John Doscher Will Teach Photography Seminar

John W. Doscher, internationally known photographer and recipient of the Philadelphia Art Alliance Award for outstanding work in color photography, will give four lectures on the art of color photography in Madonna Hall at Fontbonne. Mr. Doscher is the owner and director of the Camera School of Photography in South Weymouth, Massachusetts, which teaches several hundred students from 50 states and 10 foreign countries. He has served as president of the Camera Club of Boston. He will lecture on the Matzelf Memorial Library at Brown University, Providence, Rhode Island. His photographs are monochrome and color ranges from pictorial landscapes and nudes are set through product and advertising illustrations to portraiture.

Four Representative Colleges At Model Student UN

Wednesday, March 27, at the Chase-Park Plaza Hotel students of schools and universities will meet and discuss world problems. Each of these schools has chosen a foreign country to represent, and the group of 60 nations participating in the Midwest Model United Nations will work together with the purpose of learning how they can follow international da-

The delegates from Fontbonne are Kathleen Pierson, who is chairman of the delegation, Barbara Mares, Susan Block, Marjorie Mclaughlin, and Mary Ann McKenna. Each student is on a different committee and has three to four topics to discuss, such as “The Question of Ethiopia,” “Ecological Use of Oceans,” “The Question of Africa,” and “The Question of United States” Powernet.

This year the Fontbonne delegation is in representing Nigeria, a newly-independent country in northeastern Africa. At the present time, their job is to find out all they can about the national policy of Nigeria, which is that of a neutralist. (Continued on Page 3, Col. 3)

Frost Entertain Fresh Free Day At Montebello

For this semester’s recreational activities members of the freshmen class are planning a trip to Camp Montebello. Tuesday, March 19, the Fresh of St. Joseph, is a five-day day. The chairman for the project is the class officers: Carol Pawlowski, president; Rita McNamara, vice-president; Eleanor Hall, secretary; Mary Martin, treasurer.

Montebello is a large area located near Kalamazoo, Michigan, about thirty miles south of St. Louis. It has adequate facilities for both indoor and outdoor sports and games, such as tennis, badminton, volleyball, and basketball. The price for the all-day affair is $1.25 per person. The main bulletin board will give additional information.

The play is, "The Kingdom of God," under the direction of Miss Carmelina Schleding, at 8:15 p.m., tonight and Saturday, March 18 and 19, in the auditorium.

Nancie Serra plays the lead as Sister Grazia with support from Carl Retzinger. The other roles are filled by Jean Brindamour, David Dapes, Bill Ditts, Virginia Hen- drick, Fae Hill, Ruth Ann Hott- ler, Bill Klinebush, Norm Mer- man, June Montes, Nan Mitchell, Lee Myers, Birm Nally, Debra Naft, Mary Kellogg Stotz, Carol Pinker, Jan Powell, Christie Rice, Gayle Ro- rison, and Anne Scharff. Mrs. Serra is the manager for the production of in Bengali Urdu, Carol Lutz, and Donna Reynolds.

"The Kingdom of God" is the final production of the Fortnight Players' Theatre. The next one is to be announced at a later date.

Sodalists On St. Pat's Day

St. Patrick's Day will be a busy day this year, especially for Fortnighter sodalists. The sodality is planning a big St. Patrick's Day celebration on March 17. There will be a St. Patrick's Day Mass at 9:30 a.m., followed by a corned beef, cabbage, and potatoes breakfast. The Sodalists will be having a St. Patrick's Day dinner at 6:30 p.m. The corned beef dinner will be followed by a St. Patrick's Day dance at 8:00 p.m. in St. Patrick's Hall. The dance will feature music by the Fortnight Rhythm Kings and a special guest, Mr. John S. O'Brien. The Sodalists will be having a great time celebrating St. Patrick's Day.

Elections

Mary Rose Dunn, S.C.A. President

On January 31, the Fortnight Players Theatre held their election for the new officers. The election results show that Mary Rose Dunn has been re-elected as President. She will be serving her second term in this position. Mary Rose Dunn has been a dedicated member of the Fortnight Players Theatre and has brought many new members to the organization. Her leadership skills and passion for theater have made her a great asset to the Fortnight Players Theatre.

Request For Camp Directors

A request from the Catholic Youth Council of St. Louis has been received for college women to work this summer at Rosary Villa.

Located in Highland, near Lake Tiltons, about twenty-five miles north of St. Louis, Rosary Villa is a day camp, nursery school, and recreation center for about 150 children who attend. The work is largely apostolic.

Open five days a week for nine weeks, the camp provides a bus which picks up staff and campers for the beginning activity, at 8 a.m., at various parishes in the city and county. The camp closes every evening at 4:30 o'clock.

He will discuss the importance of looking for the big picture, the use of available light, what is the best time of day to photograph, and the role of the photographer in the overall picture of the event. Photographs are an important element in the communication process, and the ability of a photographer to capture the essence of the event is crucial to its success.

Scholarship

(Continued from Page 1, Col. 2) Mary Louise is an outstanding student at the University of Missouri. She has been a member of the Fortnight Players Theatre since her freshman year and has been an active member ever since. She is currently a senior and plans to graduate in May with a degree in English.

The Fortnight Players Theatre is proud to announce that Mary Louise has been awarded a scholarship by the University of Missouri. This scholarship will enable her to continue her studies and pursue her passion for theater. The Fortnight Players Theatre is grateful to the University of Missouri for recognizing the talent and hard work of Mary Louise and for providing her with this opportunity to further her education.
