Alumnae Give Art Exhibit

Because the liberally educated woman should be interested in many things, she will be interested in the Spring Alumnae Art Exhibit and Tea to be held January 21, 1962, from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. in the Middle Hall Ballroom. The exhibit will feature the works of both the Fontbonne alumnae and their children. The general chairmen are Mrs. Francis Plante and the co-chairman is Mrs. John C. Bliss and senior students are invited to the exhibit.

Gives Two Modern Plays

The Theater Workshop recently presented two contemporary one act plays in the Fine Arts Auditorium. Junior Barbara Keating directed one act by Sam Strow and Senior Suzanne McNeely directed "The Lemon Tree" written by Edna St. Vincent Millay. "The Lemon Tree" is the story of two spinster sisters who poison themselves. The play was produced by the Fontbonne Players and starring Mrs. Mary Ellen, Mrs. A. M. Black and Mrs. Mary Blendis. The Lemon Tree is in fragility. It involves a professor who is also a pupil in his own course and the student who is also the professor and the play was produced by the Fontbonne Players and starring Mrs. Mary Ellen, Mrs. A. M. Retreat Dates, Jan. 26-Feb. 2

There will be three retreats at the end of the first semester. The annual sociality of Holy Week retreat will be held from Friday, January 26 to Saturday, January 28, at St. Mary's Retreat House on Lockwood Station Road in Westport.

During the first day period the retreat master will be Rev. Joseph E. Fisher, S.J. He is the former Jesuit provincial and is now rector of St. Mary's College in Kansas. This year the students will be divided into two sections for the enigmatic retreat. On Monday, January 23, and Tuesday, January 24, the senior, junior, and sophomore classes will have their retreat. The freshmen will assemble Thursday and Friday, January 25, and 26, for their annual spiritual exercises.

Sister Mary Clay, C.P., will give the confessions for the college retreat. Father Clay is a native of St. Joseph's Ministry in Detroit, Michigan.

Scholarship Exams Planned

The annual competitive examination for scholarships to the three Catholic women's colleges in the St. Louis area will be given at 9:30 a.m. Saturday, February 1, at Xavier High School, 3730 West Pine Blvd. It has been announced.

The colleges—Maryville College of the Sacred Heart, Webster College, and Fontbonne—each will offer 10 four-year scholarships. Each scholarship will be valued according to financial need and academic potential of the recipient.

The examination is open to any girl in the upper fourth of her class in any private or parochial high school in the St. Louis area.

With its theme of "A Winter Fantasy of Delight" the annual Christmas Ball was held on January 22 from 8:00 p.m. to midnight in the Metropolis Ballroom. The formal attire was sponsored by the freshmen class.

Notey Gand and Regina Noonan were co-chairmen for the ball. Committee members included: Sheila O'Neill and Mary Jo Stack; Austria O'Leary and Marilyn Leonard; Marie Salzinger and Katharine Bryan and Daniel Bryan; Patrice Ruane and Joan M. Deaton; Dorothy Lyle and Mary Ray Sullivan, cleanup.

College Will Host IRC Regional

Fontbonne will be hostess to the Missouri State Conference of the College Women for the United Nations on Saturday, March 1.

Sponsored by the IRC the conferences have been attended by twenty-five scholars from Iowa State College, junior and senior women students.

All colleges in Missouri will be invited. The program will include an address by the national director, Mrs. Patricia Green, and by Sister Joseph Anthony, national director of the national office.

Registration Dates

Registration Dates

Second semester registration will be held for students on Wednesday, January 27, between 8:00 a.m. and 12:00 noon in the Parent's Office, according to Sister Patricia Marie, registrar.

Help Wanted In Work Of Extension Volunteers

This year, for the first time, Fontbonne will join the summer program of the Lay Extension Volunteers. The college will affiliate with a Sisters of Charity mission and need student volunteers to help out in areas where there are no Catholic schools.

The students will have religious work and will help students in parochial schools and parishes. Most students will be used as work volunteers. During the second semester a series of lectures will be given for the students in the program. The students will be given instructions in religious instruction and general subjects in handling situations which may arise.

Anyone interested in the program must contact Sister Augustine Patrick, of the lay extension office, and register for the course. The course is open to all students and will be held on Tuesday evenings.

Speech Majors Give Reception In Arcade Room

"Projectorget," a program and social program, by the speech correction department at Xavier High School in the newly decorated Arcade Room, was given in order to project the work and responsibilities of the profession for new and interested students.

S. McNulty Wins College “Player of the Year” Award

At the annual awards ceremony of the Fictioneers' Theatrical Players, held this past Saturday, Rachel McNulty, senior, was declared the most valuable player and was given the title “The Fictioneers' Player of the Year.” The award was merited by Joan Mooney O’Donnell, A.B. '61, for playing the part of Nana in “I Remember Mama.”

The ceremony followed the conclusion of Holy Mass at the Greek Rural Church, the Church of the Assumption, and then at Old Church. An evening reception in the group was present. Mrs. Frances R. S. McNulty, president of the English Club, addressed the gathering. She expressed the hope to bring this event in the future.

Other awards were merited by Nancy Crowell, as the best character actress for portraying Blanche by Nana in “South Pacific,” for showing the greatest promise in the theater, and the highest number of elections for the part of the Student in “The Green-Winged Angel.”

Shirley was the fall season award for lighting and stage management, A.B. '61, and the American Legion award for outstanding work in the group was awarded to Michael Curtis, as the best character actor for his work in “South Pacific.”

Discusses Role Of Layman In Modern Church

On December 8, 1963, the students and faculty assembled in the assembly hall to hear a lecture by Michael de Bode, S.J., the president of the College. The lecture was titled “The Church in the Nineteenth Century,” and was delivered by Professor de Bode.

The lecture began with an analysis of the services of the various offices of the Church, focusing on the importance of the layman in modern church. The lecture concluded with a discussion of the role of the layman in the Church and the importance of his participation in the life of the Church.

Even Alumnae Are Missing

Have you ever wondered where the alumnae are? Of course, the alumnae of St. Louis are not missing; but just for fun, let's think of a chance to see them. Alice Crawford, who has been in charge of the alumnae membership committee, is holding a meeting to discuss the possibilities of having an alumnae event. She has invited some of the alumnae to come and share their memories of their time at the College. The event will be held in the Student Center and will feature a panel discussion on the history of the alumnae association. If you would like to attend, please contact Alice Crawford at acrawford@stlc.edu.
