Seniors Receive Degrees From Cardinal Ritter
Sunday Evening, May 26

On Sunday, May 26, 1963, Joseph E. Cardinal Ritter, Archbishop of St. Louis, will confer bachelor degrees on the eighty-four Fontbonne seniors. The Very Reverend Paul Rehier, Ph.D., S.J., president of St. Louis University, will deliver the commencement address.

The Baccalaureate Mass and Commencement exercises for the seniors and their parents will be on Saturday, May 25, at the St. Louis Cathedral Basilica, located at 501 South Second Street. A special Mass will be held at 10 a.m. for the students and their families. The address for the Baccalaureate Mass and Commencement exercises will be formally announced.

The complete program for the commencement exercises will be announced in the future.

Grant Renewed As First Seven Students In Deal Education Development

Grant Renewed As First Seven Students In Deal Education Development

Fontbonne last week received a grant of $2500 from the United States Department of Health, Education, and Welfare for training teachers in the deaf. Last year's Federal grant was $2000.

Eighty-five dollars of the $2500 grant will be used for teachers in the deaf program; the remaining will be used for scholarships and stipends for incoming students.

The new program will receive the degree of bachelor of arts at commencement exercises. Laboratory schools for the deaf, the fully accredited elementary school for the deaf, and a day school for the deaf, will be included.

Summer Apostolic Program Attracts Family Group Of Teachers

The summer apostolic program, held at Fontbonne College, will be attended by a group of teachers and their families. The program will focus on the Apostolic Family, a family group of teachers who meet weekly to discuss and study the Apostolic Family. The program will be held at the College of the Holy Spirit, located at 3900 Kemper Avenue, St. Louis, Missouri.

Receive Grants From Universities

Two applicants from the Fontbonne College Faculty have been awarded grants from the National Institute of Education to study foreign languages. The grants will enable the applicants to study foreign languages at the University of Pennsylvania and at the University of Texas at Austin.

Mary Jane Grottker, associate professor of foreign languages, will use the grant from the University of Pennsylvania to study foreign languages at the University of Pennsylvania. Dr. Grottker has been teaching foreign languages at Fontbonne for many years.

Mary Jane Grottker, associate professor of foreign languages, has been awarded a grant from the National Institute of Education to study foreign languages at the University of Pennsylvania. Dr. Grottker has been teaching foreign languages at Fontbonne for many years.

Mary Jane Grottker, associate professor of foreign languages, has been awarded a grant from the National Institute of Education to study foreign languages at the University of Pennsylvania. Dr. Grottker has been teaching foreign languages at Fontbonne for many years.

Mary Jane Grottker, associate professor of foreign languages, has been awarded a grant from the National Institute of Education to study foreign languages at the University of Pennsylvania. Dr. Grottker has been teaching foreign languages at Fontbonne for many years.

Mary Jane Grottker, associate professor of foreign languages, has been awarded a grant from the National Institute of Education to study foreign languages at the University of Pennsylvania. Dr. Grottker has been teaching foreign languages at Fontbonne for many years.

Mary Jane Grottker, associate professor of foreign languages, has been awarded a grant from the National Institute of Education to study foreign languages at the University of Pennsylvania. Dr. Grottker has been teaching foreign languages at Fontbonne for many years.

Mary Jane Grottker, associate professor of foreign languages, has been awarded a grant from the National Institute of Education to study foreign languages at the University of Pennsylvania. Dr. Grottker has been teaching foreign languages at Fontbonne for many years.
NSF Grants To College

Members of Phi Gamma Pi, the national social science honor society, recently installed their new officers. Elected to office were: H. E. Rice, president; Mary L. Furr, secretary-treasurer; and Jack E. Green, treasurer. The installation was held in the college auditorium.

Honor Society Chooses Heads

A recent meeting of the national honor society, Phi Gamma Pi, was held in the college auditorium. The meeting was attended by 15 members of the society, who elected new officers for the coming year.

Graduate Students Planning Their Internships

A group of graduate students in the department of education is planning their internships for the fall semester. The group consists of five students: Jack A. Brown, who is planning an internship in the field of guidance; John B. Jones, who is planning an internship in the field of counseling; and Mary E. Williams, who is planning an internship in the field of psychology.

Juniors Entertain Seniors

The evening of May 10, 1963, proved to be a memorable one for the Junior class of the college. The event, which was held in the college auditorium, was attended by nearly 300 students and faculty members.

Ingenuity and Imagination

The use of imagination and ingenuity was evident in the preparation of the Junior class for their final event of the year. The event was held in the college auditorium and was attended by nearly 300 students and faculty members.

 modelos in the Home Economics Fashion Show

Mary Ethel, president of the college, and her students, presented a fashion show that featured models in the latest styles. The event was attended by nearly 300 students and faculty members.

Junior Class Chooses Heads

The Junior class of the college recently held their annual election for class officers. The election was held in the college auditorium and was attended by nearly 300 students and faculty members.

Appointments Made

The college administration recently appointed several new faculty members to fill vacancies in various departments. The appointments were announced in a statement released by the college administration.

Government on Leadership Day

The Student Government of the college recently held their annual Leadership Day. The event was held in the college auditorium and was attended by nearly 300 students and faculty members.

Elected to IRC

A number of students and faculty members were elected to the Intercollegiate Radio Club (IRC) at the recent meeting of the organization. The election was held in the college auditorium and was attended by nearly 300 students and faculty members.