Pluralism Study Advises Active Catholic-Americans

A study of pluralism has been in progress since December 1962, under the direction of the institute's director, Father M. D. Hensley, a Jesuit. Approximately twenty students have participated under the supervision of Dr. C. Y. L. Whitehead, a Jesuit. The study was conducted in the fall of 1962, during the first phase of the program. The second phase of the program began in January and will continue until June.

College Again Checks Stroum in Child's Diet

For the second time this spring, the Stroum sauce, a popular Chinese dish, was found unsuitable for children's diets. The sauce was found to be too high in sodium, which is harmful to children.

Mass Offered For Dr. Thomas Dooley By Publications

The staffs of the newspaper and the magazine in the United States, and of the radio station in the United States, have offered a Mass for the repose of the soul of Dr. Thomas Dooley last week chanting the mass for his soul. The Mass was offered on February 2, 1963, for this intention. The Mass was offered on the anniversary of the 1963 publication of "Health, Housing and Human Welfare" by Dr. Dooley.

Communion Bibliography Offered For Instruction

Because of the ever-increasing threat of Communism it is necessary that Catholic college students know exactly what the enemy of the West is. In cooperation with the student administration, "The Philosophy of Communism," a study guide for the course, has been published. The guide is designed to be used by students to help them understand the nature and power of Communism and its potential for destruction. In these selections students should be able to see the need by which they can help combat the Soviet menace.

The Eucharist in America and How to Celebrate It

By Michael Crichton

For those interested in the Eucharist, there is a new book available, "The Eucharist in America and How to Celebrate It." It provides a comprehensive guide to the celebration of the Eucharist in the United States, including the history and development of the Eucharist in the United States.

Need: Action From People Good, Energetic, Unselfish

We have it on the word of no less than Nikolai Lenin himself that small number of people among their own open could have any impact.

If there has been in Petrograd in 1917, it said, a group of only a few thousand men who knew what they wanted, we never could have come to power in Russia.

There is a boom of hope, however, even though the blindness of the people of Petrograd gave unwarranted entrance to the mischief of misers that is now being unwittingly caused by the rich.
