Faculty Honors P. Cramer, C. Osiek, R. Weyerich

Four students were chosen to receive honors to be conferred during the 1962 bicentennial and centennial ceremonies.

Carolyn Osiek and Patricia Cramer, seniors, were elected to Kappa Gamma Pi, national Catholic literary society, by the faculty last week. Also elected at the faculty meeting was Roxanne Weyerich, senior, who will receive the Poncent College scholar's medal.

Mary Elizabeth Paul, sophomore, will receive the Alumnae scholar's medal.

The purpose of Kappa Gamma Pi is to foster a high standard of scholarship, character, service, and leadership among the college girls by emphasizing the value of literary endeavor and campus leadership. In the post-college years it encourages active participation of its members in church and community life.

In regard to its membership, Kappa Gamma Pi is a society of Catholic women who have fulfilled the following qualifications: 1) They shall have been graduated with an honor point average of 2.5 based on a core of 3.0 from colleges and universities which are full affiliation members of the National Catholic Educational Association, and which have established affiliation with Kappa Gamma Pi. The students shall have shown outstanding leadership in both religious and other extracurricular activities, and shall have been elected by majority vote of the student body as members of the nominating college for at least their last term. Further, the points shall be: Patricia, 20; Car-

The St. Catherine's Medal is awarded to a sophomore who at that level is a potential leader. On the basis of these, four seniors, Mary Elizabeth Paul, were elected, having an average of 2.5.

Every year the Poncent Alumnae Association gives the Poncent Alumnae Medal to a student who demonstrates leadership, with purple and gold, to the members of the graduating class who give the greatest promise of being an alumnae member of the association, as evidenced by loyalty to the college, participation in extra-curricular activities, and scholarship.

Roxanne Weyerich is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Weyerich. Roxanne's mother is a Poncent alumnus.

Students Have 1962 Yearbook

The 1962 yearbook, "Poncent," was distributed Thursday by the staff. Dedicated to Education, in particular, to religion, law, and service as exemplified in the St. Louis area, the book contains pictures of St. Louis, the St. Louis cathedral, the Boys and Girls Clubs, the Cathedral of Mary Queen of the Most Holy Rosary, St. Louis Cathedral.

Mary Ellen Deere, junior, was editor assisted by Beatrix Reiner and Eileen Hughey, art editor. Following is the dedication:

"We do our humble, earnest attempt to prepare for the world?" quoted Cathedral Newman over two decades ago. Why are we concerned about today? How, then, follow Newman's advice, so shrewdly pointing that education not only aims for this world that we might modestly benefit from it, but also that we may apply...

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 1.)

Plans Third European Tour

Plants are now being formulated, and the itinerary is being considered for Poncent's Third European Tour to be given next summer. Similar to the 1959 and 1960 tours, this third trip to study cultural differences will start June 15th, in June, 1961, and return July 31st, lasting about seven weeks.

The group will land in Dublin, then proceed to England, France, Germany, Belgium, Italy, Austria, Spain, and Portugal—two of the smaller nations. Malta and Lisbon.

The cost of the trip will be about $2,500. Interested students are asked to sign their names on a list posted on the main bulletin board, first floor Brown Hall.

Students Complete All SGA Elections

With the close of the recent Student Government elections the roster of next year's SGA and NFCCPS has been completed. The Student Council officers are Mary Bos Dumas, president; Mary Louise Bons, vice-president; Patricia Osiek, secretary; and Kathleen Sturm, treasurer.

Mary Bons, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Dumas of St. Louis, attended St. Joseph's Academy in St. Louis, Missouri. She is majoring in business major in economics.

A graduate of Bosco College in Jacksonville, Ill., Mary Louise Bons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Langton of Metuchen, Illinois, is majoring in business major in economics.

Patricia Osiek is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Osiek, she lives at 2029 Halabi Drive in North College has 14 Volunteers

As announced several months ago, Poncent has entered into a lay apostolate program in cooperation with the work of the Loyola Employment; Volunteers. This group is directed by the Associated Student Government, and the volunteers who share in the apostolate ministry to teach the word of God, Sister Agnes Pascale, in cooperation with the program.

Brosi, under the supervision of the administrative committee, will be responsible for the development of the program. Volunteers will be chosen from students who are not in the above-mentioned groups. The group will be divided into sections, and each section will have a leader.

Arrangements have been completed with the student government, and the group will be given six weeks to organize in preparation for the program (Continued on Page 5, Col. 1.)

National Science Foundation Grants Math, Chemistry Departments

Three faculty members recently received recognition by the federal scientific organization in the country.

The National Science Foundation has given Poncent a grant for an inservice education institute to be held on Saturdays during the academic year of 1962-63. The institute is designed to help elementary teachers to understand the theory behind the fundamental principles of mathematics and in preparing them to teach at any grade level arithmetic courses which meet the ideal program. Sister Mary Vieshes and Sister Mary Wilms will be the institute director and instructor, respectively.

Sister Helen Joseph, professor of chemistry and chairman of the chemistry department, has been selected as a participant for the inservice institute in radiation and nuclear medicine. She is an experienced teacher of and reformer in biology and medicine and will be held at the University of Connecticut, Berkeley, through July and August. The summer grant was also given to Sister Helen Joseph by the National Science Foundation.

Prom Theme Is Chosen

"Midnight in Athens" is this year's theme for the annual Junior Prom to be held Friday, May 4, in Melbourne Ballroom; the ballroom, alumni room, and the room are to be draped in drapery.

Sister Agnes Pascale, in cooperation with the program.

Arrangements have been completed with the student government, and the group will be given six weeks to organize in preparation for the program (Continued on Page 5, Col. 1.)

National Science Foundation Grants Math, Chemistry Departments

Three faculty members recently received recognition by the federal scientific organization in the country.

The National Science Foundation has given Poncent a grant for an inservice education institute to be held on Saturdays during the academic year of 1962-63. The institute is designed to help elementary teachers to understand the theory behind the fundamental principles of mathematics and in preparing them to teach at any grade level arithmetic courses which meet the ideal program. Sister Mary Vieshes and Sister Mary Wilms will be the institute director and instructor, respectively.

Sister Helen Joseph, professor of chemistry and chairman of the chemistry department, has been selected as a participant for the inservice institute in radiation and nuclear medicine. She is an experienced teacher of and reformer in biology and medicine and will be held at the University of Connecticut, Berkeley, through July and August. The summer grant was also given to Sister Helen Joseph by the National Science Foundation.

Prom Theme Is Chosen

"Midnight in Athens" is this year's theme for the annual Junior Prom to be held Friday, May 4, in Melbourne Ballroom; the ballroom, alumni room, and the room are to be draped in drapery.

Sister Agnes Pascale, in cooperation with the program.

Arrangements have been completed with the student government, and the group will be given six weeks to organize in preparation for the program (Continued on Page 5, Col. 1.)

National Science Foundation Grants Math, Chemistry Departments

Three faculty members recently received recognition by the federal scientific organization in the country.

The National Science Foundation has given Poncent a grant for an inservice education institute to be held on Saturdays during the academic year of 1962-63. The institute is designed to help elementary teachers to understand the theory behind the fundamental principles of mathematics and in preparing them to teach at any grade level arithmetic courses which meet the ideal program. Sister Mary Vieshes and Sister Mary Wilms will be the institute director and instructor, respectively.

Sister Helen Joseph, professor of chemistry and chairman of the chemistry department, has been selected as a participant for the inservice institute in radiation and nuclear medicine. She is an experienced teacher of and reformer in biology and medicine and will be held at the University of Connecticut, Berkeley, through July and August. The summer grant was also given to Sister Helen Joseph by the National Science Foundation.

Prom Theme Is Chosen

"Midnight in Athens" is this year's theme for the annual Junior Prom to be held Friday, May 4, in Melbourne Ballroom; the ballroom, alumni room, and the room are to be draped in drapery.

Sister Agnes Pascale, in cooperation with the program.

Arrangements have been completed with the student government, and the group will be given six weeks to organize in preparation for the program (Continued on Page 5, Col. 1.)

National Science Foundation Grants Math, Chemistry Departments

Three faculty members recently received recognition by the federal scientific organization in the country.

The National Science Foundation has given Poncent a grant for an inservice education institute to be held on Saturdays during the academic year of 1962-63. The institute is designed to help elementary teachers to understand the theory behind the fundamental principles of mathematics and in preparing them to teach at any grade level arithmetic courses which meet the ideal program. Sister Mary Vieshes and Sister Mary Wilms will be the institute director and instructor, respectively.

Sister Helen Joseph, professor of chemistry and chairman of the chemistry department, has been selected as a participant for the inservice institute in radiation and nuclear medicine. She is an experienced teacher of and reformer in biology and medicine and will be held at the University of Connecticut, Berkeley, through July and August. The summer grant was also given to Sister Helen Joseph by the National Science Foundation.
SGA Proposes Many Projects

With the election of new year’s ASG officers and representatives, the Campus Center is now dedicated to the building of a solid foundation on which the SGA can build. The new officers, under the leadership of SGA president Todd, are determined to make this year a success. The new board of directors is composed of students from all walks of life, and they are eager to make a difference in the lives of the students. The SGA will be working closely with the administration to ensure that student voices are heard.

College Welcomes Alumnae April 14

Open House Day was held on Saturday, April 14, for the alumnae of the Fontbonne Alumni Association. The day began with registration in the Ybarra Hall at 10 a.m. and ended at 3 p.m., with lunch served at noon in Hallman Center.

The alumnae received old memories of by celebrating the reunion and experiencing the school’s current events. The event was an opportunity to reconnect with old friends, reminisce about shared experiences, and enjoy current events. The day included a special presentation by retired St. Louis Archbishop Cardinal Francis J. Kelly. The event was an opportunity for alumnae to reconnect with old friends and enjoy current events. The day included a special presentation by retired St. Louis Archbishop Cardinal Francis J. Kelly.

Future Students Have Book List

Educators agree that success in college, for all students, begins with preparation. The Fontbonne Book List provides a complete list of required and recommended textbooks for each course. It is a valuable resource for students to have a clear understanding of the materials they will need for success in their courses. The list is available online and in physical copies at the bookstore. For more information, please contact the admissions office at 314-516-6100.

Editorial Say, “Fountain Will Flow Next Month”

The Fountain, Fontbonne’s literary magazine, was sent to the printer on March 27. The staff is working hard to finalize everything, and the magazine will be distributed in May.

Department Plans Has Plans

In September, 1962, Fontbonne will launch a program of participation in the apostolate of the Church. Although plans are still tentative, the program will be open to all students, faculty, and alumnae. The focus will be on meeting the needs of the community, and students will be encouraged to volunteer and make a difference.

Volunteers

(Sent in from Page 1, Col. 1.)

(Continued from Page 1. The project is an important aspect of the Fontbonne community. It is a way for students to give back to the community and to learn about the needs of others.

Editorial Say, “Fountain Will Flow Next Month”

The Fountain, Fontbonne’s literary magazine, was sent to the printer on March 27. The staff is working hard to finalize everything, and the magazine will be distributed in May.

Department Plans Has Plans

In September, 1962, Fontbonne will launch a program of participation in the apostolate of the Church. Although plans are still tentative, the program will be open to all students, faculty, and alumnae. The focus will be on meeting the needs of the community, and students will be encouraged to volunteer and make a difference.

Volunteers

(Sent in from Page 1, Col. 1.)

(Continued from Page 1. The project is an important aspect of the Fontbonne community. It is a way for students to give back to the community and to learn about the needs of others.

Summer Program

For Children 6-16 Years

Fontbonne offers an exciting and educational program for children during the summer. The program is designed to engage children in hands-on learning experiences through various activities such as science experiments, art projects, and outdoor adventures. Registration is required, and space is limited. For more information, please contact the admissions office at 314-516-6100.

YTS Makes Plea For Volunteers

The Volunteer Teacher’s Services (VTS) is a non-profit organization that provides volunteer teachers to children in need. The organization is currently seeking volunteers to teach in schools in both the United States and Latin American countries. Volunteers are needed to teach in elementary schools, middle schools, and high schools. The organization is currently seeking volunteers to teach in schools in both the United States and Latin American countries. Volunteers are needed to teach in elementary schools, middle schools, and high schools.

Fountain...
G. Sveizia, J. Theis, M. Gruber In Opera

(On Friday, April 21, 7-9 p.m.) Fosse Arts Auditorium the Fountbonne Theatre Players present The Old Maid and the Thief, a one-act play by Gerhart Hauptmann. The cast includes Peggy Flamm, Jeanne Bedrick, Mary Murrill, Lois Strouse, and Thea Blakeslee. The play is based on a true story about a widow who is allowed to live in a house with a young man who is so much like her late husband. The musical score is by Mason B. K. Heiliger.

Assembly Heaps Noted Liturgist

The May assembly will hear an address by the Right Reverend Monsignor Martin B. Heiliger on "Mary, the Model for Convertcd Anglo-Saxons and American Woman." Internationally known authority on the Liturgical movement and author of Holy Cross parish, Hark. Monsignor Heiliger is also associate editor of Worship, and author of The Story of the Holy One and The Way and the Branches.

Born in Heppenheim, Germany, on September 30, 1918, Monsignor Heiliger was brought to St. Peter's Church there; this church has been given by Charles Hoppin to the Benedictines in a nearby abbey. He studied at high school and college in Heppenheim, which in Saint Malo, he came to the United States in 1937. He completed his Lic. Mestr. in 1941, his Lic. Doct. in 1943. In 1956 he received his advanced study with Dr. Peter Parach of Klosterneuburg, Jurista becker, and outstanding scholar.

The May 2nd lecture marks the second time Fosse has been privileged to have Monsignor Heiliger. In the fall of 1962, he was the guest speaker for NCPUC’s religious assembly.

Not To Let the World Go By Requires Huge Effort

"I am tempted to visit some remote village and let the rest of the world go by," one woman said. "But I don’t want to think about it. I’d rather live happily ever after."

"I don’t mean that," the other woman replied. "I mean that I feel so conflicted that I can’t bear the thought of living in poverty."

"But why do you feel that way?" the first woman asked.

"Because I feel that I’m not doing enough to help others," the second woman answered. "I feel that I could be doing more if I had the time and the money."

"But you’re doing a lot," the first woman protested. "You volunteer at the food bank and you’re active in your church."

"But I know there are many people who need help," the second woman replied. "And I feel guilty that I’m not doing more to help them."

"But you’re doing your part," the first woman said. "You’re helping those in need."

"But I want to do more," the second woman said. "I want to make a difference."
Parlent Perographe

(These paragraphs are extracts from the book "Harvest")

The statement of the Bishop of the United States is to the effect, in the words of the Junior Elasson residing for the day:

"What is personal responsibility in the classroom? This is the question we should all ask ourselves. If we answer the question correctly, we can be proud of our school and the community it serves."

The book "Harvest" is a collection of essays on responsibility. It discusses the importance of personal responsibility in various aspects of life, including school, community, and personal development. The essays explore how personal responsibility can lead to success in life and how it can be taught in the classroom.

Field Trips On Teachers' Agenda

During the second semester of this school year the students in the junior grade are being taken to Autumn Field Trip. The trip is designed to provide a practical experience for the students and to enhance their understanding of the material covered in class.

Girls

Of the girls, thirteen were to be selected for the Communist Party. Three of them are children of workers, and the four others are children of bankers. This, as the students of the Lenin School, are children of workers and students of the Party, have to become the leaders of the Party. "A man is he who is acting in the interest of the mass, and the woman is he who is acting in the interest of the mass."

The girls are trained in the Communist Party, and they are the most important part of the Party. They are the leaders of the Young Communist League, and they are the future leaders of the Party. The girls are the future leaders of the revolution.

Education Majors Read

When I Grow Up I'll Be A---

Several education majors had attended a good high-level seminar where they were given first-rate assignments from the basic course. Sister Mary John, head of the seminar, had received a high praise from Sister Mary Barbara. The students were especially impressed with the responsiveness of the students who grasped the material as if they were acting in the part of the audience.

Kitch In Nove Decarated

Home Economics Department and Students Mary Beth Olyenic and Kathleen Palmol.

All the plans of a modern house can be found in the newly developed home economics course, a major part of the new life style in the science building.

The FONT

Font Editor --- Joyce Sturgis Assistant Editor - Norma Doolittle Executive Editor - Dorothy D. Kerr

Photographer --- D. L. Smith

Books You Will Like

What do you really know about your city?

What you really know about your city is that it is a place to live, work, and play, and that it is a part of your daily life. It is a place where you spend most of your time, and it is a place where you feel comfortable. It is a place where you have a sense of community, and it is a place where you can find support and encouragement.

The book "What do you really know about your city?" is a collection of essays on the history and culture of cities. The essays explore how cities have developed over time and how they have shaped the lives of their residents. They discuss the importance of understanding the history and culture of cities in order to understand their role in modern society.