Church and to assist them in their religious work.

Through their work the Legion of Mary will achieve the following goals:

1. To increase devotion to Mary;
2. To promote active membership in the Catholic faith;
3. To be a member of the Legion of Mary.

To be a member of the Legion of Mary one must say the Virgin Mary, a daily prayer, attend the meeting once a week, and perform two hours of service a week.

To be an auxiliary, one must say the Holy rosary daily.

Hearing Societies Offer Fellowships

The American Hearing Society and the St. Paul Hearing Society have announced $700 in Stumler Mytich fellowships in hearing science and hearing research to aid all who will work in research and hearing aid improvement. The purpose is to encourage students in the hearing field to work in the Chicago Hearing Society.

Fellowships are spent at Northwestern University, Chicago, or any other approved field in the Chicago Hearing Society. Five quarters are spent at Northwestern University, Chicago, and the remaining $200 is spent on field work in the Chicago Hearing Society.

The American Hearing Society of Chicago, an organization of the American Hearing Society, established the fellowship.

The fellowship is open to all students, regardless of race, religion, or nationality.

Germany Today. Americans, Russians Present Solutions

At the close of World War II 1945 the Allied powers agreed on a four-way division of Germany among the United States, France, England, and Russia. The city of Berlin was also divided among the four powers.

To get supplies into West Berlin, the Allied powers had to pass through a part of East Germany. The Russians allowed Americans and French to fly over their territory.

From the summer of 1948 to the spring of 1949, the U.S.S.R. blocked off the transportation of supplies to West Germany. The United States countered this by dropping supplies by air. This led to the Berlin air lift. Since this Berlin air lift has been successful, the Russians lifted the blockade.

The Berlin air lift was a great success, and it was in this way that West Berlin became an independent city.

The Berlin air lift not only supplied food and clothing to the people of West Berlin, but it also served as a reminder of the division between East and West Germany.

There are two main points of view on the Berlin air lift. One is that the air lift was necessary to keep the people of West Berlin alive. The other is that the air lift was a political move to keep West Berlin independent.

The Berlin air lift was a huge success, and it showed the world that even in the face of great challenges, people can come together to help each other.

Yearbook Goes To Printer

The current yearbook will be given to the printer December 15, according to an announcement made by Barbara Kolb and Carolyn Linder, editors. The theme and design are a secret, following a custom established seven years ago. The book will be ready for distribution in May.
